Commence practicing writing it 1918. Good news—Larro Feed is back again.—R. D. Foreman. adv. Allen Laying Mash only $3.80 per hundred.—Chas. D. Bartholomew, Centre Hall, Pa. Miss Anna Stover, of Altoona, spent a few days last week at the home of sister, Mrs. William McClenahan. Messrs. Cleveland Mitterling and Fred Fisher expect to ship a carload of cows to Collegeville on Saturday. Prof. C. R. Neff was among those from this section who attended the State Grange sessions at Williamsport last week. The only Christmas service in Centre Hall this season will be held in the Reformed Church on Sunday evening, 23rd inst. The carol singers are planning to sing the Christmas carols at various points in the town on Christmas eve, as was done last year. A Christmas Cantata will be held in the M. E. church at Pleasant Gap on Tuesday evening, December 25. Everybody is cordially invited. The residence and barn of Clyde Dutrow, east of Centre Hall, was wired for electric light by Messrs. C. W. Boozer and Clymer McClenahan. To stimulate Winter Egg production feed Beef Scras. Fresh stock just received, $5.00 per hundred.—Chas. D. Bartholomew, Centre Hall, Pa. The next Lecture Course entertainer will appear on Saturday evening, January 12, 1918. Mildred Warnock, a reader, will be the attraction. The regular preaching service in the local Reformed church, next Sunday morning, will be dispensed with on account of the Christmas service in the evening. Come along now with your small savings and let Uncle Sam have them in exchange for thrift stamps and saving certificates. See your local postmaster. James Keller, of Centre Hall, and Peeler Rosemar, of Spring Mills, both students at Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, are home for the Christmas vacation. During last week the roads over which the rural mail carriers passed from this office, were rated in worse condition than at any time during the service of the carriers. Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Jacobs, of Steubenville, Ohio, are expected in Centre Hall the latter part of the week to spend the Christmas season at the home of the former's mother. I need lots of poultry now. Use Leg Bands to mark your Pullets. Sell your cull stock. Anything in the Poultry line. Both phones.—Chas. D. Bartholomew, Centre Hall, Pa. The increased milk flow, the improved condition of your stock, and the ease of handling—Larro Feed is the cheapest feed or combination of feeds on the market. R. D. Foreman, adv. Chester Johnson, of Pine Grove Mills, is suffering from a gun shot wound in his foot, caused by the accidental discharge of his gun while walking through the street of his home town. The school children in the borough schools will have all next week to enjoy the Christmas season away from reading, writing and arithmetic. There will be school, however, on New Year's Day. The best Christmas gift you can give the editor (and it will be much appreciated one) is a renewal of your subscription to the Reporter. In this case we will say, "Do your Christmas giving early". H. F. Muser, one of the Potter township auditors, placed the "copy" of the financial statement of the township with this office a few days ago. The statement will appear in the next issue of the Reporter. The latter part of last week William H. Kuhn returned from a visit to Jersey Shore, where he had lived for a number of years. He witnessed the great fire, having lodged near to the building where the fire originated. Many farmers are nearly out of water and for the past week or more have been hauling it in barrels and tanks. The foot of snow on the ground at the present time reduced to water would certainly relieve the situation. J. H. Puff received a short message from his son, Leroy Puff, from Buffalo, New York, last week, the young man having just arrived there from a season of training in the telegraphers corps at Rockford, Illinois. The indications were that he, with others, would soon set sail for France. A boiler on a saw mill located near Marthe, on the Heaton tract, carrying eighty pounds of steam exploded and completely wrecked the mill. The boiler landed over one hundred feet away from its foundation. One man, Charles Miller, the fireman, was injured. He had his ankle broken. Dr. G. W. Hosterman expects to leave on Christmas day for Lancaster, where will be spending the balance of the week with his son, S. V. Hosterman, Esq., and family. Prof. J. S. Hosterman and family, of Danbury, Conn., also expect to be at the Hosterman home in Lancaster at this time.

The pink label this week. Take a look at it. Larro Feed—the more-milk feed that's guaranteed. Car just in.—R. D. Foreman. adv. Wanted—Turkeys, Geese, Ducks and Chickens.—Chas. D. Bartholomew, Centre Hall, Pa. John Coldren, one of the Standard employes at Burnham, is home as the result of the works closing down for want of fuel. Kindly attend to that matter of renewing your subscription before January 1st shows up. Your label should show an eight (8). Does it? Mrs. W. E. Mingle will leave this (Thursday) for Philadelphia to spend the winter with her son, W. Gross Mingle, and other relatives in that city. Harry Durst, of Reedsville, brother of Mrs. H. W. Harper, of Centre Hall, is among those who will make up Mifflin county's quota for the first draft. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Magee and two sons—Huyett and William—of Wendenham, New Jersey, are expected at the Huyett home the latter part of this week to remain over the Yuletide season. Miss Esther Bitner, teacher of the Colyer school, has arranged a Christmas entertainment to be given by her scholars in the school building this (Thursday) evening. The school patrons are cordially invited to be present. The Standard steel works at Burnham have temporarily suspended operations on account of coal being delayed in shipment because of the general tie-up of railroad transportation. About thirty-four carloads of coal are required every twenty-four hours for the operation of the plant. Among the enlistments in the U. S. Army service in which the Reporter readers will be interested is that of William Wolfe, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Witmer Wolf, of Ardmore, who volunteered to serve in a medical corps, in the surgical instrument department. He is expected to sail for France on the 15th inst. He scored one hundred per cent. in physical examination. About the same time he enlisted, the engagement of Miss Edith Taylor, of Ardmore, to the young soldier, was announced.

