Pretty Often, Too.

During a Bible lesson a teacher was trying to explain the parable of the tares.

"Can anyone tell me any person who is like the evil one who sowed the tares?"

A hand instantly shot up from the foot of the class.

"Well, David, what person do you say?"

"Please, ma'am, my mother."

"Why?" asked the teacher in astonishment.

"Because," answered he, eyeing his patched trousers, "she sews tears."

By giving all a square deal you give satisfaction all around.

Bodily Housekeeping

The subject of drinking water with meals has been misunderstood.

In recent years investigation by means of X-rays, the observations of scientists such as Cannon, Grutzner, Pavlov, Fowler, Hawk, prove that an abundance of water taken during digestion is necessary in good bodily housekeeping.

If your kidneys are sick, or you suffer with lumbago or rheumatism at times, pain in the back or back of the neck, take a little Anuric before meals.

Anuric acts much more quickly than lithia. You will find it dissolves uric acid as water does sugar.

Oidius Comparison.

"I have seen potatoes worth their weight in gold," said the man from the Klondike.

"The idea," exclaimed Miss Cayenne, "of comparing anything so precious as a potato to mere jewelry."

GREATTASKSAHEAD

DEMOCRATS WILL JUSTIFY THE PEOPLE'S CONFIDENCE.

Recent Electoral Vote a Deserved In-dorsement of the Wilson Administration, as Well as a Commission to Further Service.

With the record of four years of the Wilson administration before them, the people of the United States have spoken. The verdict is "Well done!"

Opposed by the great corporations, opposed by the tariff barons, opposed by Wall street, opposed by all fatteners of special privilege, Wilson won because of the confidence and support of those common people whom Lincoln thought "the Lord must have loved because he made so many of them."

He has stood for men. He has put an end to the domination of the finances of the nation by Wall street. He has brought the taxing machinery of the government into harmony with the spirit of the modern age.

In past ages, such leadership had to wait years—even centuries—for recognition of its quality and its fruits. But the American democracy has developed a quickness of response of the popular mind and heart to great leadership which is new under the sun.

This victory is much more than recognition. It is a commission to further service. The achievements of Democracy have just begun. Great tasks still await it.

Tariff and Living Costs.

The Republican leaders publish a chart showing the increasing cost of living since the Democrats came into power, and triumphantly reproduce alongside it a plank from the Democratic platform of 1912 advocating tariff reduction in order that the cost of living might be reduced.

Do the Republicans think that the Democracy can overrule Providence itself? Do they mean to hold the administration at Washington responsible for the clouds in heaven and the wars of the other side of the world?

In 1913 our grain crop was 1,000,000,000 bushels smaller than it was in 1912. That meant higher prices for grain, and therefore higher prices for the necessities of life.

The Republican party machine did many a childish thing during this campaign, but the attempt to make out that the Democratic promise to reduce cost of living by tariff reform was meant to imply Democratic ability to send commodities down in the market in the face of drought and of world war made it the prize performer in the political baby show.

Time to March Together.

This is a time for a re-dedication of the entire American community to America—its peace, prosperity and honor. During the last few months the nation has been as two armies marching along different roads, but in the same direction.

Hughes was beaten because the people of California and other states of the West believed him to be a puppet of the "Old Guard."

All Together Now!

It is now time for everybody to "get together" in the spirit that insures the well-being of the country. The election tension is over. Talk of recounts will not revive it.

WHEN SERVING TEA

LITTLE TOUCHES THAT MAKE OR MAR THE OCCASION.

Hostess Should See That Tray or Table is Appropriately Set Off With Flowers—To Properly Prepare the Beverage.

Remember to add as a finishing touch to the tray or table a vase with a few flowers, a single rose, three or four asters or a yellow daffodil or so placed in a bud vase or held in place in a flat dish by a Japanese frog.

Always serve cream as well as lemon. Many persons do not enjoy tea without cream and of course they will not be so frank as to tell you so when they see that the tea tray is not supplied with any.

Remember to carry the pot to the boiling water and pour the water on the tea leaves while the water is actually boiling. Many persons wrongly feel that if the water has boiled it matters little whether or not it is still boiling when it is applied to the tea leaves.

Always serve sandwiches or toast in small portions. It is very awkward for the tea drinker to have to manage large portions.

Always serve sandwiches or toast in small portions. It is very awkward for the tea drinker to have to manage large portions. Bread and butter sandwiches should be of wafer thickness and should be cut in inch-wide strips.

Curried Mayonnaise.

Mayonnaise that has curdled can usually be brought back again by adding it in spoonfuls to a beaten egg yolk, having the yolk both fresh and freshly beaten, and beating the mixture after each additional spoonful.

In the first place, the eggs must be fresh; in the second place, the oil must be about the temperature of the room in which it is served. Thirdly, the oil must not be added too rapidly at the start. Never use congealed oil; even too cold an oil is apt to produce curdling.

Mocha Cake.

Two cupfuls of sugar, butter the size of two eggs, two scant cupfuls of milk, two eggs, four level teaspoonfuls of baking powder, flour to the right consistency and vanilla. Make three layers.

For mocha icing, one-half cupful of strong coffee, two tablespoonfuls of dry cocoa, one-half cupful of butter, two cupfuls of confectioners' sugar. Dissolve the cocoa in the hot coffee. Cream the butter and sugar. Let the cocoa and coffee mixture stand until cold, and then add drop by drop to the sugar and butter until the desired consistency is reached.

Real Indian Pudding.

Heat one quart of milk and add seven level tablespoonfuls of Indian meal, moistened with water. When nearly thick, add one quart of milk, or one pint of water and one pint of milk, one cupful of molasses, one cupful of raisins, one cupful of tapioca, salt, cassia and other spices as liked.

Hake Cutlets.

Cut a one-pound slice of hake into squares and, so far as possible, remove the bones. Take care not to break the fish into flakes. Dry the fish, dust in cracker crumbs and dip into boiling fat.

German Beef Stew.

Cut two pounds of lean beef in cubes, brown in dripping with one onion, add two cupfuls warm water or stock; simmer three-quarter hour, add 12 small peeled onions, cook one-half hour, add 24 stoned olives. Fifteen minutes before serving add one-half cupful sultana raisins or stoned prunes.

When Frying Fish.

Fish should always be fried like doughnuts, in deep fat. Bacon drippings are perhaps as good a material as any. Butter should not be used for frying fish. It should be cooked until well browned, and then removed and allowed to drain, but not grow cold before serving.

In Place of Eggs.

Chopped suet is very useful in taking the place of eggs in milk puddings. Simply sprinkle a little on the top and the pudding will be rich and creamy.

One Small Thing That Screen Star Lacked Was Not at All Necessary for Success.

"I can," said the bashful young man to the director of the film company. "swim, dive, run an auto, fly an airplane, fence, box, shoot, ride a horse, run a motor boat, play golf, fight, make love, fall off cliffs, rescue heroines, play football, die naturally and kiss a girl."

"But," interrupted the famous director, "can you act?" "Alas!" muttered the would-be screen hero, "I never thought of that."

Of Course He Wouldn't Ask. Oliver had been taught that it was naughty to ask anyone for pennies. His mother noticed he had come home several times with a penny, so one day she asked: "Oliver, where did you get your penny?"

Oliver immediately replied: "From the sweeper man" (meaning the street sweeper). "Did you ask the sweeper man for a penny?"
