

LOCALS.

Robert Meyer was home from Altoona for a few days beginning of the week.

Miss Edith Sankey, of Potters Mills, is spending a short time at the Hon. L. Rhone home.

Elmer Miller, teacher of the Grammar grade, made a trip to Philadelphia on Saturday.

J. B. Fortney, tax collector for Potter township, was a business caller at this office last Friday.

Erkman West, who is a Penn State student, spent Sunday with his wife at the Lambert home.

Mrs. Cora Keefer, youngest daughter of Squire and Mrs. Cyrus Brungart, is ill at her home in Youngwood with pneumonia.

Charley Stump, who spent part of several months in Fort Mitchell, Virginia, returned to Centre Hall last Friday morning.

Lewistown hung to the breeze a new $18 American flag last Saturday, which was purchased through the means of popular subscription.

Mrs. W. B. Mingle, who spent the winter months with her daughter and son in Philadelphia, returned to Centre Hall on Wednesday and opened her home for the summer.

The family of Elmer McClellan, of near Tusseyville, and F. J. McClellan, of Centre Hall, motored to Lewistown on Sunday to visit the families of Robert Homan and Samuel McClellan.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Betts and daughter, Ruth, Mrs. James Betts, daughter Beatrice, and W. E. Krise, motored from Johnstown on Saturday and remained until Sunday at the Prof. W. A. Krise home.

Those who attended the funeral of Irvin V. Muser, at Millinburg, on Tuesday, from Centre Hall and surrounding country were: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Meyer, J. W. Runkle, Mr. and Mrs. Foster W. Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, and Miss Sadie Lee.

E. Roy Corman, of Spring Mills, a student in the seminary at Lancaster, very acceptably filled the pulpits of the Reformed churches at Tusseyville and Centre Hall last Sunday. Rev. R. R. Jones, was acting as supply in the Paradise charge, Troutville, Clearfield county.

Mrs. Alvin Keck, of Hindendale, Montano, is the guest of Merchant and Mrs. C. M. Smith, in this place, and will remain for a week or more before leaving for the west. Mrs. Keck is a sister-in-law of Mrs. Smith and is recovering from a lengthy illness during her stay in the east.

Noises heard in the air early Sunday morning by Bellefonte residents were taken by the excitable folks to mean that a possibly hostile aeroplane was flying over the town. The calmer element, however guessed it was only a flock of geese drumming the air on their northern journey.

Dorothy, the three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry McClellan, of near Centre Hall, had the misfortune to break her right arm below the elbow on Friday afternoon, when she fell off a small hand wagon with which she was playing at her home. The little tot had the fracture reduced and is getting along fine.

The following attended the funeral services of the late Rev. J. L. Metzgar, at Rebersburg, on Tuesday: Rev. G. L. Coptney, Boalsburg; Rev. D. S. Kurtz, Centre Hall; Rev. J. B. Hunsicker, Rev. Womelsdorf, Rebersburg; Rev. M. D. Geesey, Aronsburg; Rev. A. H. Spangler, Yagertown; Rev. M. S. Cressman, Lewistown; Rev. John Reish, Loganton.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edwin D. Crowell, at the home of the mother's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Ishler, near Centre Hall, on Saturday morning. The new arrival goes by the name of Jules Edmund Crowell. Mrs. Crowell was Miss Effie Ishler and with her husband has her home at Tyrone. The past few weeks have been spent at the parental home.

Having provided for the enrollment of high schools and college men to aid in farm work, the Committee of Public Safety emphasized today the necessity of farmers furnishing immediate information to the local Committees through the State of the number of volunteers they will require. Quick action is imperative so that workers may be assigned to their respective posts with the least possible delay, and full advantage be taken of the planting season.

A conference of the various Women's Clubs in Centre county was held in the basement of the Lutheran church at Boalsburg, on Saturday. Twenty clubs were represented by more than two hundred members. A lunch was served at the noon hour and an interesting talk by a Philadelphia club member occupied part of the afternoon session. The next conference will be held in Bellefonte in October. Centre Hall was represented by the following members of the Clover Club: Miss Florence S. Rhone, Mrs. D. W. Bradford, Mrs. G. O. Benner, and Mrs. W. F. Keller.

