LOCALS.

J. C. Reed, of Boalsburg, was one of the Reporter's callers on the glorious Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud K. Stahl, of Altoona, were Sunday guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Stahl.

It was a grand Fourth. Beautiful weather, a big community picnic and a total absence of the usual Fourth accidents combined to make the day one of real joy.

Miss Mary Dinges, who is a nurse in training at the Clearfield hospital, is spending her annual vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Dinges.

Mrs. W. R. Winegardner, who for several weeks was ill at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary Goodhart, in this place, returned to her home in Millroy, on Monday.

Mrs. R. R. Jones and daughter, Miss Gladys, spent from Friday until Monday preceding the Fourth with the former's son, Rev. Victor H. Jones, and family, at Catawissa.

Miss Mildred Brown and brother, Malcolm Brown, children of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Brown, spent the past week in Lock Haven as guests of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Wagner.

Hon. C. R. Kurtz, accompanied by Mrs. Kurtz and children, motored from Philadelphia to Bellefonte via Centre Hall, last week. The former's mother was brought along as far as Lewisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Farmer, daughter, Miss Marion, and Melvin Boan, were arrivals at the home of Mr. Farmer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Farmer, at Colyer, a week ago, for a two weeks' vacation. Mr. Farmer is an employee in the city post office.

Mrs. Robert Snyder and baby daughter, after an extended visit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Stahl, left for Akron, Ohio, last week, where they will make their future home. Mr. Snyder has been in that Ohio city for a month or more, where he is employed in automobile work.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kerlin, William Kerlin and Miss Freda Bailey made up an auto party who on the Fourth drove to Pottsgrove and for several hours were guests of Rev. William Wagner, Mrs. Kerlin's brother. Going by the Lewistown narrows and returning by Lewisburg and the Penns Valley narrows, the trip was varied in scenery.

Mr. and Mrs. George Robertson accompanied the latter's father, B. D. Brislin, on the return auto trip from Connecticut, a short time ago. Mrs. L. W. S. Person, of Phillipsburg, New Jersey, also joined the party and upon the arrival at Centre Hall spent several days with her mother, Mrs. M. E. Strohman. Mr. Robertson's business affairs necessitated his early leaving for his home in Hartford, while Mrs. Robertson is extending her visit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Campbell, son F. H. Campbell, and wife, of Erie, stopped in Centre Hall on the Fourth to greet friends and relatives. The party are on a week's auto tour and will cover many points in Pennsylvania. While here they visited Mrs. Campbell's sister, Mrs. Jerry Stump. The senior Mr. Campbell will be remembered as being miller at the local flouring mill twenty-eight years ago. He is now head miller in the Crouch Bros. Co. milling plant in Erie.

INJURIES MAY PROVE FATAL.

John F. Miller, of Potters Mills, the victim of an Accident at Local Railroad Crossing - His Condition Serious.

Internal injuries, sustained in an accident on the railroad tracks at the Centre Hall station, on Monday afternoon, will likely prove fatal to John F. Miller, aged about sixty-three years. Mr. Miller was hauling crushed stone from E. C. Wagner's plant, on the north side of the station, for the state road construction near Old Fort, making it necessary for him to cross the railroad tracks on each trip. He was driving F. A. Carson's team in a dump wagon and was on his way to the quarry just as the local freight from the east pulled into the station, at 3:30 o'clock. Mr. Miller states that he failed to see the approach of the train until his horses had planted their feet on the nearest track. The engine, which had slowed down to about an 8-mile-an-hour speed, struck the rear of the wagon, uncoupling it. Mr. Miller was thrown violently to the ground, the impact causing him to be tossed about the road bed to a considerable extent, which was responsible for the numerous superficial wounds about his body. He was picked up and carried into the waiting room and Dr. H. H. Longwell summoned. The physician found contusions of the scalp, left thigh, hands, ears, and eye, besides discovering a broken clavicle. Upon being conveyed to his home at Potters Mills, the fact that he suffered internal injuries was shown by the appearance of blood in his sputum and in other excretions. Owing to his age it is feared that his internal injuries will prove fatal.

Mr. Miller is an upright citizen and the grave misfortune which has befallen him is lamented by the many people who are his friends.

Opposing the Red Cross Movement.

It is with much regret, sorrow and shame that the Reporter is obliged to announce that the Red Cross movement is being opposed in some sections of Penns Valley by men who presume themselves prominent in their respective localities. The slacker, the spy, the traitor we know how to deal with, but what shall we do with a man who opposes the work of the Red Cross? To ostracize him from society would inflict no punishment, for they must be without shame or honor.

A call on Monday over the telephone from Spring Mills reveals the fact that the Red Cross is being grossly misrepresented in that locality, and undoubtedly intentionally so. The false representation is that those who joined the Red Cross auxiliaries would not only subject themselves to being assessed but to conscription as well. While these statements are almost too ridiculous to take notice of it shows the calibre of those who stand in the way of this great world-wide movement - the Red Cross - that is recognized by every civilized nation.

Becoming a member of the Red Cross auxiliary, the membership fee for which is only one dollar, carries with it no further obligations either as to work or money, and, of course, has nothing whatever to do with conscription. The Red Cross members have much work to do, and will do much, but that is entirely voluntary.

You will be doing a patriotic act by joining the Red Cross, and you will be doing yourself credit to shun any man who opposes Red Cross work.

WHAT SHALL I DO?

with my money to keep it safe? is a question with people who keep their money at home, and as a temptation to thieves or burglars. Why not deposit it in a good, safe bank where it will draw 3 per cent. interest and be safe at the same time. You can do this now by putting it in the Farmers National Bank, Millheim.
