LOCALS.

B. D. Brisbin has gone to the New England states to spend the holidays with his daughters in Connecticut.

Miss Orpha Gramley, of Spring Mills, attended the concert Saturday evening, being the guest of Miss Helen Bartholomew.

Unclaimed letters in Centre Hall, postoffice, Dec. 11-16, H. R. Kent, George Cramer, W. H. Miller.—S. W. Smith, postmaster.

On January 11, 1917, a play will be given in Grange Arcadia, by the young people of the Centre Hall M. E. church. Watch for further advertisements.

Mrs. G. L. Goodhart contemplates spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Wagner Geiss, in Bellefonte, and will leave Centre Hall in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Person and little niece, Margaret Burkholder, of Phillipsburg, New Jersey, are spending a few days with Mrs. Person's mother, Mrs. M. E. Strohman.

A. C. Alexander and son-in-law, Robert Herman, of Milroy, were in town Monday. The former about fourteen years ago, farmed the Sweetwood farm near Centre Hill.

Harry Brown, of Spring Mills, took charge of the local railroad station during the first two days of the week while both Station Agent F. W. Bradford and head clerk, D. Milton Bradford, were absent.

Thursday, December 21st, at one o'clock, Boezar and Fetterolf will hold a dissolution sale at the former's garage in Centre Hall, at which time two automobiles, several new sleighs, cutters, bob sleds, buggies, etc., will be sold at public sale.

That panther story, emanating from the Seven Mountains, gained wide circulation through its appearance in several city dailies, but it was a pure and simple yarn, hunters going to the limit of their imagination as well as fishermen.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Bradford left for Charlestown, West Virginia, on Saturday, where the former is interested in extensive lumber operations. During their stay in that city they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Shadle.

Jury commissioners John D. Decker and Joseph A. Emerick last week began filling the jury wheel for the 1917 terms of court. The task will consume about a month's time. Six hundred and fifty names will be prepared and placed in the wheel, representing all sections of the county.

Mrs. John S. Getchell and son, of Greensburg, and Mrs. Thomas Keefe and daughter, of Youngwood, were arrivals at the home of the ladies' parents, Equire and Mrs. Cyrus Brungart, last week. Mrs. Getchell returned home Sunday, but Mr. Keefe will remain for a time longer.

The Millin county publishers have been obliged to raise the subscription price of their publications from one dollar to one dollar and fifty cents per year. The dollar-a-year country newspaper is a thing of the past, and should never have been introduced for the very good reason that it is a losing proposition.

The Eastern Glee Quartet, the third number on the Centre Hall Lecture Course, delighted a good sized audience in the Grange Hall on Saturday evening. Both their vocal and instrumental selections exhibited the maximum of talent and so well was each number received that in each instance a call for an encore was made with the heartiest applause, the young men responding nobly under the appreciation which their program evoked. They remained in town over Sunday and departed themselves as true gentlemen, making numerous friends during their day's stay. In the evening they rendered a sacred concert in United Evangelical church which was enjoyed to the fullest extent by an audience which taxed the capacity of the auditor. They are welcome back.

NEWS FROM HUNTING CAMPS.

Bradford's Lead With 6 Fine Bucks.—Potters Mills "Gay Hunters" Kill 5.

The indoor fans of the Deer and Bear League will be interested to know the standing of the teams to date. We give only the names of the teams with a percentage and will pass over the tall ends with a goose egg score. One party from Coburn and vicinity had a unique experience this last week. A party of the hunters in chasing the Green Knobs, north of Cherry Run, stumbled upon a freshly killed buck. However this buck had horns only about an inch long. The finders hesitated to touch the buck while alone, and they were wise, but went on until they met the Coburn party. The two parties then went back and after hunting awhile found the buck and after dressing it carried it to camp. One of the number then went to Ingleby and notified Game Warden Wingard who proceeded to the camp and after thanking the hunters took charge of the illegal deer and took it to Coburn where he shipped it to the Bellefonte hospital, where it is hoped the patients had a good dinner.

The latest reports are as follows:
Rote-Wingard party, 5 deer.
Greenbriar party, 4 deer.
Irvin Kern party, 2 deer.
Synder party, 5 deer and 1 bear.
Frank Kerstetter party, 1 deer.
Oscar Wolfe party, 1 deer.
Wal. Auman party, 1 deer.
Andrew Vonada party, 1 deer.
Henry Lingle party, 1 deer.
Party at Crader's, 3 deer.
Party at Ripka's, 1 deer.
Burt Rowe party, 3 deer.
Noah Lingle party, 1 deer.
Woodward Volunteers, 2 deer.
Woodward Gun Club, 3 deer.
Millheim Rod & Gun Club, 2 deer.

In Forester Montgomery's territory, in the the mountains about Potters Mills, Colyer, etc., a total of thirty-two deer had been killed up until Monday morning, which is four more than the total for last year. The various parties and their kills, are:

Slacks, of Centre Hall, 4 deer.
Howard party, 1 deer.
Horners, of Pleasant Gap, 2 deer.
Zion party, 1 deer.
Regular, of Potters Mills, 1 deer.
Millie, of Potters Mills, 5 deer.
Yeager town party, 3 deer.
Decker party, 2 deer.
Bellefonte party, 1 deer.
Schuykill-haven party, 2 deer.
Penn Hall party, 1 deer.
Sweetwood party, 1 deer.

Potters Mills party, 1 deer.
Centre Hall party (boys), 0 deer.
Pattysville party, 0 deer.

The Colyer party broke camp after a week's hunt, feeling satisfied with two deer, nevertheless a wee bit disappointed over the escape of six bucks on which a bunch of ammunition was wasted.

The Bradfords will break camp today (Thursday) after one of the most successful seasons in years. The party have six splendid types of the deer family, all big of frame and beautifully horned. The lucky shots were: Messrs. Frank Bradford, Clyde Bradford, Philip Bradford, Charles Bradford, Paul Bradford, and Cal. Cooney.

In the mountains about Roalsburg the following reports have come from the various camps:

Fillmore party, 4 deer.
Frederickstown party, 2 deer and 1 bear.
Riley party, 1 deer.
Moocho, 2 deer and 1 bear.
Foster party, 3 bears, 1 deer and 3 wildste.
Miller party, 1 deer.
Rev. Stover's party, 1 deer.
Leach party, 1 deer.

The Rearick-Musser party, of which W. O. Rearick of Milroy is a member, have three bucks to their credit. The camp is located on the east end of the Slate Ridge, being in Millin county.

Penn State Students are Physically Fit for U. S. Army.

Physically fit and well drilled by three United States army officers, more than eighty per cent. of the new students at the Pennsylvania State College have been declared eligible for the regular army. Dr. C. E. Kennedy, assistant physical director at the college, has completed his examination of the entering class. He looked over 747 students, and found only 118 of them had slight physical defects which would bar them from military service in this country. Of this number, only 39, in the opinion of Dr. Kennedy, are permanently ineligible. The other men, he pointed out, could be developed by corrective exercises until they were able to meet the physical tests.