New Bridge at Lewistown. The Pennsylvania Railroad company will begin the erecting of a five span iron bridge over the Juniata river at Lewistown to succeed the one now in service on the Sunday branch.

Boys Auto for Minister.

A short time ago it was recorded in these columns that the Ford car belonging to Rev. C. W. Rishel, pastor of the Methodist church at Howard, was destroyed by fire when the minister's garage and other outbuildings were burned. This loss gave Rev. Rishel's parishioners an opportunity to show appreciation of their pastor's work, and led by J. W. Mayes funds were collected and presented to Rev. Rishel with instructions to purchase a new car. A few days ago, Rev. Rishel made a trip to Centre Hall and purchased a Ford from the Booser-Smith firm. Of course, Rev. Rishel is greatly pleased over the liberality of his members and they in turn are just as happy to be able to be of service to the minister.

The Brooks Boys Save Farmers.

April 1st Jewett Brooks began farming on the D.K. Keller farm, east of Centre Hall, and on account of just beginning farming operations did not have a chance to line up his work in advance. The Brooks boys are hustlers, and while Messrs. Richard and Cloyd both live on large farms they turned, in teams and men in sufficient number on their younger brother's farm a few days ago to turn upside down fifteen acres of sod in one day. With this aid the young farmer will be able to plant in good season.

For Sale.—Grain Elevator & Coal Yards.

The Oak Hall grain elevator and coal yards are offered for sale by the undersigned. The business is well established and enjoys a fine trade in grain (wholesale), coal, baled hay, fertilizers, etc. The plant is located on the L. & T. railroad. This is a fine opportunity for anyone desiring to enter a business that has always yielded excellent financial returns.

Ploughed Up Old Watch.

While plowing in a field formerly owned by Charles Doebler and later by Ernest Beirley, at Rebersburg, last week, George E. Wise, the auctioneer, turned up an old watch, which after a little polishing revealed a silveroid case. He wound up the timepiece and it has been going ever since. Just how long ago and by whom it was lost is a conjecture, but evidently a good many crops were raised over the buried timepiece. Mr. Wise appears to be especially fortunate in finding watches since this is the fourth he has found. No doubt his being continually on the "watch" for bidders has something to do with Mr. Wise's good fortune along that line.

Richard Brooks Buys Tate Farm.

Richard Brooks, on Saturday, purchased the William E. Tate farm, about three miles west of Centre Hall, for the sum of $8000.00. The farm contains 115 to 120 acres, and is one of the best in that section of the valley. Mr. Brooks, next spring, when he will move onto his new possessions, will have occupied the D. A. Booser (formerly G. M. Boal) farm, west of Old Fort for a period of seventeen years. He is one of the prosperous young farmers of Penna Valley who by dint of hard labor and a liberal use of grey matter has been able to accumulate the means for purchasing a first-class farm.

Potato Spraying.

The great Irish potato famine and heavy crop losses last year in America were caused by the "late blight" of potatoes. Several other diseases and insects which carry blight and attack foliage, stems and tubers can be controlled by well known sprays. It pays to spray. A Colorado potato beetle may deposit upwards of one thousand eggs during the summer over a long period. Two generations are common in this state. Foliage injury in plants is equivalent to reduction of lung capacity in animals, hence very detrimental. The tiny black jumping beetle attacks both leaves and tubers. The adult eats tiny holes in the foliage and carries the blight fungus, while the larvae burrow into the tuber.

Spray potato vines with Bordeaux mixture (3 lbs. bluestone or copper sulfate and four lbs. fresh lime in 50 gals. of water)—with 2 lbs. powdered arsenate of lead added. One-half pound Paris green may be substituted for arsenate of lead, but will be washed off by rain much quicker.

First spray when plants are 4 to 6 inches high, 2nd, two weeks later and later sprays at intervals of three weeks. Four or five sprays thoroughly applied, with good nozzles, under heavy pressure, will insure a good clean crop, if seed has been disinfected.

