CENTRE HALL, PA., THURSDAY, JANUARY 3, 1918.

NO. 1

GET READY FOR INCOME TAX.

Single Men With $1000 Income and Married Men With $2000 Income, Must Meet Officer at Bellefonte in February.

It will require a small army of men to take the income tax returns of persons subject to the new law. Collector of Internal Revenue Kirkendall announced that last week forty officers will start from his headquarters on January 1st and on January 2 every one of them will be on the job in the county assigned them, to meet the people and help them make out their income tax returns. The officer assigned to Centre county is due to arrive here on February 1st and to remain until February 16th, both dates inclusive. He will have his office in the Court House in Bellefonte, where he will be found every day of the dates stated.

It will be well for every unmarried person whose net income for 1917 is $1,000 or over, and every married person living with wife or husband whose net income for 1917 is $2,000 or over, to call on the income tax man and learn whether or not they have any tax to pay. Collector Kirkendall said today: "The person subject to tax who does not return in the time prescribed is going to regret it. The Government will get after all income tax slackers."

There's hardly a business man, merchant, or professional man who won't have to make return of income. Farmers, as a class, will have to pay the tax. The safe thing to do is for every person who had a total income of $1,000 or $2,000 as the case may be and who is not sure about what deductions the law allows him, to play safe by calling on the income tax man.

"The man in the field will have forms for everybody and persons who expect to call on him need not trouble themselves to write to my office for forms."

To Enforce New Dog Law.

Every dog in every township, borough and third class city of Pennsylvania will have to be licensed and kept under restrictions laid down in the new dog law which becomes effective on January 15 and which will be vigorously enforced by county commissioners, Secretary of Agriculture Charles E. Patton, and police officers. The new law which is expected to prove a big factor in the increase of sheep and other livestock in the State provides that the owners of all dogs over 6 months of age must obtain license from the county treasurer or justice of the peace, and the metal license tag must be worn by the dog at all times. Night straying is prohibited and the owners of dogs must between sunset and sunrise, keep all dogs confined or attached to chain or under reasonable control. It is unlawful for any person to harbor or keep about his premises any unlicensed dog.

Any person may kill any dog which he sees in the act of pursuing, worrying or wounding any livestock, or attacking human beings whether or not such dogs bear the proper license tag required by provisions. There shall be no liability on such persons in damages or otherwise for such killing. Any unlicensed dog that enters any field shall constitute a private nuisance and the owner or tenant of such field or their agent or servant may kill such dog while it is in the field without liability or responsibility of any nature for such killing.

It shall be the duty of every police officer to seize and detain any dog or dogs which bear a proper license tag and which are found running at large and unaccompanied by its owner or keeper. The owner of a dog so detained shall be notified to claim such dog within ten days, and shall pay all reasonable expense incurred by reason of its detention before the dog is returned. If, after ten days from the giving of such notice such dog has not been claimed, such chief of police or his agent, constable or high constable shall dispose of such dog by sale, or by destruction in some humane manner. It shall be the duty of every police officer to kill every dog which does not bear a proper license tag. For failure to perform his duty under the provisions of this act, such police officer shall be liable to a penalty of $200 for each offense. For the performance of this duty he shall be paid the sum of $100 for detaining a license dog and the sum of $100 for killing a dog.

Whenever any person sustains any loss or damage to any livestock or poultry by dogs or any livestock of any person is necessarily destroyed because of having been bitten by such dog, complaint for damages should be made in writing to the township auditor or to any justice of the peace, magistrate, alderman of the township, town, borough or city. On establishment of such claim as provided for by this law, payment shall be made from the county funds to the proper person. If the owner of the dog or dogs doing the

PROF. HECKMAN RESIGNS PRINCIPALSHIP OF SCHOOLS.

Leaves Centre Hall to Accept State College High School Position.—Prof. C. R. Neff to Finish the Term.

Following the close of school Friday preceding the Christmas vacation season, Prof. W. O. Heckman resigned the principalship of the Centre Hall borough schools. Prof. Heckman had been tendered the position of principal of the State College High School, made vacant through the resignation of Prof. W. Grier Briner, and his request to be released from his contract with the local school board was granted at a special meeting of the board held on Friday evening. The State College proposition will pay Mr. Heckman $1500 for a nine months' term of school. The financial advantage accruing from the acceptance of the offer, while a big factor itself, is not of so great importance as the prestige Mr. Heckman will gain through teaching a high school of the State College class. It is regarded as a stepping stone to better and greater things for the ambitious young school teacher and only the best wishes of his friends go with him.

Prof. Heckman was teaching his third term in the local high school and was meeting with signal success. His graduating classes were proof positive of this success. He was respected by patrons and scholars alike, and as an indication of the esteem in which he was held by his scholars, he was presented with a gold coin by them on the day which terminated his teaching here.

Prof. Heckman moved his family to State College last Thursday and began his school work there on January 1st.

PROF. NEFF WILL FINISH TERM.

