Rev. R. R. Jones will preach a sermon in the interest of the P. O. S. of A., on Sunday evening at seven o'clock, at Centre Hall. This will be in keeping with the nation-wide idea to celebrate the anniversary of the order—December 16th—as well as the anniversary of the death of George Washington—December 14th. Seats will be reserved for the members of the local Camp.

Musser-Cori

Foster Musser and Miss Vida Cori, both of State College, were united in marriage at the Reformed parsonage in Boalsburg by Rev. S. C. Stover, on Monday evening. Following the extending of congratulations the couple were conveyed to Bellefonte where they took the evening train to Williamsport to be present as delegates to the State Grange convention. Mr. Musser is Master of Washington Grange, at Pine Hall, and his bride is Lady Assistant Steward in the same Grange. Their attending the State Grange sessions as man and wife is a genuine surprise to their many friends. The bride is the accomplished daughter of W. K. Cori, of State College. The groom is a Penn State "Ag." graduate, class 1915. They are an estimable young couple and their many friends join in extending best wishes.

Aaronsburg.

A. S. Musser and family and the former's sister-in-law, Miss Nellie Burd, were to Wolfes Store last week to visit Mr. and Mrs. Ad. Winters. George Snyder, of Sunbury, was the guest of his uncle, Henry Bower, on Friday. Hervey Charles, of Hartleton, spent a short time with his daughter, Mrs. Claude Feldler.

Charles Wolfe, after spending a few weeks with his son Fred, in Akron, Ohio, returned to his home well pleased with his visit.

Miss Mamie Wance, of Woodward, spent a few days with friends in town.

Mrs. Elsie Miller, nee Cummings, returned to her home in Pittsburgh. Mrs. Leo Hainer, of Sunbury, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Crouse.

Harry Acker moved his family here from Plainfield, Illinois, last week.

Mrs. Wallace Kerstetter and grandson Wallace, of State College, are guests of her uncle, Z. D. Thomas.

SNOW CHASES HUNTERS HOME.

However, First Week Proved Successful for Many Camps.—
Horner Party Kills Limit. Bradfords Have Four.

Although the first week of the deer season was a most successful one for the many hunters in Centre county, Saturday's snow storm served to convince some who had come here from other sections of the State, that they had had sufficient sport for this year.

Both afternoon trains on the L. and T. railroad were filled with hunters glad to get away from the winds and the snow, but usually they were all accompanied by at least one buck. Some parties have already secured their limit, while others have so nearly approached it, that they have broken camp and gone home to tell their stories by the fire. The Decker party, camping at John Decker's in Decker Valley, broke camp on the 7th, after having secured six deer, while the Rote-Wingard party, located at West Paddy Mountain Station, have but one deer and two bear to secure before they have reached their limit.

The Horner party, of Pleasant Gap, under the leadership of George Horner, killed their sixth buck last Thursday morning and broke camp the following day. The men were a happy lot. Their deer were fine specimens, all of uniform size and most of them carried fine head adornments.

The following table shows a total of 83 deer and ten bears killed in the territory from Coburn west to Colyer.

DEATHS.

J. Henry Meyer, the oldest male resident of Boalsburg, passed away at his home Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, of senility.

John Henry Meyer was born in Lebanon county, February 21, 1830, hence was in his eighty-eighth year. He was the oldest of a family of eight children. His parents, George and Anna Meyer, were pioneer settlers of Lebanon county, and moved to Spring Bank, this county, when the subject of this sketch was a lad of three years.

His younger days were spent in the milling business at Linden Hall. On March 15, 1865, he was married to Miss Phoebe Weber, of Boalsburg. His parents at that time were Ferguson township farmers and the young newly wedded couple started farming on the Mills farm, adjoining. Mr. Meyer was a successful farmer and was recognized as a leader in movements designed for the community welfare. He was strictly honest, his word being as good as his bond.

In 1900 he purchased the Kuhn farm near Boalsburg, where his son Nevin now lives. Ten years later the aged couple quit the farm and retired from active life to enjoy a well earned rest in the town of Boalsburg.

Deceased was an active member of the Reformed church and for years was a ruling elder. Of his father's family one brother—W. C. Meyer, of State College, survives. The widow and the following children mourn his loss: Mrs. Anna Gettig, of Altoona; Mrs. William Mothersbaugh, Nevin and Edward Meyer, all of Boalsburg.

Burial was made Tuesday afternoon in the Boalsburg cemetery, where in the beautiful sunset rays, the old patriarch was left to sleep the sleep of the just. His pastor, Rev. S. C. Stover, officiated, and paid a lasting tribute to his worth.

John Braucht, father of Dr. H. S. Braucht, of Spring Mills, died at his home in Coburn on Friday night at ten o'clock, of senility. His age was eighty-one years. He was a native of Coburn and spent practically all his life there, being engaged in carpentering in his earlier life. The widow, who was Miss Drucilla Detwiler, and three sons survive: Edward Braucht, of Coburn; N. S., of Dewart, and Dr.

H. S., of Spring Mills. He was the last member of his father's family.

Funeral services were held at his late home in Coburn on Tuesday morning, burial following in the Millheim cemetery.

Mrs. Justina Margaret Wohlbach died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Ream, at Farmers Mills, on Monday morning at ten o'clock from the effects of paralysis. She was first stricken four years ago, but improved in health. A stroke which occurred last Easter enfeebled her and rendered her practically speechless. Deceased was aged seventy-one years, and was born at Bethlehem. Nine years ago she took up her home with her daughter near here. Her husband died ten years ago. The body will be shipped to Bethlehem for burial this (Thursday) morning.

Linden Hall

Mrs. Lewis Swartz and little son spent a few days here last week.

Lieutenant W. N. Keller left on Friday for Camp Jackson, where he will be stationed for a few months.

After spending a week with his parents here Edward Bohn returned to Akron, Ohio, on Monday, where he is employed.

Edward Sellers, who is running a foundry at Sunbury, was home a few days last week, returning on Monday afternoon.

Edward Mulberger, in making some repairs at the threshing machine while it was located at David Snyder's barn at O k Hall, was struck in the eye by the band outer and for a time it was thought he would lose the sight of his eye. He was taken to an eye specialist, in Altoona, for treatment.

An Outlaw's Fate.

The Outlaw with his three-cornered hat, stood upon a mound that over-laps, far out west where the Hoakies grow; He stood staunch and still in a blinding snow.

Till far in the east he heard a sound, And in the west he heard it resound; Was it the sound of a Hoakie growl, Or was it some one from the town?

Till all of a sudden he saw a man, A man! A man! with cheeks of tan; The Outlaw said, "Who are you there?" "I am the Constable of St. Pierre."

"Are you the man for whom I have searched, The man who killed old Dr. Birch?" Then I perceived that I was not, But he trusted, and I was caught.

"I am the Constable of St. Pierre."
JIM JACKSON, Boalsburg, Pa.
