DEATHS.

George John Meyer, the oldest resident in the eastern section of the county, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Nicodemus Lose, on Friday morning, aged eighty-seven years, ten months, and twenty-eight days. Pneumonia and heart trouble contributed toward his death. Burial was made in the Reformed cemetery at Aaronsburg Tuesday morning. Mr. Meyer was a miller in his earlier life, having been located at Coburn and Linden Hall. His wife died twenty-four years ago. Five children survive: W. H. Meyer, of Centre Hall; Thomas, of Millheim; Mrs. David Krader, Mrs. Nicodemus Lose, of Coburn, and Mrs. John Rishel, of Spring Mills. Also ten grandchildren and fourteen great-grandchildren.

Mrs. (Rev.) William H. Groh died at her home in Carlisle. A full account of her death will appear in the next issue of this paper.

Linden Hall

Cloyd Brooks was taken quite sick on Tuesday with an attack of heart trouble.

Miss Mary Osman is spending a few days at the Loyd Brown home.

Orrie Rupp left for Altoona Friday where he will go to work Monday in the Juniata shops.

Among those from Linden Hall who contributed cakes and candies for the Christmas box sent to the soldiers at Camp Hancock were: Mrs. Daniel Callahan, Mrs. Frank McClintic, Mrs. Ruth McClintic, Mrs. Henry Houser, Mrs. William Houser, Mrs. Daniel Colyer, Mrs. George Bearson, Mrs. James Swabb, Mrs. James From, Mrs. Robert McClellan, Mrs. Edward Sellers, Mrs. Elmer Campbell, Mrs. Frank Wieland.

"Oh Doctor"

If you can go to sleep during the performance of that carnival of fun and music, "Oh Doctor", in which Hal Johnson, the world's famous impersonator will appear in the German Opera House, Monday, Dec. 31, you will be entitled to a medal as the champion sleeper of the world. There is not a dull moment in this exceedingly funny musical show. It is guaranteed as a sure cure for the blues and is filled to the brim with catchy songs and pretty girls. Johnson's impersonation of an actress is one of the most artistic and comical pieces of work seen in musical comedy for many a year.

Prices, 35, 50, 75, and $1.00. Children 25c.

CLOSE OF DEER SEASON.

State Forester L. M. Deitz of Coburn, Makes Accurate Report of Deer and Bear Killed.

The closing of the deer season for 1917 shows that over 100 deer and 11 bear were killed in the mountains of southern Centre county. Those not reported would probably raise this number to a considerable extent, although the many hunters were handicapped with a deep snow during the second week of the season. This made driving difficult and a number of parties gave up after several days experience under such conditions. Several parties remained, however, and secured one or two each during the week, while others were more successful and secured enough to reach their limit of six.

The Woodward Gun Club, camping in the Seven Mile Narrows, secured their sixth deer at noon of the last day, and it is needless to say that they departed for their homes, a very happy lot of hunters. They also took with them, and afterward sent to the Bellefonte hospital a doe, which was found in Sand Hollow. The Greenbrier party camping in Pine Swamp, secured their sixth deer on Wednesday, and the Rote-Wingard party camping at Paddy Mountain broke camp after killing the sixth of their number on Tuesday.

Co-operation of the many camps with the foresters and forest rangers made it possible for them to render such a complete report. Rangers McKinney of Spring Mills, Libby of Weikert and Stover of Livona visited the camps and found them in good shape and incidentally were able to secure an accurate report from these camps. Mr. McKinney reports that about 260 hunters looked for deer on the Seven Mountains Forest alone, or on land adjacent thereto. Seven camps housing up to ten men were located on State land, and 15 camps housing up to 25 men located themselves on private holdings. To that number must be added several parties of one day hunters which comprised from 15 to 30 men. Those reported follow:

George Wingard, of the Rote-Wingard party, camping at Paddy Mountain, shot a wildcat during the first week of the season and it was added to the trophies of the party as a part of their very successful season's luck.

"COMMUNITY DAY" A SUCCESS.

People of Spring Mills and Community Take Great Interest in Work of Scholars.—Many Prizes Won.

The "Community Day" and Institute held a Spring Mills last Friday and Saturday was a great success, notwithstanding the weather conditions. It was estimated that between four and five-hundred patrons and friends viewed the exhibits which were judged by professors from State College. The lecture by Dr. King, on Friday evening, was very instructive and was highly appreciated by the audience, which filled the M. E. church. The institute was well attended and was a complete success from every viewpoint.

The winners in the spelling contests and those who captured the prizes in the vocational school on agricultural products are appended:
