Lutheran—Tusseyville, morning; Centre Hall, afternoon; Spring Mills, evening.
Reformed—Spring Mills, morning; Union, afternoon; Centre Hall, evening.

LOCALS.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hubler, of Lock Haven, were home for a few days last week.
Joseph K. Emerick, of Hublersburg, was the guest of J. T. Potter for a day last week. Mr. Emerick has a son who is in France with the American troops.

Samuel Gros, who has been employed at carpenter work near Creson for some time, was home with his family last week, returning to his labors on Monday.

D. C. Bohn, of Boslerburg, was one of the numerous Reporter subscribers to host his subscription during fair week. Mr. Bohn is a farmer, and that accounts for the surplus of ready cash.

The condition brought about by the war is responsible for R. D. Killian being engaged in the Lewisburg chair factory instead of shipping walnut logs to Amsterdam. Mr. Killian attended the Grange Encampment.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fair and son William, of Resding, were guests of the former's brother-in-law, John Kreamer, for a few days. Mrs. Joseph F. Kreamer has also been a guest at the home of her son for the past week or more.

Among the dozen or more Philadelphians who attended the fair was Mrs. Irvin Stover, who had been visiting her old home at Linden Hall during the past few weeks. Mr. Stover was also here, but returned to Philadelphia to resume work.

In the lobby of the local post office is posted a list of camps showing the location of the training points of the National Army and National Guards, also the proper way to address letters and packages for soldiers. It will be well for those desiring to correspond with the soldier boys to carefully examine the poster referred to.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bitner, former Potter township residents, and now of Youngstown, Ohio, announce the arrival of Mary Jane Bitner, born Friday, September 14th. Mr. Bitner for the past four years has been in the employ of the Republic Rubber Company, as inspector of auto tires which are built by machinery. "Just completed a busy summer," he says.

Among the many of the Reporter readers from a distance who attended the Grange Encampment was A. E. Miller, of Alexandria, Virginia, who was entertained by his brother, M. N. Miller, south of town. Mr. Miller has been located in Virginia for a number of years, but finds much pleasure in coming to Penns Valley occasionally to come in contact with his many acquaintances. He is engaged as an engineer in the Alexandria City electric light works.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Derstine, of Freeport, Illinois, were arrivals in Centre Hall ten days ago, and were guests of the former's sister, Mrs. John E. Puff, during their stay here. Mr. Derstine went to Freeport from Centre Hall when a young man and engaged with the Henney carriage company, where he was employed continuously until the company's business was taken over a few years ago by the Molins Plow Company. With the latter company he now occupies an important position. Like many other manufacturers the Molins people have taken to building automobiles, the Stephens-six, a popular machine in the middle west, being built by them. It is something like thirty-five years ago since Mr. Derstine left Centre Hall, and although he has made but five trips in all those years, he is greeted on all sides by those who so kindly recall him.

Older Press Notice.
The Centre Hall older press will be operated Thursday, September 27th, and every Thursday thereafter until further notice.

Thankful for the Fruit.
The management of the Bellefonte Hospital wishes to thank the Centre County Grangers for their splendid donation of the fruit and vegetables exhibited at the recent Encampment.

Military Professor for State.
Dr. Edwin E. Sparks, president of the Pennsylvania State College, was on Saturday notified by the war department that Major James Bayliss, U. S. A., retired, had been detailed there as professor of military science and tactics. He will report at once for duty as commandant of the State College cadet regiment.

Convention of Woman's Club.
The tri-county (Lycoming, Clinton and Centre) convention of Woman's Club will meet in the Bellefonte High school building, Saturday, October 6. Morning session 10 to 12:30 o'clock; afternoon session 2 to 4 o'clock. Box luncheon.

It is desired that all woman's organizations in the above named counties be represented and give a three minute report of the past year's work.

Buchanan Hess Dead.
Claudius Buchanan Hess died at the Hamilton bungalow, south of Phillipsburg, where he has spent his summers during the past three years. His death was due to injuries received in a railroad accident which occurred five years ago while an engineer on the Atlantic Coast line, at which time he was a resident of Charleston, S. C.
Deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hess, and was born in Penna Valley in 1861, making his age 56 years, passing away on his birthday.
Two daughters and one son survive.

LOCALS
David Reslerk was was elected a ruling elder in the local Presbyterian church.

J. E. Rowe, who is engaged in concrete structural work at Martinsburg, West Va., is home for a brief visit.

James Keller, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Keller, returned to Franklin and Marshall academy where he is a student.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Lise, of Dunle, were guests of the former's brother, P. H. Luse, west of town, for several days last week.

S. K. Emerick, of Unionville, and Dr. S. C. Emerick, of Harrisburg, were guests of their brother, M. I. Emerick during last week.

Chester Kurtz was home for a few days and Monday resumed his studies in Cornell. Miss Pearl Kurtz also returned to Syracuse University as a student.

Hon. L. Rhone has been confined to his bed since the middle of last week, but is gradually gaining strength. His complete recovery is hoped by his many friends.

