THIN BOARDER HAS GOOD ONE

Before Reading This, Just What Is the Difference Between an Elephant and a Microbe? "I've got one for you this mornin'," said the thin boarder, tucking his paper napkin under his chin, as he approached his mentless-wheatless breakfast. "What's the difference between an elephant and a microbe?" "Shoot it!" said the soldier on fur-rough. "Shoot yourself," replied the thin one. "A ton and a half," suggested the hotel clerk with a rose in his button-hole. "Won't do," came from the conundrum propounder. "One's found in his lair and the other in the air," ventured the lady schoolteacher. "Guess again," was skinny's dare. "One comes to you when you want it, and the other comes to you when you don't," said the bank clerk. "Aweful!" was the emaciated one's rejoinder. "Well, dope it out," came from the tired group. "One carries a trunk and the other the grip,"—Yonkers Statesman. Probably Cold. Germline—Why didn't you enlist? Germline—I had trouble with my feet. Germline—Flat or cold?—Judge. Just because a man is all right today it isn't a safe bet that he will be all wrong tomorrow.

WAR AND YOUR DUTY

Our Boys "Over There" Need Every Assistance.

Subscriptions to Liberty Loan, Investment in Thrift Stamps, Contributions of Clothing, Conservation of Food Necessary to Win.

(By GELETT BURGESS of the Vigilantes and the Prophet Isaiah.) Yes, I, too, saw them, many I saw. Indoors and out, at the theater and at the rink, knitting, oh no, not khaki gray, but the gay colors of frivolity, knitting pink and yellow and white; knitting sweaters, sweaters, God help them, for their own soft shoulders. Yet in the trenches of France our soldiers are shivering, shivering, freezing for gray, gray, GRAY! And thou saidst, I shall be a lady for ever; so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, neither didst remember the latter end of it. Waste makes want and want makes woe! Does not England already know? It has gone from Spend to Save, from Scrip to Starve. Do you know, oh careless daughters, that there even the garbage cans are inspected for waste?—that one is fined for throwing away a slice of bread? Yet here often more food is wasted at one dinner than would feed a family. Yes, wasted today—but what of tomorrow? Upon the land of my people shall come up thorns and briars; yea, upon all the houses of joy in the joyous city. Ice cream sodas and cakes and confectonery, hats, bachel and hostlers—do you, too, watch and wonder how the young girls ring away the future? Yet, still unlearned for the orphans of France and Belgium, Serbia, thousands wait suffering to be fed. And OUR orphans—when the great shock falls—shall they, to, not need all that we can save? Therefore hear now this, thou that art given to pleasure, that dwellest carelessly, that sayest in thine heart, I am, and none else beside me; I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children. It is so easy to do—to save. It is so hard to do—to supply what prodigality has squandered. It is so simple to do—to lend what we save to the government that our neighbor's fate may be averted or diminished. Now, now, NOW! Must our sugar, male and female have to go to the ant to take heed—to comprehend how, if each lays up grains of provision against want, the whole hill shall be saved? Many days and years shall ye be troubled, and ye careless women! for the vintage shall fall, the gathering shall not come. Every cent selfishly, thoughtlessly spent, robs sufferers abroad, robs our soldiers, robs our own future. Every cent patriotically lent to Thrift Campaign or Liberty Loan, brings peace nearer—nearer! Rise up, ye women that are at ease; hear my voice, ye careless daughters; give ear unto my speech. WE MUST HANG TOGETHER (By THEODOSSIA GARRISON of the Vigilantes.) Said Benjamin Franklin of Pennsylvania, putting down the pen with which he had just signed the Declaration of Independence: "Gentlemen, we must all hang together or assuredly we shall all hang separately." In a single phrase he combined an epigram, a warning, a declaration of faith and, incidentally, framed a motto for the present generation. The value of team work for the national good is unquestioned; the value of the individual beyond the share he contributes to the general power is negligible. This undenied fact, acknowledged by everybody and more often quoted than applied, waited to be demonstrated in its entirety by the Imperial German government, who, after its fashion, lost no time in claiming it as a personal discovery, marking it with the "Made in Germany" stamp and promptly christening it "efficiency." Mind you, it is the German government that has made its people efficient, and that by the simple and direct method of the brutal overseer who lashed a gang of slaves into the perfect workmen that produced the 100 per cent result he desired. The individual who with all his heart wishes a certain thing accomplished doesn't have to be whipped into his work, and the difference between slavery and freedom, between autocracy and democracy, lies in that individual himself. "The nation," says President Wilson, "needs all men, but it needs each man, not in the field that will most pleasure him, but in the endeavor that will best serve the common good." Chinese Signal. The Chinese do not beckon, as we do, with the palm of the hand turned up, the fingers curled and the index finger successively bending and straightening. They beckon with the fingers curled downward, sweeping the whole hand vigorously back and forth. Daily Thought. Politeness appears to have been invented to enable people who would naturally fall out, to live together in peace.

NOW RAISES 600 CHICKENS

After Being Relieved of Organic Trouble by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Oregon, Ill.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for an organic trouble which pulled me down until I could not put my foot to the floor and could scarcely do my work, and as I live on a small farm and raise six hundred chickens every year it made it very hard for me. 'I saw the Compound advertised in our paper, and tried it. It has restored my health so I can do all my work and give it to my friends.'—Mrs. D. M. ALTERS, R. R. 4, Oregon, Ill. Only women who have suffered the tortures of such troubles and have dragged along from day to day can realize the relief which this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, brought to Mrs. Alters. Women everywhere in Mrs. Alters' condition should profit by her recommendation, and if there are any complications write Lydia E. Pinkham's Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice. The result of their 40 years experience is at your service.

Strength Gave Out

Mrs. Schmitt Was Miserable From Kidney Trouble Until Doan's Came to Her Assistance. Now Well.

"My kidneys gave out during the change of life," says Mrs. Margaretha Schmitt, 63 Alabama Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y. "My back ached and pained as if it were broken. When I moved in bed, sharp, darting pains caught me across my back and I couldn't turn. Mornings I was stiff and sore and it felt as if heavy weights were tied to me. I was so worn-out I often fell after meals, near fainting from dizziness and flashes of fire would come before my eyes, blinding me. 'I had the most severe headaches and my kidneys didn't act regularly. The secretions passed too often and caused much distress. I was hardly able to do my housework and just to walk upstairs took all my strength. 'As soon as I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills, I improved and six boxes put me in better health than I had enjoyed for years.' Mrs. Schmitt gave the foregoing statement in 1916 and on April 6, 1917, she said: 'My cure has been permanent. I keep Doan's on hand, however, and take a few doses occasionally.'"
