Resolution Against Picketing Whereas, in spite of the fact that the National Womans Suffrage Association and its various State and County branches, have repeatedly repudiated the picketing at Washington and repeatedly explained the small group of women carrying on this and similar activities are in no way connected with the National organization, there still exists in the public mind such misconceptions as to bring injury to the cause of Womans Suffrage and to the efforts of the women, who subordinating their own cause, are turning their energies and organizations to the service of the Nation, therefore be it is still at home.

Resolved, that we, the Woman Suffrage Party of the 15th and 21st Congressional districts of the State of Pennsylvanis, in session at Lock Haven, October 25, 1917, again repeat this explanation that we as women and ing, of acute indigestion. He was suffragists repudiate and renounce the aged about forty-six years, and leaves pickets, their organization and meth- a wife but no children.

Paul W. Rishel, son of Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Rishel, of Howard, and Miss Edith Bailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bailey, of Muncy, were Muncy. The ceremony was performed by the bridegroom's father, Rev. Rishel, assisted by Rev. W. S. Steck. The young couple were attended by Miss Blanche Bailey, a sister of the bride, and Fred T. Leinbach, of Will-iamsport. After a brief wedding trip they will make their home at Worcester, Mass., where Mr. Rishel holds a good position.

DEATHS.

John Kuhn, for many years a promiall his life engaged in agricultural pursuits, died at the home of his only son, Charles Kuhu, on the Sparr farm southeast of Boalsburg, Sunday fornoon. Interment was made Wednesday morning in the Union cemetery. Boalsburg, by the side of his wife who died twenty years ago. The funeral was conducted by Rev. S. C. Stover, pastor of the Boalsburg Reformed church, of which church the deceased was a life long and conscientious member, supporting it by regularity in attendance and giving financial aid to the full extent of his ability.

The deceased was a son of Peter Kuhn, and was born in Harris township. His age was eighty-four years, ten months, twenty-seven days. His wife was Lavina Shuey. There survive two children, Charles, mentioned above, and Sara's, wife of Fred W. Weber, of Boaleburg. There are two grand-children and five greatgrandchildren. There also survives an older brother, David Kuhn, of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and William Kuhn, of Centre Hall.

Due to age the deceased had become melancholy at times and while in this condition he eluded a watchful son and ended his life by hanging him-

They Did Their Bit,

That Washington Camp No. 426, P. O. S. of A., of Millmont is a very patriotic bunch, as the name of their goodly order indicates, is proven by the following reprinted from the Miff-Linburg Telegraph:

"On Saturday last at one of our banking institutions they subscribed and paid for $2,000 worth of four per cent. phoquer is evidently O. K., and their fondness and intent to swat the Kaiser and his atracions hordes is at or