Following Prof. Heckman's resignation the school board elected John W. Corman, of Spring Mills, to complete the term, but a few days later the board received word from Mr. Corman of his inability to take the school owing to plans miscarrying on the management of the home farm.

This left the board in a dilemma. After casting about without success, Prof. C. R. Neff was impromptu, and finally decided to leave the farm for the school room to complete the term. At a special meeting of the school board on Tuesday evening Prof. Neff was elected at a salary of $125.00 a month.

Miss Fisher's Engagement Announced.

A very pleasant social event took place last Thursday evening at the home of Miss Lola M. Ulrich, at Penn Hall, leader of the Y. W. C. A., when she tendered a Christmas party to her club—Penn Hall and Spring Mills. The evening was spent in games and contests, prizes being awarded the winners of the contests. At an appropriate hour the guests were invited to the dining room where a beautifully decorated table awaited them; the color scheme carried out being pink and white. During the serving of the different courses the engagement of Miss Sara L. Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Fleher, of Penn Hall, to E. Roy Corman, of Spring Mills, was announced.

The town of Osceola, near Phillipsburg, was visited by the third fire in as many months, last week, and all have resulted in great property loss. The latest conflagration wiped out the Odd Fellows' building and two residences. The fire originated in the Odd Fellows' building and is thought to have been the work of an incendiary. The total loss was fully $35,000, with insurance to an extent of nearly half that sum.

damage be known, it shall be the duty of the county commissioner to notify such owner to kill said dog or dogs immediately. If said dog or dogs be killed by owner he shall be exempt from all further liabilities. Upon failure to kill said dog or dogs he shall be liable for the damages caused by the said dog or dogs.

The enforcement of this law lies with the Secretary of Agriculture, county commissioner and police officers. The term police officer shall mean any person employed or elected by this Commonwealth, or by a municipality, county or township and whose duty it is to preserve peace or to make arrest or to enforce the law. The term includes, game, fish and forest wardens.

Any person violating or failing or refusing to comply with any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding $100.00 or to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding three months, at the discretion of the court. Any complaint of failure to enforce the law should be made to the county commissioner and to the Secretary of Agriculture.

LETTERS FROM FRANCE.

Boyd Smith, of Potters Mills, Writes from Within Forty Miles of French Front.

The following is a portion of a letter received from Boyd Smith by his father, Emanuel Smith, at Potters Mills, which will be of interest to many of the Reporter's readers. The letter bears the date of Nov. 27.

Your letter was certainly appreciated and was the first mail received since my arrival in France a month ago. It is beginning to seem like home; we have our bunk-houses up and eat tables. The food is good and the supply sufficient. On Thanksgiving we are to have turkey and geese served us. That is not so bad for being in the land of war and famine.

You asked me where we were located but I cannot give the location, except to say that we are about forty miles from the front. Some of the boys go to (name of city or town erased by censor). I expect to see some of the sights and buy some relics when I get my furlough.

You asked in your letter what I had to do. Well, all I have to do is to get out of bed at 5:50; breakfast, after that we stand reveille, then go to work on the road to noon; dinner; go to work at one o'clock and quit at 5:30, supper. In other words, we sleep, eat and work. I can work and sing now, so you see I have improved in spirit since my last letter to you.

I took out a $5000 life insurance policy in your favor.

We are well above the sea-level here, and the climate is a much like that at home. We have had plenty of rain and about one inch of snow, but I don't believe it is quite as cold here as at home, so it is just cold enough to work.

Write often and tell the rest to write too.

Your son,

Editor Reporter:

My first week in the National Army proved very interesting. So far I have had the occasion to act in the capacity of drill master, insurance agent, physical director, school teacher, instructor, Bible class teacher and big brother for the men, and a great life it is. Yesterday I was out for holly and mistletoe, and while in the woods I picked a quart of nice huckleberries for evening mess.

Am awfully busy, but like the work. With best wishes, I am,

Your,
WED KELLER.

Some Below-Zero Weather.

Although the present winter season has practically only begun, it has already established for itself a record for below-zero weather that is greater than last year's record for the entire season. While last winter gained a reputation for being a solid winter, only on three occasions did mercury drop below zero and then only for three degrees. On January 27 one below zero was recorded and during February only twice did mercury drop below the 0 mark, and at neither time did it go farther than three below. December, 1917, saw five days of below-zero weather, according to the official thermometer in charge of the Reporter. Saturday night, last, was the coldest during the month, eleven degrees below zero being recorded. Sunday night mercury dropped to six below, and on three other nights fell to one below.

Boys Flew Rocket.

Wallace Horner, son of George Horner, purchased the meat market at Pleasant Gap from Clayton Gettler, taking possession on New Year's day. Mr. and Mrs. Horner for the past year lived at McKeesport, but are now located at their new residence. Mr. Horner is a practical butcher and will undoubtedly prove a success in his venture.

Burns $200 and Is Jailed.

Joe Carlo, a young Italian living in the Lewisburg Narrows, burned up ten $20 gold bonds the day before Christmas, because, he said, "A man is better off without money if he can't spend it having a good time." To show his friends that he meant business he held them off with a brace of guns in real wild west style while he applied the match to the yellow bonds. He is now lodged in the Mifflin county jail.

Back to the Simple Life.

"Go back to the simple life, be contented with simple food, simple pleasures, simple clothes. Work hard, pray hard, play hard. Work, eat, rest and sleep. Do it courageously. We have a victory to win."—Hoover.

DEATHS.

Mrs. Lizzie A. Gingerich, wife of Samuel Gingerich, passed to the great beyond, Friday afternoon preceding Christmas, at her home west of Centre Hall, after a prolonged illness of droopy and heart trouble. On that day she appeared apparently in better health than for some time, and enjoyed several hearty meals. Mr. Gingerich was assisting a neighbor at work and shortly after the noon hour felt positive that he heard his name called from the direction of his home; some distance away. Although none other appeared to have heard the call, Mr. Gingerich, filled with apprehension, hastened to his home and inquired of his wife whether she had called. Her response was, "No," and a few moments later life departed from her.

Deceased was the daughter of Henry and Rebecca Houtz and was born in Harris township, March 31, 1867, making her age fifty years, eight months and twenty-one days. Her marriage to Mr. Gingerich occurred November 8, 1891. One child was born to their union, having died in infancy. The husband and the following brothers and sisters survive: Mrs. Ellen Ross, Mrs. Lillie Houser, of Linden Hall; Mrs. Ed. Cunningham, of Bellefonte; George H. Houtz, of Toledo, Ohio, and Elmer E. Houtz, of Boalsburg. Mrs. Gingerich was a faithful member of the Lutheran church at Centre Hall and was an active worker, while health permitted, in its various endeavors. She was of a most kindly nature and a host of sorrowing friends attest to her Christian life.

Funeral services were held in the Lutheran church on the day before Christmas, Rev. D. S. Kurtz, her pastor, officiating. Burial followed in the local cemetery.

Mrs. Rachel Amelia (Bozzer) Deitzel, widow of John Deitzel, died at her home near Tusseyville, on the 18th ult., of infirmities incident to old age. She was born in Heilborn, Germany, September 14, 1832, hence was aged eighty-five years, three months and four days. Her parents died when she was a child, and at the age of fourteen she came to this country and settled in Philadelphia, where she met and married John Deitzel, about sixty-five years ago. After a few years they came to Centre county, locating at Pleasant Gap where they conducted a general store, going from there to Tusseyville where she lived on what is now the old homestead, for fifty-three years. Her husband died seventeen years ago.

Surviving her are the following children: Josephine and Mrs. George A. Eberhart, of Bellefonte; Mrs. George S. Markel, of Jeannette; Rev. S. H., pastor of the Reformed church at Pleasant Unity; and Mrs. Sadie Neff, at home. Also fourteen grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Deceased was a member of the Reformed church at Tusseyville, in which the funeral services were held Saturday morning, burial being made in the adjoining cemetery, Rev. R. R. Jones officiating. All the children were present at the funeral.

George E. Greninger died at his home in Rebersburg on Monday, December 24, following a week's illness with pneumonia. For a number of years he was engaged in farming in Stephenson county, Illinois, his wife, who was Hattie Hess, being a native of Orangeville, the same state. In 1914 Mr. Greninger moved back to Rebersburg, his native town. His parents are dead, but his wife and four children survive; namely, Edna, Paul and Blanche, aged respectively six, four and two years. The following brothers and sisters are also left: E. McClellan, of Freeport, Ill.; Edward T., of Rebersburg; Mrs. George Winkler, of Aaronsburg; Mrs. John Grader, of Spring Mills, and Mrs. George Wise, of Rebersburg.

Florence, the six month old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Swab, of near Colyer, died on Christmas day and was buried on Thursday, interment being made in the Zion cemetery, near Tusseyville.

Wrote to Death.

George Nichell, aged eighty-four years, was found in the woods near Hartleton on Sunday afternoon preceding Christmas, having frozen to death. He was a salesman and it was while making a trip about in that locality that he wandered over the snowy fields and roads and apparently became lost.

Thomas Fanning, said to be from Bellefonte, performed a series of diodes that will likely land him in the Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, prison. The Freeport (Ill.) Bulletin states that Fanning's latest offense was to desert the new National Army. He had been located at Camp Grant, Rockford, Illinois. He was captured near Freeport. He claims to have served under Carranza and fought against Villa. He is only twenty-one years old.

In an extended article in the Freeport Daily Journal-Standard, J. M. Stiffler, the practical farmer and writer on agriculture, heartily endorses the county farm agent movement. He states that about 27,000 counties throughout the United States have organized for cooperative extension work in agriculture and home economics, and less than 3 per cent. of all the organizations established have abandoned the project. Mr. Stiffler lauds Potter township produce, and one who has been successful in farming and accumulating wealth.
