LOCALS.

Christmas is only eighteen days off.

Mr. Buck, with horns, would better keep under cover until after the 15th.

W. C. T. U. will meet Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Andrew Zettle.

It's getting almost too late to "do your Christmas shopping early." Do it now.

Unclaimed letters in Centre Hall post office Dec. 4, Stephen E. Snyder.

—S. W. Smith, Postmaster.

Miss Lena Bressler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Bressler, of Spring Mills, was the guest of Miss Nina Slick over Thanksgiving.

The number of rabbits killed this year in Pennsylvania is estimated at 4,000,000, or double the number of last season, according to a report issued by the state game commission.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Meyer, of Reedsville, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. L. Bartholomew and daughter, of Altoona, were among those who spent Thanksgiving Day with relatives in town.

Mrs. James Spangler and Miss Annie Fortney, of Tusseyville, accompanied the body of the former's aunt, Mrs. Mary Fortney, to Lancaster, where it was laid to rest on Saturday afternoon.

Harry Harper has been confined to bed since Saturday, suffering from a well developed case of appendicitis, an operation for which will very likely be necessary in the near future. Dr. H. H. Longwell is the attending physician.

Wilmer P. Garver, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Dinges. He is a son of George Garver, who when a younger man frequently came to Centre Hall, and is engaged as a clerk for the Pennsy at Broad Street Station.

A four-legged hog is respected to some extent when the present prices of pork is kept in mind. This is especially true when you calculate the value of the 554-lb. hog killed by Robert Glasgow, and the three killed by Alvin Stump, the combined weight of which was 1450 lbs.

Mr. and Mrs. Hemfrid Hendrickson and daughter Grace, of Youngsville, were guests of Mrs. Hendrickson's cousin, Mrs. E. E. Bailey, on Tuesday. Mr. Hendrickson is here for a week's deer hunting and he and his family are making their headquarters at the T. J. Fleisher home, near Colyer.

A most pleasing program by the young people of Tusseyville, interested in mission work, was given in the Union church at that place on the evening of Thanksgiving Day, at which time the annual thank-offering service was observed. Both the entertainment and the liberality of the offering were up to the standard set years ago by the people of that section, who compel the admiration of the church workers in Centre county through their admirable spirit shown in this particular branch of church work. The offering lifted at the service amounted to more than sixty-seven dollars.

Coming back to the birth place after a continuous absence of almost seventy years ought to and does bring John H. Runkle many pleasant meetings. He was a boy of nine when his father, Samuel Runkle, moved from the Neese farm, near the old Lutheran church site at Penn Hall, to Stephenson county, Illinois. At the call of Lincoln, Mr. Runkle enlisted and served with the 46th Illinois Regiment until the close of the unpleasantness, and then engaged in farming in Illinois. About twenty-seven years ago he moved to Rosse, Iowa, and continued farming, but now is living retired. While in the east he is spending the time with his cousins among whom is James W. Runkle, of Centre Hall. While he thinks Centre county fine, he holds farming conditions are better in his state.

HUNTERS ARE BRINGING DOWN THE DEER.

The Bradfords Are Leading With Four Fine Bucks; the Slacks Have Two.—Fire Destroys Camp House.

The deer season opened propitiously last Friday morning and many deer have been slain. Many hunters announce that the woods are filled with more hunters this year than they have ever known before but the accidents are few, considering the number of men, the high power of the guns, the many deer and not to mention the carelessness of the many hunters and the ignorance and eagerness of others. Many reports come in of the big buck of this or that region that has eluded successfully the sure shots for the last ten years and still can often be seen but not slain.

The Penn State Forest about Coburn is particularly full of men, the incoming trains bringing more each day, some of whom stay in the camps or hotels and some depart the same day.

The following are the returns so far as we have been able to collect them:

Green Brier party, No. 1, three deer.

Green Brier party, No. 2, one deer.

Oscar Auman party, one deer.

Burt Rowe party, one deer.

Snyder party, three deer and one bear.

Wal. Auman party, one deer.

Rote-Wingard party, three deer.

Frank Kerstetter, one deer.

Woodward Volunteers, two deer.

Woodward Gun Club, three deer.

Millheim Gun Club, one deer.

The Bradfords, of Centre Hall, are upholding their reputation as successful deer slayers and have four antlered animals hanging by their camp. Two are 5-pronged, two 4-pronged and one 2-pronged.

The Slack party, of Centre Hall, had two bucks laid low when the season was but two days old.

The Pleasant Gap party, at the Sunday place, have two—a 5-prong, killed by Fred Loe, and a spike buck, shot by 17-year-old "P" Hile.

The Altoona party, at Stone Creek, have a deer and a bear.

The Palmyra party, at Venrick's, have had plenty of shooting but have registered no killings.

The Loopers, located close to the BOALSBURG.

Mrs. M. A. B. Boal and Miss Catharine Dale spent Saturday afternoon and evening at State College.

Misses Marion and Helen Whitehill, of Lemont, spent Sunday with their grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Riley.

Pine Grove Mills.

The E. D. Neidigh home is quarantined for German measles.

Frank O. Homan killed four porkers that tipped the beam at 400 lbs. each.

A good tracking snow fell Sunday evening but a drizzling rain took it away.

A. L. Bowersox, A. M., of Sandy

Bradfords, have one deer.

The Georges Valley party, on the Summit, have a 5-prong buck.

The Decker party, in Decker Valley, have one.

The Yeagertown party, in the Narrows, have one.

The Regular, at Walter Garrity's, have one.

The Potters Mills party, hunting by the day, have killed three bucks.

The Spring Mills party, in the Dan Ripka property, have one.

The Fillmore party, at Shuttles Improvement, have three bucks.

The Fredericktown party, in the Boalsburg region, have one.

The Miller party, at Shingletown, have one.

The Raymond party, in the Bear Meadows, have one.

There are a number of camps from which no word has yet been received.

HUNTERS' CABIN BURNS.

The log cabin built about two years ago at Welker, on Penn's Creek near the Penn Forest, by David Libby at a cost of about $500, recently burned to the ground. The cabin was a handsome two story log structure beautifully finished in natural wood.

The building was nicely furnished with about $500 worth of household goods and furniture.

On Friday, November 23, Mr. Shipman and six friends came from Shammokin to the cabin to enjoy a little pleasant hunting before the season closed. They remained until Sunday, the 25th, when they motored to Shammokin, believing that they had left everything safe. The large room downstairs was furnished with a large open fire place where Mr. Shipman had left a hot fire, apparently safe, when he locked the door and left. It is thought that the hearth became overheated or else some hot embers rolled upon the floor and started the blaze.

About 7:30 P. M. Sunday, Mr. Libby happened to pass not far from the cabin and noticed the whole first floor ablaze. He speedily summoned aid from all the neighbors but it was too late and soon the entire structure was smoldering ruin.

Ridge High school, is here for a few days gunning on old Tussey.

A. C. Keplar and wife are visiting at Pittsburgh where they went to see the State-Pitt game.

Miss Ella Keller is visiting her brother, William Irvin, in the Iron City.

Health officer Port has the reputation of bringing in the last cottontail of the season.

Last week J. D. Neidigh bought and shipped four carloads of wheat out of the valley at the $1.75 mark.

After this week the Bellefonte Central railroad will discontinue passenger traffic between here and State College.

Mrs. Mary Wright is visiting her son John and family, at Boalsburg, while John is replenishing the larder with big game from old Tussey.

C. M. Dale and family in their new Dodge car motored to the Bellefonte hospital on Sunday to visit Mrs. Sara A. Young, who is seriously ill from an operation a week ago.

W. E. McWilliams, the R. F. D. man, is suffering a paralytic attack and is confined to bed. His daughter Sara is handling Uncle Sam's matters very satisfactorily to the patrons.

The stork was busy last week, leaving a baby girl at the John Keller home, and a little Miss at the Francis Miller home, and one of the same sex at the Ralph Musser home at Rock Springs.

Amos Tyson, of Greensburg, is seriously ill at the home of his son-in-law, W. H. Knarr, near Warriors Mark. A slight injury to his foot developed blood poisoning which is causing his friends much concern.

Summer Miller and wife, G. B. Fry and wife are arranging to attend the State Grange meeting to be held in Philadelphia next week. The former is of Leonard Grange and the latter of Washington Grange.

The first of the fleet foot was brought to time Saturday morning and was on exhibition at the Watt store. It was a 4-pronged animal, brought down by Kern McMahon, of the Excelsior Club, on old Tussey mountain. N. T. Krebs wounded a large buck the same day but failed to capture it. Four young hinds from Tyrone were out for a day and returned in the evening with a 3-prong buck.

Prof. Samuel C. Miller, of Chester, and his brother, John G. Miller, of Cleveland, Ohio, sons of 'Squire' D. W. Miller, were home for Thanksgiving and a few days outing on Tussey mountain. The professor, in his 8 Hollar car, returned home Sunday so as to be at his desk at the usual hour Monday morning. John G. expects to remain several weeks to comfort his aged mother, whose condition does not improve very much.

The local High School Literary Society will hold its next meeting in the Grange hall.

New Rural Secretary for Centre County.

John M. Horner has assumed the duties of County and Rural Work Secretary of Centre County Young Men's Christian Association, in the place left vacant by Mr. Walter W. Whetstone, who during the past summer sailed for India. In that field he continues his work with the Christian Association.

The County Committee of Centre county, in conjunction with the International Committee of New York, has transferred Mr. Horner from County Work in Camden county, New Jersey, where for the past year he has been actively engaged. Acting for the County Committee as their Rural Field Worker during the past two weeks, he has been making a survey of the boys' work in different parts of the county, principally in Howard, Snow Shoe, Boalsburg, Milesburg, Spring Mills, and State College, in anticipation of furthering organization among boys of these communities.

Four years ago the first of such organization work was done in Howard, and to-day its work stands next to that done in State College. Mr. Horner plans to promote the much neglected Boys Work of the smaller towns and rural communities wherever it is possible. Among other activities which he will put in operation are plans for county-wide activities, including County Older Boys Conference, County Athletic League, County Camps, and County Athletic Meets.

Since Mr. Harold Anston had charge of the work in 1913, there has been no man on the field to give entire time to the development of the County Association Work, but the County Committee, in considering Mr. Horner decided to have him spend his entire time. At present he is located in Bellefonte, and will eventually have his headquarters there in the office of the county committee, which body of men representing different parts of the county, directs the work.

Progress Grange will meet Saturday afternoon at two o'clock.