BOALSBURG.
David Stuart, of Ingram, was a recent visitor with his mother, Mrs. Emma Stuart. A great many people are taking advantage of the fine ice, by filling their ice houses. A. W. Dale and daughter Cathryn spent Thursday of last week at Bellefonte. Oscar Rishel, who has spent several months in Akron, Ohio, returned to his home here. Mr. and Mrs. Huston Shney and two children moved to State College last Wednesday. Cyril Zechman, of Selingsgrove, came to his home here last week where he will spend his Christmas vacation. Mrs. Charles Segner spent several days last week with relatives at Carlisle. Mrs. J. P. Wagner and niece, Helen Meyer, of Altoona, spent several days last week at the home of the former's father, D. W. Meyer. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Weber, of Huntingdon, J. H. Weber, of Centre Hall, and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gettig, of Altoona, attended the funeral of J. H. Meyer. Among the Bellefonte visitors from Boalsburg on Monday were: Rev. and Mrs. S. C. Stover, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Keller, Mrs. L. E. Kidder and daughter Mary. The Lutheran Sunday school will hold their Christmas entertainment on Sunday evening, December 23, at 7:30 o'clock. The Reformed Sunday school will hold their Christmas entertainment Tuesday evening, December 25. At the July meeting of the Civic Club the chairman of the conservation committee made a request that each member dry five pounds or less of fruit, corn or beans, the same to be sent to the Red Cross secretary for the proper distribution. Any person, whether member of the Civic Club or not, desiring to contribute to this worthy cause, may leave their contributions at the home of Mrs. Owen Mothersbaugh before January 1st, 1918. The Modoc Gun and Rod Club, from Boalsburg, returned to their homes on Friday from their annual hunting trip, with the limit of deer. The lucky ninerods were: D. W. Meyer, 4-point buck; Robert McCree, 4-point buck; Phillip Holter, 4-point buck; Robert C. Bailey, 4-point buck; John Hess, 2-point buck; Samuel Hess, spike buck. The remainder of the party are: H. C. Bailey, J. B. Krebs, W. J. Bloom, A. M. Lauver, J. D. Moyer, John Mokol, Wayne Keller, and Frank Bailey. The president of the club is D. W. Meyer and the secretary is H. C. Bailey. Beside the luck these hunters had they also had a fine outing and a trip never to be forgotten. The dairy feed that is just right—the Larro Feed. Car just in. R. D. Foreman, adv.

NOTICE FROM LOCAL DRAFT BOARD.

Sheriff Yarnell Calls Attention of Public and Registrants to Matter Relating to Questionnaire. Any person desiring to claim a deferred classification by either Local or District Board on any ground in respect of any registrant designated herein may, within seven days from the date thereof, and not later, submit such claims to this Local Board accompanied by such affidavit evidence as such person may desire to have considered. Such claims either by a registrant or by another in respect of any registrant may be submitted either by entering the same in the place provided on the first sheet of the registrant's questionnaire or by submitting such claim to this board on a duplicate of such first sheet (1001—A). If it is desired to submit affidavit evidence in support of such claim and in addition to the evidence contained in the registrant's questionnaire, such affidavits must be prepared on paper of the same size as the questionnaire, and should be responsive to the questions asked the registrant respecting the ground of such claim in the pertinent division of the questionnaire. Section 7 of Selective Services Regulations provides: The process of examination and selection of registrants, under these rules and regulations, shall begin by the posting of notice in the offices of the Local Boards on Form 1002, and by mailing a questionnaire (Form 1001) to every registrant included within such posted notice, as provided in section 92 hereof; and notice every subsequent action taken by either the Local or District Board in respect of each registrant shall be given by entering a minute or date of such action on the office to the Local Board, and in addition to such entries, by mailing to the registrant, and in some cases to other claimants, a notice of such action. Whenever a duty is to be performed or a period of time begins to run within which any duty is to be performed by any such registrant, or within which any right or privilege may be claimed or exercised by or in respect of any such registrant, a notice of the day upon which such duty is to be performed, or such time begins to run, shall be mailed to the registrant, and the date of such mailing of notice shall be entered opposite the name of such registrant on the classification list (Form 1000), which is always open to inspection by the public at the office of the Local Board. In addition to the mailing of such notice to registrants, notice of the disposition of claims made by other persons in respect of registrants shall be mailed to such other persons. Either the mailing of such notice of the entry of such date in the classification list shall constitute the giving of notice to the registrant and to all concerned, and shall charge the registrant and all concerned with notice of the day upon which such duty is to be performed or the beginning of the running of the time within which such duty must be performed or such right or privilege may be claimed, regardless of whether or not a mailed notice or questionnaire is actually received by the registrant or other person. Failure of any registrant to perform any duty prescribed by the selective Service Law or by these Rules and Regulations, at or within the time required, is a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment of one year, and may result in loss of valuable rights and immediate induction of such registrant into military service. Failure of the registrant or any person concerned to claim and exercise any right or privilege on the day or within the time authorized by these rules and regulations shall be considered a waiver of such right or privilege, and shall forfeit such person from thereafter claiming the same, subject only to the privileges granted by these rules and regulations to apply for an extension of time. GEO. H. YARNELL, Member of Local Board. December 16, 1917.
