Woman Thought She Would Die. Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Ogdensburg, Wis.—"I suffered from female troubles which caused piercing pains like a knife through my back and side. I finally lost all my strength so I had to go to bed. The doctor advised an operation but I would not listen to it. I thought of what I had read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and tried it. The first bottle brought great relief and six bottles have entirely cured me. All women who have female trouble of any kind should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. ERRA DONOHUE, Ogdensburg, Wis. Physicians undoubtedly did their best, battled with this case steadily and could do no more, but often the most scientific treatment is surpassed by the medicinal properties of the good old fashioned roots and herbs contained in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If any complication exists it pays to write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special free advice.

NEVER HAD A CHILL. After taking ELIXIR HABEK "My little daughter, 10 years old, suffered nearly a year with chills and fever, most of the time under the doctor's care. I was discouraged and a friend advised me to try ELIXIR HABEK. I gave it to her and she has never had a chill since. It completely cured her." Mrs. Cyrus Helms, 32 E. St., N. E., Washington, D. C. Had Made Good Use of Time. The Anzac read the advertisement on the door, and strolled in. "I want ter speak ter a pat o' mine," he said. "Ah yes. Be seated, my good sir."

Then in a dreamy voice the medium began to ring up the Beyond. "I am in touch with the person you want," he said at last. "He tells me that he has made a lot of friends. Already he has met Cromwell, Shakespeare, Queen Elizabeth, Henry Irving, Mark Twain, Balzac, and a score of others."

Occupation: "Pounding the ear." Wow! Old Morpheus drops the sleeper with a rudeness that is startling. It's the door bell! No—the telephone! Downstairs goes the man of the house, barefooted, pajama-ed, and three steps at a time. Maybe some of wife's relatives are sick, he conjectures. "Well! Hello!" he shouts impatiently as he takes down the receiver from the persistently ringing phone. No answer. "Hello! Hello! Hello!" he continues with rising emotions and temper.

"What number, please?" inquires central, with the calmness of the proverbial cucumber. It was the last straw. "This phone rang; who wants us?" was the only response. "Excuse it, please," was the apology. (Form 4-11-44)—Columbus Dispatch.

WINNING BIGGEST SUCCESS IN THIRTIES

Eddie Cicotte, Premier Pitcher of White Sox

Thirty-three years old and just beginning to have his most remarkable success as a pitcher—that's the record of Eddie Cicotte. Credited this year with the most successful use of the "shine ball," he also is given credit for having some control over a knuckle ball and is more than the average performer with the spitter. Cicotte, a veteran who, according to usual records, should be getting out of the way, heaved himself into the records for keeps when he hurled a no-hit, no-run game this year. When Jack Coombs was getting his first experience as a major leaguer, Cicotte had been taken on by Detroit, found wanting and sent back. He graduated from the same club that turned Ty Cobb loose and they both went to Detroit the same year. Since the beginning of the 1908 season Cicotte has been twirling them over in the American league—first as a member of the Red Sox and then as a member of the White Sox. Cicotte missed participation in the 1912 world series by a hair, for he was transferred to the Chicago club in that year, after he had been turned down and spurned by Jake Stahl as of inferior caliber. Cicotte has been going along in an even way, winning a game here and losing one there. His most successful season was while he was with Lincoln in the Western league in 1907. He won 23 and lost 10 games. If the White Sox land the pennant, it will be largely the work of this veteran heaver. His work is the most consistent and really brilliant among all the curvers of the great baseball club.

RETORT ENDS GRIFF'S HOWL

Silk O'Loughlin Resents Statement of Washington Leader That He Had Made Wrong Guess.

Clark Griffith, manager of the Washington Americans, is considered one of the hardest losers in baseball. And Clark Griffith.

