

WOODROW WILSON
President of the United States

RE-ELECTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES

WILSON WINS!

The dispatches sent out by the Associated Press at 10:30 A. M., Thursday, indicate the re-election of President Wilson. He now has 256 electoral votes, sure.

There are 32 electoral votes in doubt—California (13), Minnesota (12), New Mexico (3), New Hampshire (4). The dispatches state the returns in California are so nearly complete that it is altogether probable that the final result will be favorable to Wilson.

The indications are that the lower house of Congress will be Republican. The Senate will remain Democratic without doubt.

Table with columns for Districts, President of United States, United States Senator, Rep. in Congress, and Rep. in Gen'l Assembly. Lists candidates like Woodrow Wilson, Hughes, and Fairbanks across various districts.

NOTE—The totals here given include the vote of the five precincts whose figures reached us too late for inserting.

Scott, Republican, Defeats Gardner, Democrat,* by 12 Votes. Troop L's vote, on the border stands—Gardner, 21; Scott, 17, but the Machine Gun Troop is said to be strong for Scott, bringing Scott's plurality to about 25.

Tobias (D) Defeats Rowland (R) for Congress, in Dis't, by 300. Clearfield goes for Tobias by 1500; Rowland gets Cameron county by 300, McKean by 600 and Centre by 300.

WILSON GETS MARYLAND

France, Republican, is Elected U. S. Senator. Baltimore, Md., Nov. 8.—Wilson has carried Maryland by a plurality of 10,000 or more. Dr. Joseph France, Republican candidate for senator, is pushing David J. Lewis, Democrat, close in Baltimore city, and his election is indicated.

NEW YORK FOR HUGHES BY 150,000

Whitman Re-elected Governor; Calder U. S. Senator. New York, Nov. 8.—His home state rose to his support, just as Mr. Hughes had hoped and expected. While he looked anxiously to the results beyond the Mississippi, the man who for four years fought the Republican organization in New York turned with deep interest to the returns from the districts he knew so well.

CONGRESS TURNS TO REPUBLICANS

Control of the House is Lost to Democrats. THE SENATE IS IN DOUBT Six Seats in Upper Branch Now Held by Democrats Go to G. O. P.—May be Even Division. Philadelphia, Nov. 8.—The next congress will be Republican. The house will be Republican by at least thirty majority, while the senate is likely to be reclaimed by the Republicans.

WISCONSIN FOR G. O. P.

Hughes Carries the State by at Least 40,000. Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 8.—After the heaviest vote in many years was turned in, returns indicate that Hughes and Fairbanks have swept the state by a heavy plurality. Republicans put the figures at 40,000 at least. News received from Texas says that approximately 2600 Wisconsin guardsmen on duty at Camp Wilson voted in the presidential election. The returns will be taken to Madison, Wis., at once to be canvassed.

MICHIGAN FOR HUGHES

Elects Republican State Ticket and Adopts Prohibition. Detroit, Mich., Nov. 8.—Heavy voting was the rule throughout the entire state and returns show that Hughes and Fairbanks and the entire Republican ticket have been successful. Just what the pluralities will be cannot yet be approximated clearly but Republican headquarters claim that the state has gone for Hughes by from 80,000 to 100,000. Both the upper and lower Peninsula gave small but consistent pluralities to Hughes.

THE BOROUGH VOTE

MARRIED TWENTY-FIVE YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gingerich quietly celebrated their silver wedding anniversary at their home, west of Centre Hall, on Wednesday of this week. They had looked forward to this event for some time, hoping to have their many friends as their guests on the occasion, but owing to the lengthy illness which Mrs. Gingerich has borne with marked patience, and which has necessitated absolute quietness about the home, the day was very happily spent by themselves.

MR. MCCOOL DIVIDES FARM

James H. McCool, one of Potter township's most substantial farmers, living on the Kerr farm, near Tusseyville, advertises public sale of farm stock and implements to take place on 21st inst., and then will retire from farm life. Mr. McCool has divided his farm, which by the way is one of the most productive in Potter township, into two parts of approximately sixty-five acres each.

BOYS IN BIG PARADE AT EL PASO

El Paso, Texas, Tues. Oct. 31, 1916. "Today (Tuesday) the whole 7th regiment of Pennsylvania had the second review before Major General Clements. It was a most impressive sight and made a column of 12 miles, consisting of infantry, cavalry, U. S. wagons and automobiles. The 1st Penna. Cavalry Machine Gun Troop (the Centre county boys) were ready for the parade at 7 o'clock and at 12 o'clock we passed the reviewing stand of Major General Clements and his staff of officers.

WILLIAM BAILEY

The Bell Election News Service. The Bell telephone company gave its patrons and the public in general a splendid news service on the night of the recent election. The dispatches were put on a Philadelphia wire leading to Harrisburg, Williamsport, Altoona, Lewistown and intermediate points by an announcer in the first office named. At the larger telephone exchanges the whole of the dispatches were tapped by the operators, and later a condensed form was given to those in the smaller exchanges.

Reagle, the Clinton county stock buyer, loaded up $1200 worth of dressed porkers which he purchased from Potter township farmers, on Tuesday. It was a big load for the auto truck.

Meers, Squire Brungart, C. M. Arney, H. J. Lambert, I. A. Sweetwood, and Erdman West were a quintette of rabbit hunters who motored to Blue Ball last week, returning home with eighteen cottontails as the result of a day's hunt.

Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Jones and two daughters, of Shawville, are guests of the former's parents, Rev. and Mrs. R. K. Jones. From here they will go to Catawissa to visit a brother, Rev. Victor Jones, and then to Lancaster to attend the Methodist Conference.

Mrs. (Dr.) Margaret Wirebach, of Pittsburg, and Miss Mary Fisher, of Penn Hall, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Keller, on Sunday, the former being a cousin of Mrs. Keller. Mrs. Wirebach is the daughter of Rev. Peter Fisher, the first pastor of the Reformed church in Penna. Valley, who then lived in Boolsburg.

Meers, C. S. Kass and J. B. Frank, representing the hardware firm of Hosterman and Stover, Millheim, took measurements of the third floor of the Reporter building for installing heat. The top floor of this building, you will recall, was recently leased to the order of the Knights of the Golden Eagle, and to give them the best possible quarters steam heat was wanted.

While in the east he will visit his old home in New York and will also spend a few days with his father-in-law, Dr. G. W. Hosterman, in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Walter Conner, of Wayne, are at the Centre Hall hotel, where they will remain for a week or two. Mr. Conner is an extensive dealer in coal and lumber, and is taking his vacation on the hunting fields in the mountains skirting Penna. Valley. The name Conner recalled to the writer's mind a clean-cut youngster who about thirty-five years or more ago frequently came up to Centre Hall to spend several weeks with former county treasurer Daniel C. Keller, then engaged in shipping cows to Philadelphia, and it was only natural to make inquiry as to what station of life the man now occupied. It was gratifying to learn that the gentleman now is assistant treasurer of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and with his wife lives at Radnor, a main line town. The Connors referred to above are brothers.