John Barnaby Still, who had spent his vacation with his father, Rev. Josiah Still, A. B., A. M., recently returned to Union College, at Schenectady, N. Y., to enter upon his senior year.

Dr. Samuel G. Dixon, head of the state health department for twelve years, has resigned. It is not known positively whether Dr. Dixon resigned voluntarily or whether the governor asked him to do so.

Mr. and Mrs. Elery Spayd, accompanied by their two sons and daughter, motored from Bellevue, Ohio, a short time ago and visited Mr. Spayd's sister, Mrs. P. H. Luse, near Centre Hall, and his brother, Albert Spayd, of this place. They returned home on Friday.

S. V. Hoerster, Esq., of Lancaster, was on Monday appointed by the Lancaster county court to the office of district attorney. Mr. Hoerster for several years very ably acted in the capacity of assistant district attorney in Lancaster county.

Edwin Grove, son of Commissioner D. A. Grove, of near Lemont, was elected to teach the grammar grade of the Potters Mills school, made vacant by Alfred Crawford's leaving for Camp Meade, Maryland, as one of Centre county's soldier boys in the new army.

Mr. and Mrs. George O. Banner entertained a number of friends and relatives, during the past week, among whom were Misses Winifred, Bethel and Millie Smith, of Pittsburgh; Miss Susan McKinney, of Altoona; Robert Miles, of Johnstown, a student at Bucknell; the O. D. Eberts family, of Marthas, and the Chester Chronister family, of Wilkinsburg.

This year's potato crop is one of the largest ever grown in Sugar Valley, the average yield being fully three hundred bushels per acre, says the Lancaster Journal. The large acreage planted last spring, under careful cultivation and ideal growing weather during the summer, combined to produce an enormous yield. Thousands of bushels are now being lifted and stored away for use during the coming winter.

Marriage Licenses.
John W. Kerstetter, Coburn Effie H. Elmer, Coburn Edgar Messer, Blanchard Esther B. Pletcher, Howard

LOCALS
Equire Cyrus Brungart picked a nice crop of peaches this week, which he had no trouble to dispose of at $1.75 a bushel.

Louis B. Morgan came over from Phillipsburg for a few days visit at the home of his aunt, Mrs. E. W. Smith, leaving on Sunday for his new home in Homestead.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cummings, near Manor Hill, on Monday morning. The arrival is son No. 1, and has four sisters. Mother and child are doing nicely.

Mrs. Carrie Tibbens Hackart, of Morgantown, visited her sister, Mrs. I. J. Zubler, and other friends and relatives at Spring Mills and other points in Penna Valley.

Rev. and Mrs. Victor H. Jones and daughter Florence Eiler, of Catawissa, are guests of the former's parents at the Reformed parsonage, where they are spending a two weeks' vacation.

Miss Sarah Neff, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. C. B. Neff, left last Thursday for Pittsfield, Maine, where she began her second year of teaching in the domestic science department of Maine Central Institute.

Wallace W. Weaver was one of the many young men who came to the old family hearth at the time they could also attend the Grange Encampment. Mr. Weaver is a railroad man and is located at Birdsboro.

PROSPEROUS CITY OF EAST
Schechem, or Nablus, as it is Now Called, Site of Impressive Scenes in Biblical History.

A prosperous Oriental city nestled in a fertile valley between two mountains and surrounded by gardens and olive groves, Schechem or Nablus, as it is now called, occupies the site of some of the most impressive scenes in Bible history, says the Christian Herald. Here Abraham pitched place in and made the first stopping place in his migration to the country of which the Lord said: "Unto thy seed will I give this land." Here Joseph divided the Israelites into two hosts, one of which encamped on the slope of Mount Ebal on the north and the other on the slope of Mount Gerizim on the south, while the Levites read the law of Moses which was to be the constitution of the infant nation. Schechem seems to have been a sort of capital for the Hebrew nation even after David had established his residence at Jerusalem, as we read in I Kings 12 that all Israel assembled at Schechem to crown Rehobam. The separatist elements of the nation sought to legitimize their acts by making Schechem a temporary capital, although the residence of the northern kings was established at a point about six miles northwest and called Samaria.

Schechem is nowhere mentioned by name in the New Testament, though either it or suburb appears in John 4:5 under the name of Sychar; and it was here, at Jacob's well, that the Samaritan woman met Christ and first heard the message of his universal gospel. Jacob's well is still pointed out and is almost the only undisputed landmark of our Lord's earthly life. The city now contains about 25,000 inhabitants. Nablus contains a small colony of about 200 persons, who claim to be the descendants of the Israelites of the northern kingdom. They accept only the five books of Moses as being of divine authority and hold Mount Gerizim to be the seat of their religion, instead of Jerusalem.

FOLKS WE ALL KNOW

The Boy is asking his Father where the Light goes when it goes Out, and his Father is also thinking of Going Out, as this is Puzzling Question No. 327 for the evening and Dad doesn't feel nearly so Smart as he did when he sat down to Enjoy his copy of this Family Journal.