OAK HALL.

School has closed and all the children seem glad as the weather is getting nice and they enjoy being out of doors.

Miss Mary Blazer, of Selma Grove, is visiting in this vicinity.

Sara Gilliland is confined to bed with inflammatory rheumatism.

The little daughter of William Folk, who has been ill for some time, is improving.

C. W. Whitehill and daughter spent Sunday with friends at Pleasant Gap. George Dener, of Zion, spent Thursday with his parents.

DEATHS.

James B. Kaup, who learned the blacksmith trade with the late Jacob Harpster, in Centre Hall many years ago, died in Springfield, Illinois, Saturday morning a week ago, of pneumonia. He was aged sixty years. His wife and two children survive. Miss Anne Kaup, of State College, and Reuben, of Bellefonte, are sister and brother of the deceased. Burial was made in the west on Tuesday of last week.

Linden Hall

Miss Mary Blazer came up from Selma Grove for a month's visit at the home of her brother Clarence.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McFarlane attended the funeral of Dr. Thompson, on Monday, at Port Matilda.

Miss Ruth Ross attended the commencement exercises of the Hubersburg High school on Friday evening.

Frank Swabb and family motored to the home of his brother, James Swabb, on Sunday where they were entertained.

Mrs. John T. Ziegler and little son Lewis spent Thursday night with her brother, Frank, leaving on Friday morning for her home in Altoona.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Miller came over from Bellefonte Saturday and stayed until Monday with Mr. and Mrs. William McClintic.

Cooper township, Clearfield county, will erect another high school building at a central point about three miles distant from Winburne. The citizens of the township on Tuesday, April 24th, by an overwhelming majority, voted in favor of a $13,000 bond issue for the new building.

If you are keeping chickens that do not have any opportunity for open range be sure to grow something green in the chicken yard. Sow grass or oats and your grain bill is cut.

It is estimated that the farmers expend each year $42,267,000 for male farm help in the usual farm activities, and this amount would be materially increased if help was available.

The first of May was a good overcoat day.

OBJECTED TO THE ROOSTERS

Philadelphia Man Unable to Appreciate Chanticleer's Greeting to the Rosy Morn.

Roosters that are described as having "shrill and penetrating crows" and hens that cackle unceasingly are responsible for William Brownworth getting a summons to court to answer to a charge of maintaining a nuisance, the Philadelphia North American says. Complainant in the action, begun in court No. 1, is Andrew Heldrich, 418 Lindley avenue, who lives next door to Brownworth. He alleges that the noise of the roosters and chickens is destroying the peace and quiet of his home and making early morning sleep impossible.

"For some months past," the statement says, "the defendant has been keeping in his yard a number of loud-voiced crowing roosters and a large number of hens, which have become an intolerable nuisance, because the roosters have shrill, penetrating crows and they crow during all hours of the night and early morning. "The crowing of the roosters and the cackling of the hens have affected the nerves of the complainant, his wife and children, and their health is threatened. The complainant's wife has suffered complete nervous breakdown and is under the care of a physician. "The court is asked to declare the chickens a nuisance.

Marketing Farm Products.

United States Senator Fletcher has called a meeting of the national marketing committee to devise means to aid the farmer in marketing his products, and also to enable the consumer to distinguish between the high cost of food and the high cost of service.

"The farmers of the country are producing annually crops for which they receive $9,000,000,000, and for which the consumer pays, $27,000,000,000," said Representative W. S. Goodwin of Arkansas, a member of the committee. "The farmer gets 35 cents and the middleman gets 65 cents for each dollar the consumer pays for the farmer's crops. There is an enormous amount of waste, especially in perishable products, because of the lack of some central directing intelligence."

Having Fun With the Bread Cards.