Griff's friends say he hates to lose an argument about as much as he dislikes to drop a ball game. Washington recently lost a game to Detroit because of a close decision which gave Cobb a base on balls. O'Loughlin was the umpire. Griffith met O'Loughlin and his partner after the game. "You two highwaymen looked fine in there today!" said the National manager. "What's the matter, Griff?" asked Silk. "That third strike you missed on Cobb cost us the game, that's all." "You're wrong, my boy, you're wrong. I never made a mistake in my life," chirped O'Loughlin and he moved away, leaving Griffith speechless.

THIRD MAJOR LEAGUE RUMOR

Intimated That Plan May Be Put into Effect When Season Ends—Eight Cities Named.

There are rumors and much whispering about the third major league plan which, it is said, may be put in effect when the season ends. The plan provides for clubs from Buffalo, Toronto, Baltimore, Newark, Indianapolis, Toledo, Milwaukee and Kansas City. Let us hope some of these predictions come true. It will be good to see those cities represented in the big leagues. They've got good material to work with, too.

DIAMOND NOTES

Fielder Jones says Sisler is as great as Cobb ever was.

George Davis, once manager of the Giants and White Sox, is with the Browns as head coach and scout.

The veteran Terry Turner gets into the game occasionally for Cleveland, and he still is a high-class fielder.

Uncle Robbie is longing to get his fading champions into the first division. It shouldn't be a difficult task.

Jim Corbett has again picked the Giants to win. Which caused the bookies to lay bigger odds on the Reds.

Maybe Connie Mack would lend his white elephant to the Stamese army. But it would be an awful blow to the allies.

More and more people are becoming more deeply concerned about the price of eggs than about Ty Cobb's batting average.

Branch Rickey, president of the Cardinals, is elated over the acquisition of Goodwin, the pitcher obtained from Milwaukee.

The Browns made seven errors in a ball game the other day. Fielder Jones would have been a pleasant guy to talk to after the game.

Jawn McGraw probably couldn't see the joke if Matty, Rousch, Groh and a few more Giant cast-offs should beat him out of the flag.

Eddie Lafitte, who was with the Brooklyn Feds and who has hurried for the Paterson Silk Sox of late, has quit baseball to enlist in the army.

President Wilson has announced that he wants baseball to be continued for the rest of the season at least, which assures a world series this fall.

Johnny Brock is the name of a young catcher who will soon join the Cardinals. He hails from the Muskogee team of the Western association.

If the war is responsible for introducing baseball as the international pastime, it will atone for much by adding vastly to the gaiety of nations.

Nobody ever believed that Frank Baker tampered with Pitcher Sotheron of the Browns. It looked like a case of sour grapes on the part of the disappointed Fielder Jones.

Philadelphia osteopath tells Guy Morton that the troubles with his pitching are mostly imaginary. That's been the trouble with his winning average this year, too.

NEW WORLD PASTIME

Jimmy Callahan Predicts Big International Series.

Sees Games Between Championship Teams of England, France, Japan, United States and Possibly South America.

International baseball after the war? A world's series between the championship teams of England, France, the United States, Japan and possibly South America?

"Why not?" asked Jimmy Callahan, ex-pilot of the Pirates, who rounded this little old globe four years ago with the All-Americans and All-Nationals, and who is now interested in baseball behind the trenches in France.

"It will not surprise me if England and France take up baseball after the war," said Jimmy. "Those people like baseball—the only trouble is the game has never been allowed to develop there."

"I like to think of that trip we took four years ago as a missionary trip. We played to vast crowds and they liked the game. They cheered every time a hit was made, even if it were only a foul.

"But the real missionary work is going on behind the trenches now, where Americans and Canadians are playing baseball for the edification and delight of the Tommies and poilus as well as for their own pleasure."

Callahan has struck a popular note. Why not international baseball after the war?

Baseball has been one of the great melting pots of America. Practically every nationality has contributed big stars. This refutes any idea that baseball has been cornered by America and cannot be developed anywhere else.

