The big Studebaker car owned by William F. Colyer and horse and buggy belonging to Orvis Horner, of Colyer, collided near the railroad station on Monday night at about 9:30 o'clock, with dire results so far as the latter was concerned. Mr. and Mrs. Horner were on there way home, the horse going the trot. They claim to have turned off the road sufficiently far to permit the big car to pass, but upon coming side by side the automobil struck the wheels of the buggy, completely upsetting both the horse and vehicle. The glaring headlights of two autos standing close to where the sceident occurred bewildered the driver of the rig, making it impossible for him to get a clear view of the apcenter of the road, causing her to helped into the A. Freight Wreck on Local Branch.

A broken axle on a coal car on an east bound freight, tied up traffic at the railroad at Montandon Thurday afternoon, and passenger trains were delayed several hours until the lines were cleared. The wreck occurred shortly after one o'clock, and the freight had just reached the Montandon station when the sxle broke, and the cars began to pile up. The tracks were ripped for a distance of several hundred feet. All tracks were block-

Engineer Cherry, in charge of the Bellefonte train, was waiting on the siding for the freight to pass before running in on the branch. Seeing that something was wrong with the freight he applied full steam and backed away from the approaching train, probably averting a serious wreck.

The train for Bellefonte did not ge'by the wreck until after seven o'clock, and it was nine o'clock until Centre Hall was reached.

Squad of 250 Soldiers Move Structure, 72 by 24 Feet, Without Aid of Any Machinery.

Carrying a six-ton building, without the aid of machinery, or other equipment, was one of the unusual tasks performed by 250 North Dakota soldiers when they were on the Mexican bor- spending a short time with her grandder, according to the Popular Mechanics Magazine. The frame structure that was moved housed the army Y. M. C. A. at Mercedes, Tex., and measured 72 by 24 feet. Because its site was undesirable, it was proposed to hire a contractor to move the structure to a new location. but the army engineers devised a plan by which the men themselves could perform the task and so save money. They estimated that with 250 soldiers helping, each would have to carry less than 50 pounds. Accordingly the building was well braced and its walls provided with runners. Since there was no floor the men were stationed along all four walls, inside as well as out, each soldier standing next to a beam inserted beneath. At the word of command they lifted the building from the ground and marched away with it, to a site 200 yards distant.

CIGAR AS OPIUM SUBSTITUTE

Aiding in Redemption of China, Where Natives Are Now Frequently Seen Smoking Their Cheroots.

The cigar is doing a large part in the redemption of China. It is no unnmon thing to see a native smoking his cheroot, which promises to enjoy the favor once bestowed on opium.

The import of cigars into various Chinese ports has been greatly on the ncrease in the last few years, and now nounts to about $350,000 annually. Of this trade four-fifths normally is through Hongkong. There has been a marked increase in the quantity of Dutch-made cigars used in South China and other portions of the Far East during the last year or more, there, for various reasons, Philippine igars have been losing in favor.

Previous to the outbreak of the war n Europe considerable quantities of heap cigars were sold in China and he Far East through German firms in longkong, and a German cigar facory was operated in Hongkong for the anufacture of cheap cigars for the hinese trade and also for export to Surope. This factory is still operated nder Chinese control.

Diamonds to Remain High.

The high cost of diamonds keeps up. If you have any hidden away among ur potatoes and onlons hold them or you may not get any more. This is he prophecy made at a convention of he New York State Retail Jewelers' association at New York, which prelicts that the high price of diar wift hold for a good many years after he war.

Benjamin Rees, a diamond importer, n the role of prophet, said he had seen abroad on diamond-buying excursions five times since the war began; that diamonds have advanced in price 30 to 40 per cent in the past ear, and that the high prices will hold ecause the 17,000 cutters and polishes in Belgium are gone, the Kaffirs the mined the rough diamonds are naking munitions and that England probably will put a tax on rough dia-

Candles Vs. Electricity. The Society for Electrical Development, anxious to encourage a wider ise of electricity for lighting, has preeared figures showing it is much cheap-

r than candles or kerosene. A recent test of six candles showed hat for 1 cent only 2.68 candle-power ours were obtained. If electricity for ighting costs 9 cents for a kilowatt our a 20-watt lamp can be lighted for 50 hours for 9 cents. The efficiency of a 20-watt incandescent is a candlepower for 1.17 watts. Thus a 20-watt lamp will provide about 17 candle power. It will burn 50 hours for 9 cents, or 850 candle-power hours will cost 9 cents. One cent will buy 94.4 candle-power hours, or 35 times as much light as can be obtained from a candle for 1 cent.

Salesmanship in Schools.

Boston has a director of salesmanship in its public schools. The place is filled by Isabel C. Bacon, who, at a session of the National Retail Dry Goods association, presented the question of co-operative courses in salesmanship in high schools and stores. She reported that her classes had increased in the last four years and that store executives were co-operating to make the work a success. In teaching salesmanship there is actual demonstration of the processes, a teacher acting as a customer and another as a salesgirl.

Cost of Dyes Before the War. The dyes used on this side of the water cost the consumers between thirty and forty millions of dollars in normal times. This sum, says the Enginering Magazine, does not measure the total value of the industry, because in addition to the dyes produced there are many drugs and chemicals obtained as by-products of the manufacture which swell the total to probably $50,000,000 annually.

It is estimated that there are a million and a half less chickens on the farms this year than a year ago.

The average price of strawberries broughout the Sate was twelve cents, the average price received by farmers in various counties ranging from nine to fourteen cents a quart.

Farmers report their potato crops in splendid condition and look for average yields.

Coln Works Electric Fan.

There is now on the market an electric fen which can be operated only by placing a coin in its slot, whereupon it operates for a certain length of time, according to the amount of current which the owner desires to supply for the money pold, says the Scientific American.

When a coli Propped into the slot a clock mech. a is wound up in the base of the fan. For a nickle, for instance, the fan may operate one hour, either constantly or intermittently, according to the wishes of the user. Several coins can be dropped in at one time, insuring veral hours' use of the fan.

World's Biggest Fish Net. The largest fish net in the world will soon be in use in these waters, says the Avalon Islander. It is 8,400 feet long, 800 feet deep and has five purselike pockets made of a two-inch re-enforced mesh. Two 80-foot tugs and a fleet of mall boats will accompany the net. The equipment will cost almost $100,000 to fish for three months. What chance for its life will any fish have with such a net combing the channel day and night?

Diet a Matter of Habit. Our daily food is to a large extent a matter of prejudice and habit. We think we must have certain things because we always have had them. But the war has shown us that by the exercise of intelligent planning we can get the necessary nutriment for less meney than we have been accustomed to spend.-Kansas City Star.
