

Two of Centre Hall's Youths Among the Eleven Turned Back Until Second Unit Will Go.

Fifty-eight of the 275,000 drafted men to go to Camp Meade on Wednesday passed through Centre Hall on the east bound morning train. It represented Centre county's first unit to enter camp. The boys were in good spirits, and we may hear from them favorably from time to time.

At the Centre Hall station, Elliot Smith and Ralph Rachau were obliged to leave their companions, to await the going of the next unit. It was with tears in their eyes that the youths left the train and waved a goodbye to the boys they had hoped to accompany to the training camp.

A decidedly creditable farewell was tendered the young men at Bellefonte on Tuesday night. There was a general turnout of citizens and a sincere Godspeed. There was an abundance of music and stirring patriotic addresses.

Ella Lawick, of Osceola Mills, R. D., has been declared a deserter, not having reported on Monday or later. The authorities will search for him.

Wa. Talks.

Arrangements are under way to have Dr. Y'ocum, of Bellefonte, give a talk on "The World War," in Grange Arcade, Thursday evening, October 4th. He will be rebalanced as the Memorial Day orator, who so ably discussed the question at that time. Dr. Y'ocum will be preceded by Prof. C. R. N. B., who will speak on "Germany's Form of Government."

Music for the occasion will be furnished by the Bellefonte High School orchestra of twenty pieces.

Exercises will begin promptly at 7:30 o'clock. Admission free; no offering; no solicitation for funds. Your presence and respectful attention is all that is asked.

A complete program and announcements will be found in the next issue of the Reporter.

Fertilizer—good quality and priced right—buy it of R. D. Foreman, Centre Hall.

New Army Will be Well Fed.

Those who have had no experience in army life and have been drafted in the new army, will be agreeably surprised at many things, one of which is the care Uncle Sam takes of his soldiers' appetites.

An abundance of good food is provided for three square meals a day. Many will be fed better than ever before in their lives. Here is a sample menu for two days.

Breakfast—milk toast, fresh apple sauce, beefsteak and onions, baked potatoes, bread, coffee. Dinner—cream of potato soup, croutons, beef pot pie, boiled potatoes, boiled beef, lettuce salad, cottage pudding, chocolate sauce, iced tea, bread. Supper—fried ham, hot Parker House rolls, apple sauce, iced tea.

Breakfast—oatmeal, sugar and milk, fried pork sausage, Lyonnese potatoes, bread, toast, coffee. Dinner—vegetable soup, croutons, soft roast beef, mashed potatoes, stewed corn, piccalilli, lemon ice, spiced cake, bread, iced water. Supper—hot tea, buns, jam butter, iced tea.

This menu is varied from day to day according to the fresh fruits and vegetables in the particular part of the country in which the camp is located but it will serve as a general illustration of the kind of subsistence that will be provided while in the training camps in this country. And it may be assumed that in every instance the food will be well cooked, as a national committee of hotel men of whom Geo. F. Hurlburt is a member, has undertaken the task of providing competent cooks for the training camps.

Guernsey Breeders Notice.

On Tuesday afternoon, October 2, at 1:30 p. m. there will be a meeting in the court house, Bellefonte, to consider the organization of a Centre County Guernsey Breeder's Association.

Considerable interest has been stirred up among the Guernsey breeders in the county to organize in order to promote the breeding and improvement of high-grade and pure-bred Guernsey cattle in Centre county and to aid its members in buying, breeding and selling first class animals.

All persons in the county interested in Guernsey cattle, whether you have any pure-breds or not, are urged to attend. The advisability of such a movement will be gone over thoroughly and if favorable an organization will be started.

Look Out for the Lion.

He will appear at the Garman Opera House on Friday evening, September 21st, when the "Wizzard of Wiseland" holds the stage. This is the newest thing in the musical comedy extravaganza line, and it is great. The music is great, the comedians are greater and the fun is greatest. The jokes are new and rich and the singing as good as you've ever heard. Scenery O. K. Dialogue and Lyrics all right, and the story—yes, it has a story, an absorbing, interesting story, we worked out, through it is as fanciful as a Grimm Fairy Tale. If you want to have two and a half hours solid enjoyment don't miss the "Wizzard of Wiseland." Price 25, 35, 50, 75 cents and $1.00