Looking over the records of the last few years we find that France is represented by the great Lajoie, by Cicotte, Fabrique, Ruth and several others. Ireland contributed the Delahantys, Pat Moran, Moriarty, Killifer and a host of others. Scotland gave us McQuillan and Chalmers. Bates and many others are of English descent.

Italy is represented by Abbatichio, Gesto and Ping Bodie. Many great ball players have come from Germany, Bohemia and Poland.

BASEBALL FREAK OF SEASON

Greasy Neale of Cincinnati Made Home Run and Single in One Time at Bat in Giant Game.

Every baseball season produces its freaks, and 1917 is no exception to the rule.

In a recent game at the Polo Grounds Greasy Neale of the Reds, got a home run and a single in one time at bat.

"Can't he do it?" you say? Bet your small change first.

Neale came to bat with Chase on second and hit to center field for four bases. But as Pol Perritt, the Giants' pitcher, wound up to pitch the ball that Neale slammed for a homer, a fan who had recovered a foul in the grandstand tossed it onto the field of play and Umpire Harrison raised his hand, calling time, just before the ball was hit.

After a conference between umpires and managers it was decided that the home run was illegal and Neale was called back to the plate. He drove a single to left on the next ball pitched. As he was credited with but one time at bat he made a homer and a single in the one trip to the platter, something which doesn't happen often.

Owner of San Francisco Club Releases Manager Wolverton and Does Directing Himself.

Henry Berry, owner of the San Francisco club, has gone the other way in cutting down expenses. Harry Wolverton was recently released as manager of the Seals, and now Berry is sitting on the bench and doing the directing himself, although he has never had practical experience in such work before.

Feed the Fighters! Win the War!!

Harvest the Crops—Save the Yields

On the battle fields of France and Flanders, the United States boys and the Canadian boys are fighting side by side to win for the World the freedom that Prussianism would destroy. While doing this they must be fed and every ounce of muscle that can be requisitioned must go into use to save this year's crop. A short harvest period requires the combined forces of the two countries in team work, such as the soldier boys in France and Flanders are demonstrating.

The Combined Fighters in France and Flanders and the Combined Harvesters in America WILL Bring the Allied Victory Nearer.

A reciprocal arrangement for the use of farm workers has been perfected between the Department of the Interior of Canada and the Department of Labor and Agriculture of the United States, under which it is proposed to permit the harvesters that are now engaged in the wheat fields of Oklahoma, Kansas, Iowa, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Minnesota and Wisconsin to move over into Canada, with the privilege of later returning to the United States, when the crops in the United States have been conserved, and help to save the enormous crops in Canada which by this time will be ready for harvesting.

CHARGED TRACE UP TO PAT
Finnegan Probably Right When He Put Forward Thompson as Meanest of All Mean Men.
This one was told to Sam Bowers, the art salesman, by John Finnegan, train caller at the Union station, at Sioux City, Iowa.

"Talkin' about mean men," said Finnegan, "one time I knew a man by the name of Pat O'Toole, who worked for a farmer, a few miles out from here, by the name of Thompson."
"Well, one night O'Toole wint out to the barn an' he found the farmer hangin' by the neck from a beam by a buggy trace an' he cut him down an' run four miles for a doctor, an' the doctor come an' the farmer got well, an' he said he'd never do it again."
"Well, at the end of the month, after the farmer had paid O'Toole his wages, Pat discovered that he was $3 short, an' he went back to the farmer, an' ses, ses he, 'How's this? Me money is short to the extent of $3? An' the farmer ses, ses he, 'Why, that's the price of that fine new buggy trace of mine that you spoyled by cuttin' a couple of weeks back.'"

What He Feared.
During some building operations it was necessary for the workmen to walk across a single plank some distance from the ground.
When it came Pat's turn the foreman noticed that he went across on all fours. So he went up to Pat and asked contemptuously:
"What's the trouble, man? Are you afraid of walking on the plank?"
"No, sor," replied Pat. "It's afraid of am av walking off it!"