German humorists have found excellent material in cartooning the bread cards. "Give me your bread card or your life!" was popular. Ferocious bandits were pictured as relinquishing fortunes in gold and jewels in order to steal bread cards; cautious heads of families were depicted as mounting guard at night over the safe in which reposed the family tickets. Diner invitations, instead of "R. S. V. P.," bore the legend, "Please bring your own bread."—"Is Germany Hungry?" in the Saturday Evening Post.

A Wise Farmer. Carrying shrewdness to the nth power, a Cumberland Valley farmer called at a bank recently and inquired. "What is the smallest amount you will loan me on this $1000 bond." After some little parley, the banker agreed to a $5 loan. The banker took the bond and the farmer took the $5, paying 30 cents interest. Then going over to the savings window, he deposited the $5 at 3 per cent, and will receive 15 cents interest at the year's end.

Questioned as to the performance, the farmer explained: "I want the bond in a safe place during these war times and this gives me a safety vault for 15 cents, instead of the $2.50 they advertise as a charge for safety boxes."

Rural Carrier Examination. The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination for the county of Centre, to be held at Phillipsburg, on May 26th 1917, to fill the position of rural carrier at Phillipsburg, and the vacancies that may later occur on rural routes from other postoffices in the above mentioned county. The examination will open only to male citizens who are actually domiciled in the territory of a postoffice in the county and who meet the other requirements set forth in Form No. 1977. Applications should be forwarded to the Commission at Washington at the earliest practicable date. Try this office for your printing.

Essenkay ENDS TIRE TROUBLES

Positively Prevents Punctures

NOW, please don't say, "Oh, just another one of those tire-fillers," and let it go at that! ESSENKAY is a tire-filler, but not the kind you probably have in mind. It is nothing like the ones that have been tried and found wanting, but is a wonderful discovery that has at last solved the problem of a real substitute for air.

Cuts Your Tire Cost in Half

ESSENKAY not only positively prevents punctures and "blowouts," (there is no air to puncture or "blowout"), but also doubles life of your casings and saves half your tire cost. First cost of ESSENKAY is your last cost, as it lasts for many years and is transferable from one set of casings to another indefinitely. Investigate ESSENKAY Today!

MONDAY

OH, that dreaded wash day! Isn't there some way to do it easier—some way to avoid that terrific kitchen heat, the back-breaking job of toting wood, shoveling coal and cleaning out ashes? Yes, madam, there is.

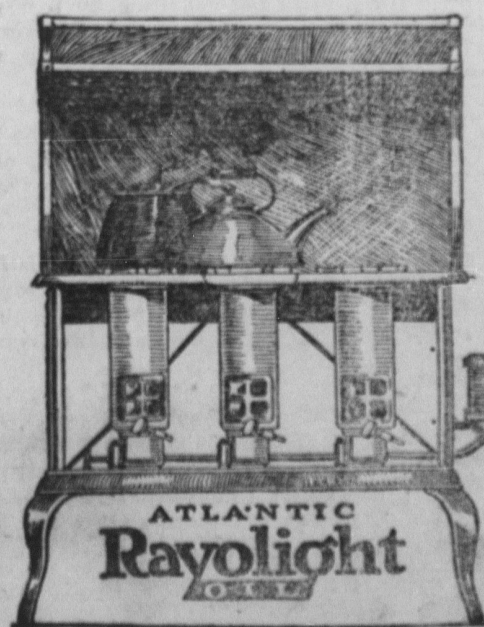

NEW PERFECTION OIL COOK-STOVES.

have chased this wash-day bugaboo away to stay. With a Perfection in your kitchen you won't have heat all the time, but just when you need it. The water gets hot—off goes the heat, fuel expense stops, the kitchen cools off. You save money, time and work.

And the Perfection will bake, boil, fry or roast at a minute's notice. Just light a match and it'll begin to "do things up brown."

Your dealer will explain its many fine points, such as the fireless cooker and the separate oven.

THE ATLANTIC REFINING COMPANY Philadelphia and Pittsburgh

Your Perfection, or any other oil-burning device, simply can't give best results unless you use Rayolight Oil. It burns without sputter, smoke or smell. And it doesn't cost a penny more than the ordinary kinds. Always look for this sign:
