DEATHS.

Mrs. Rebecca Kreamer died of old age at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sara Hunter, of Newton Hamilton. She was born in Boalsburg, July twenty-sixth, 1836, and died March twenty-sixth, 1918, making her age ninety-one years and eight months. She is survived by three children, Mrs. S. C. Hunter, of Newton Hamilton; Mrs. Mary J. Kennedy, of Philadelphia, and Andrew Kreamer, of Altoona. Also by eighteen grandchildren, two great, great grandchildren, and one brother, Calvin Riley, of Newton Hamilton.

Mrs. Kreamer was a life long member of the Presbyterian church. She was also a survivor of the Johnstown flood. Funeral services were held at the home in Newton Hamilton at 7:30 Thursday evening, of last week, in charge of Rev. Boardman, of the Presbyterian church, assisted by Rev. A. P. of the Methodist church. Burial was made at Boalsburg Friday afternoon, services in charge of Rev. Barber.

Amos Alexander, a well-known citizen of Milroy, died Tuesday morning of last week of tubercular meningitis of the brain, from which he had been a sufferer for some time. Mr. Alexander was born in Spring Mills, April 21, 1860, and moved to Milroy about fourteen years ago. He was preceded to the grave by his wife about three years. He is survived by eight children as follows: Mrs. Sumner (Lizzie) Eisenbuth, of Woodward; Mrs. George (Elsie) Holbrook, near Milroy; Mrs. George (Mary) Curry, of Yeagerstown; James, of Burnham; Mrs. Frank (Nellie) Shirk, of Reedsville; Mrs. Robert (Emma) Harmon, of Milroy; Clara at home and Robert who is enlisted in the aviation service and stationed at San Antonio, Texas. Funeral services were held at his late home Friday at 10 o'clock, interment at Woodlawn.

Perry D. Winters died at his home in Smulton, on Friday, of a complication of diseases, aged sixty-nine years. Burial was made Tuesday morning in the Union cemetery at Rebersburg, services having first been held in the Lutheran church and conducted by Rev. W. H. Williams, of Spring Mills. The widow, four sons and one daughter, as well as three brothers, survive.

The following death notice appeared in a newspaper published at Greenspring, Ohio, and dated Thursday, March 14th. The decedant was born and raised in Centre county, and has several sisters and brothers living in this county:

Mr. Scott Stonebraker, aged seventy years and five months, was found dead in his residence on East Adams street Friday morning. He had not been seen since Wednesday evening and his sister-in-law, Mrs. David Stoner, went to see him and found him on the floor cold in death. It is thought that he had been dead since Wednesday evening as he had not been seen and his bed had not been disturbed, also the snow on the steps showed he had not been out of the house.

Coroner McConnell held an investigation and announces death from apoplexy. He had been living alone for some time as Mrs. Stonebraker had been dead for nearly twenty-four years.

He was born in Pennsylvania and came to Greenspring in the year of 1877 and lived here since. He was united in marriage in 1880 to Mary Emmaline Stoner. Two step-daughters, Mrs. Jennie Steward and Mrs. Anna Knappenberge, and two step-sons, John and David Stoner, survive. He was a member of the K. O. T. M. lodge for forty years, and the order conducted the services at the grave.

Services were held at the U. R. church Sunday afternoon by Rev. E. J. Haldeman. Burial in Greenspring cemetery.

Miss Mabel Corman died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Corman, in Millheim, on Wednesday morning of last week, following an illness of some years with Bright's disease. She was born in Millheim and was thirty-seven years and two months old. She was a member of the Reformed church for a number of years.

In addition to her parents she is survived by the following brothers and sisters: C. F. and E. E. Corman, of Duquesne; O. V. U. S. soldier, in France; Robert, in training at Camp Sherman, Ohio; Haven F., of Youngstown, Ohio; Mrs. Verna Catherman and Mrs. Stella Catherman, both of Millheim. The funeral was on Saturday morning. Rev. W. D. Donat officiated, and burial made in the Fairview cemetery, Millheim.

Cowden Sankey, a native of Centre county and a veteran of the Civil war, died at the soldiers' home in Washington, D. C., on Thursday, 21st ult., following a prolonged illness with Bright's disease. He was a son of Thomas and Janet Sankey, and was born in Georges valley on November 28th, 1845. He served with bravery and distinction throughout the Civil war. He entered the soldiers' home about twenty years ago. He never married and his only survivor is one sister, Mrs. William Bell, of Bellefonte. The funeral was held on Monday, the old veteran being buried with military honors in the national cemetery with the home.

After suffering with tuberculosis for some time, Amelia, wife of John D. Snyder, died at her home at Woodward, Thursday morning. She is survived by her husband and the following children: Porter, of Dubois; Fred, of Milton, and Freeman, at home. Also by her father, one sister, several brothers, and one grandson. Funeral services Sunday afternoon in the Evangelical Association church, conducted by Rev. H. P. Maneval.

W. S. Maillet Wins Promotions.

After a number of years as Local Manager of the Bell Telephone Company in Centre county, W. S. Maillet has been appointed Local Manager at Williamsport. The many friends of Mr. Maillet will feel sorry to see him go and yet his increased duties and larger field, it is felt, is in the way of his reward for his efficiency and excellence in system and accomplishments of the Bell-telephone office. He is the son of Rev. Richard Maillet, of 1104 Elmira Street, Williamsport. Mr. Maillet was graduated from the Williamsport Dickinson Seminary in 1901. He entered the employ of the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania as clerk in the office at Williamsport, advancing to salesman at Ridge-way and Local Manager at Bellefonte and now Local Manager at Williamsport.

C. W. Hellbecker, of Lock Haven, succeeds Mr. Maillet as manager of the Centre county territory.
