

LOCALS

Progress Grange will meet in their hall on Saturday evening of this week.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. William R. Storer, at Tusseyville, one day last week.

Mrs. Lucy Henney left for Philadelphia last week to purchase her fall millinery. Watch for her opening day.

Misses Lillian Emery and Ethel Rowe spent a few days last week with friends at Lewistown and Yeagerstown.

Mrs. J. J. Wehrley, of Altoona, returned home last week after a short but pleasant visit at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Shoop.

L. G. Rearick and two sons, of Lock Haven, visited in town last Thursday after a visit to Milroy to the home of the former's brother, W. O. Rearick.

S. S. Kremer was in town the other day, having come here to remove a portion of the household furniture not taken to their new home in Lewistown last spring.

Mrs. Sarah Marean, of Guthrie Center, Iowa, and Mrs. Austin Brungar, of Zion, were guests of their cousin, Henry E. Homan, and family for a few days last week.

Wanted.—Live chickens, young and old; best cash prices paid. Compare my prices with those of other buyers. Apples wanted also. Drop me a card.—James E. Frohm, Centre Hall, Pa.

Rev. C. R. Botsford, field secretary for Susquehanna University, was in Centre Hall on Tuesday in the interest of the institution he represents. Previous to coming here the gentleman had canvassed the Pine Grove Mills, Boalsburg and Rebersburg fields.

The route of the pole line to be taken by the State-Centre Electric company in supplying the current for Millheim will be down the Brush Valley road from Centre Hall, as far east as Penns Cave, and then across to Spring Mill, following the state road from there to Millheim.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goodhart, of Altoona, motored to Centre Hall on Monday in their new car. Accompanying them was the latter's mother, Mrs. Mary Goodhart, who since her complete recovery in health has been spending considerable time with her children in various parts of the state.

Rev. E. F. Lane, of Waterloo, New York, joined his mother, Mrs. M. M. Lane, at the home of his uncle, William H. Stiver, the latter part of last week, for a week's visit. Rev. Lane is in love with the mountains in Penns Valley and is spending the greater part of his vacation hiking on Nittany mountain.

George E. Meyer, of Boalsburg, comes before the readers of the Reporter this week with an advertisement on Lockhart pianos which will again be exhibited by him during the week of the Encampment and Fair at Centre Hall. Be sure to see his exhibit. He will be able to interest you if you have musical inclinations.

William F. Colyer appeared before the exemption board on Monday morning for examination and passed physically with colors flying. Of course, Mr. Colyer has the most reasonable grounds for claiming exemption, and is needed right at home. He is the father of dependent children, and besides, is doing his bit in making a large farm produce its utmost to feed the soldiers here and abroad.

James P. Herring, of Altoona, and son, E. A. Herring, a Braddock druggist, stopped in Centre Hall on Monday afternoon prior to leaving for Spring Mills for a few days' visit among friends. The senior Mr. Herring was a resident there back in the 70's and left for Altoona where he remained with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company as a machinist up until seven years ago. He is now enjoying a well earned rest. The Reporter was pleased to have a short visit from these gentlemen while in town.

Messrs. Alfred Crawford, Elliot Smith, Ralph E. Dinges and Clarence Miller were a quartette from Centre Hall borough and Potter township who submitted themselves for examination before the County Exemption Board at Bellefonte last Thursday. A fifty per cent. yield for Uncle Sam was the result of the examination. Messrs. Crawford and Smith passed O. K. and filed no exemption claims. Ralph Dinges was discharged on account of a rupture, while young Miller was temporarily discharged pending the outcome of threatened appendicitis.

Dr. S. C. Runkle, of Philadelphia, was the guest of his brother, John H. Runkle, on the farm, east of town, for a few days last week. While the doctor was spending his vacation among the scenes of his youth, the family were seeking pleasure at Ocean City, New Jersey. Dr. Runkle was a member of the exemption board in his district in Philadelphia and reported an almost fifty per cent. physical disqualification among the young men who submitted themselves for examination. The district, however, brought forth a large number of foreigners and negroes.

CALL 85 MORE MEN.

Centre County's Quota Only Half Raised.—Board Reaches 15th Hundred in Drawing

After several weeks' tedious work the Centre County Exemption Board reports on Wednesday noon that 52 conscripts have been signed up for the new army. Four others are automatically in the service by reason of having failed to appear for examination. Nine others enlisted. This shows that the country's quota of 117 men is far from being filled. The board has a number of exemption claims in the second call to still set upon, but realizing that the necessary number will not be forthcoming, have issued a third call for 85 men to appear for examination. The notices were mailed Wednesday. This makes a total of 435 men called.

Who Will Knit for the Boys?

The ladies of Centre Hall and vicinity, whether they be members of the local Red Cross Auxiliary or not, are asked to do knitting for the soldier boys. All who are willing to do work of this kind are asked to report the fact to Miss Emma McCoy, who has charge of the knitting work. Yarn and needles will be furnished by the Red Cross Society.

LOCALS.

Mrs. C. H. Meyer, of Reedsville, is visiting relatives in town.

Clyde Condo and little son, of Vandergrift, are at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Condo.

Phillipsburg defeated Bellefonte in a hard fought ball game at Phillipsburg last Saturday by a 4-2 score. Eugene Gramley, of Spring Mills, pitched for the Bellefonters and was touched up for seven hits. Bellefonte hit safe only three times.

Dr. W. E. Park, of New Milford, has been promoted from 1st Lieutenant to Captain and assigned to 47th Regiment, U. S. A. Mrs. Park, who had been visiting in Centre Hall, will leave today (Thursday) for her home in New Milford preparatory to joining her husband at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Savidge, of Sunbury, have been at the Centre Hall hotel during the past week. Mr. Savidge is a clerk in the Sunbury post office, having charge of the money order and postal savings branches of the business, for which positions he is well qualified and has filled them creditably for a number of years.

Mr. and Mrs. William Baird, of State College, and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Baird, of Buckingham, on Friday stopped at the Reporter office for a few minutes. They were on a pleasure trip to Sunbury, Milton, Williamsport, a Lock Haven and intermediate points and planned to return Monday. The junior Mr. Baird will again teach school in Bucks county at an advanced salary over last year.

S. H. Poorman, the bustling young automobile dealer of Pleasant Gap, returned home a week ago with a splendid new Willys-Overland '85-4', runabout which he drove from the factory in Toledo, Ohio, leaving there on Thursday morning about 10 o'clock. The new car is a beauty and Mr. Poorman will be glad to demonstrate its merits to any person interested.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Brooks, son Russel and daughter Genevieve, returned to their home in Cleveland, Ohio, on Saturday, after a two weeks visit with Mr. and Mrs. William S. Brooks, near Centre Hall, and Mr. and Mrs. John Carper, of near Linden Hall, parents, respectively, of Mr. and Mrs. Brooks. The position of engineer with the Cleveland Steel Works keeps Mr. Brooks busily engaged, and his vacations are few and far between.

DEATHS.

Samuel Stover died at the home of his son, James Stover, at Spring Mills, on Friday near the noon hour, as the result of an apoplectic stroke, it being the second attack in the past two years. Funeral services were held at his late home on Monday morning, by Rev. W. H. Williams, following which the funeral cortege proceeded to Zion where burial was made. Deceased was aged past sixty-one years. Two sons—James and Harold—of Spring Mills, and one daughter—Mrs. Hoy—of Pleasant Gap, survive.

Mr. Stover was a resident of Spring Mills but two years, having been engaged for more than ten years in farming near Penn Hall, and retiring when ill health interfered.

David J. Wolf, Jr., son of Rev. and Mrs. D. J. Wolf, of Apollo, died at the parental home on Monday morning at 7:30 o'clock, of valvular heart trouble, aged sixteen years and six days. The body was brought to Centre Hall for burial, arriving on the Wednesday afternoon train. Funeral services will be held this (Thursday) morning at 10 o'clock, at the Alfred Durst home, grandfather of the deceased, and will be in charge of Rev. R. R. Jones. The deceased's mother was Miss Jessie Durst, formerly of Centre Hall. Besides his parents, two brothers—Russell and Paul—survive.

Mr. Alice (Orndorf) Boob, wife of Isaiah Boob, died at her home near Woodward on Friday night, of apoplexy, aged sixty-five years. Burial was made at Woodward on Tuesday morning. The husband and twelve children survive; also two brothers—Isaiah and Allen Orndorf.

Spring Mills. Miss Grace Weaver has taken the place of Miss Leo in the post office. Harvey Houser and wife are visiting relatives at State College.

Miss Hazel Ripke, of Centre Hall, spent a few days with her friend, Martha Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. King and James Krape spent Sunday in Mifflin county.

Mrs. Roland Gentzell and children, of Altoona, are visiting relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Myrtle Burrows and little daughter, of York, spent a few days at the home of her father, G. W. Wolfe.

Andrew Rote and wife, C. E. Royer and wife, and Mrs. Rachael Condo spent Sunday at Mifflinburg.

Mr. Boob and family attended the funeral of Mr. Boob's mother, at Woodward, on Tuesday.

James Krape, who is employed at the Bellefonte hospital, was a visitor for a few days with his sister, Mrs. Annie King.

The stores and business places contemplate closing part of the day on Labor Day.

Samuel Stover, who was a resident of this community for fifteen years, died on Friday. Funeral Monday; interment at Zion.

Mrs. Gentzell and daughter Carrie are spending a few weeks with friends and relatives in the eastern part of the state and New Jersey.

MEXICAN LOVER "PLAYS BEAR"

Must Be Possessed of Unlimited Patience for Courtship is Slow and Difficult Process.

This is the manner of courtship in Mexico, says the World Outlook. A young man sees a young lady on the street whom he admires, and follows her home. Having reached her casa, he begins to "play the bear," by walking back and forth in front of the house or standing on the street with his eyes fixed upon her windows, for hours at a time, day and night alike.

The Mexican young woman is coy, and, even if greatly interested, she will remain back of the curtain. By the slightest movement of the curtains or blinds she gives sign that she is not entirely indifferent. After a day or two she may even show her face or wave her hands as a further mark of encouragement, and, after several days, she may appear on the balcony for a few moments. If she goes to church the lover is probably not far behind, and an occasional smile or glance from her eyes of mid-night is given him as a reward for his faithfulness. Next come daily salutes and smiles when the lover appears. Flowers in which notes are concealed are sent by the aid of the water carriers or charcoal vendors.

When the courtship has so far advanced that the lovers may talk, the moonlight nights are devoted to the love-making and several pairs of lovers can be seen on almost any street—on the sidewalk, she at the window. Perhaps in the most casual way imaginable she may let her fingers slip through the bars, for there is just a chance that mamma may be asleep. Later he may be invited to call at the house by the father or mother after a family council, if his antecedents are all right, for of course they have been investigated by the suspicious parents.
