

LOCALS.

Brooder stove, incubators, yearling hens, etc. for sale.—Ross Bushman. Robert Meyer, a fireman on the Pennsylv at Altoona, was home last Thursday. A carload of horses were shipped from Centre Hall on Tuesday by Mr. Homan. Unclaimed letters in the Centre Hall P.O. are: Mr. S. S. Knepley, Mr. Chas. Frederick. Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Lieb moved from Centre Hall, last week, to their farm, east of Centre Hall. H. J. Lambert proudly displayed two shad-sis stockings which he caught in Sinking creek last week. Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Garis and two children, of Luzon, are visiting this week with Mr. Garis' parents in Centre Hall. J. I. Shney, tenant on the Goodlin farm west of Centre Hall, purchased the Chevrolet car of Henry E. Homan, who invested in a larger car. Work was begun on Tuesday of the state road leading from Tusseyville to Rossburg. Charles Miller is superintending the work. The political announcement of Iva L. Harvey, of Bellefonte, for the Republican nomination for Assembly, appears in this issue. Rev. G. W. McIlroy, of Nescopeck, was among those from a distance who attended the funeral of Mrs. Margaret Bartholomew, last Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. William Relsh and child, of State College, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Relsh's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Homan. Capt. G. M. Boal left on Wednesday for Philadelphia, where he will remain for about six weeks with his daughter, Mrs. W. Grosz Mingle. The family of C. D. Bartholomew take this means to thank their neighbors and friends who showed such kindness during the family's recent bereavement. Charles B. Rimmey and family moved this week from Tusseyville to Centre Hall, into the C. W. Luse home, on Hofter Street, which Mr. Rimmey purchased. Farmers are aching for some real settled weather. For the greater part of the past week rain fell every day, more than an inch and a half being the precipitation for that time. J. William Bradford, junior member of the firm of Bradford & Son, was under the doctor's care for a few days last week, his illness resulting from the long auto trip from Detroit, Mich., which he had just completed. By direction of the State Fire Marshall and the burgesses of Centre Hall, no fire crackers or any sort of explosives will be permitted to be used in the borough of Centre Hall on July Fourth.—G. H. Emerick, Burgess. Messrs. C. J. Jackson, R. H. Held and R. S. Shreck, all of Loganton, were in Centre Hall last Thursday making arrangements for holding the play "Women in Women", the Red Cross benefit entertainment, in Grange hall, to-morrow (Friday). A 22-horse power White gasoline engine is being installed by Clayton Wagner in his stone crushing plant. Power was formerly furnished by the planing mill near by, but since it was closed out, Mr. Wagner was obliged to suspend operations. After the new engine is installed, the plant will be operated to a larger extent than heretofore.

REBERSBURG

Lee Kilder, of Burnham, spent Sunday at this place with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Fulmer. Jacob Gebart has the painters employed at painting the outside of his dwelling house in west Rebersburg. Clark Gramley has the carpenters at work roofing his house. Mrs. Rholl, widow of the late Henry Rholl, is seriously ill at this writing. Sidney Krumrine is having repair work done at the new home he bought from Frank Wate. Adam Wolf, the past week, had the carpenters at work building a large porch along the front and west side of his house. Mrs. Abbie Gape, of Nebraska, spent part of the past week at this place with her sister, Mrs. Fred Fehl. Bruce Weber and two children, of Snydertown, spent last Saturday and Sunday at Smulton with Mr. Weber's parents. Wallace Dobler is making preparations to build an addition to his barn. Mr. Swope will in the near future move to Zion. Mrs. Elias Breon is at present making her home in this town with her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Long.

Letter From Washington State.

The following letter, received from Harry W. Potter, son of J. T. Potter, of Centre Hall, tells of a patriotic organization which has recently sprung up in the far west, known as the Loyal Legion of Loggers and Lumbermen. The organization is as loyal to Uncle Sam as its title is alliterative. Mr. Potter has long been connected with lumbering in the state of Washington. The above organization is directing its energies to the fullest production of logs and lumber for the construction of army airplanes and ships. It also pledges to stamp out sedition and acts of hostility against the U. S. government, and his letter tells how a certain hotbed of I. W. W. was cleaned up. The letter is appended:

Edmonds, Wash., April 18, 1918. Editor Reporter: You have read meager reports in your press of the Spruce Production Division, but I am sure you do not know a great deal of the organization. An enclosing an L. L. L. L. Liberator, an L. L. L. L. Liberty Bond booster and a pledge blank. By perusing these you will have a better idea of the organization of Loyal Legion Logger-Lumbermen. All our men are receiving their old wage for ten hours for eight hours work which is about sixteen per cent above the wage scale in the bulletin; but we dare not raise above the old scale. Every camp and mill in Western Washington and Western Oregon has a local L. L. L. L. I am secretary of ours. The afternoon of April 7th I participated in a very pleasant entertainment. From the Elks Home in Everett we journeyed, using considerable over 100 automobiles, all patriotically decorated, over a twenty mile stretch of concrete road to Arlington, a town about the size of Centre Hall. We took in our procession about 200 Elks, not including the Elk band of thirty pieces, two companies of militia and a bunch of boy scouts. There in Arlington we were joined by about four hundred Loyal Legion men, several hundred Red Cross, school children and citizens and we had a "bumdinger" of a parade for a little country and logging town; after which we had several good speeches on our country's needs and boosting Liberty Bonds. After the ceremonies some of the more enthusiastic ones made for the I. W. W. (or Wobblie as we call them) hall. It was locked and not a "Wobblie" in sight. Seemingly by magic the door was opened; you should have seen that place when the job was finished. The rubbish was taken into the street and burned. About eleven o'clock the same night the Wobblie hall in Everett was raided and smashed by masked men. The Elks sang as they marched, "Don't Bite the Hand that is Feeding You", which is for Uncle Sam's foreign children's benefit. The whole demonstration was gotten up principally as an anti-Wobblie affair, as Arlington is a hotbed of them. With best wishes to all, I am, Yours very truly, W. H. POTTER.

that capacity had much to do with the framing and passage of the Full-Crew law. In recent sessions of the Pennsylvania legislature he led the fight to prevent the repeal of the bill by railroads. Mr. Turner entered the railroad service as a crew-agent, becoming a passenger conductor on the Pittsburgh division, Pennsylvania railroad in 1901. "Joseph" Gorman, of Allentown, is a prominent business man and banker of that city. He served as a member of the Select Council of Allentown and for years has been active in Democratic politics in Lehigh county. He is a director of the Penn Counties Trust Company and has also developed hundred of acres of suburban realty near Allentown. J. Calvin Strayer, of York, is another candidate for Congress-at-large who is prominent in the business affairs of his own city. He is general manager of the firm of Strayer Bros., wholesale flour, feed, grain and coal merchants. He has been president of York Chamber of Commerce and has served as State and National President of the Patriotic Order Sons of America. "Fred T. Keler, of Bloomsburg, Columbia county, is a practicing attorney, a graduate of Lafayette College and a former member of the Pennsylvania Legislature. He has been a life-long Democrat and has served four terms as City Solicitor of Bloomsburg."

All Plants Once Wild.

It would be interesting if we could know the history of the various fruits and vegetables that we eat. Of course, all of them—or, at least, their uncultivated ancestors—were once wild; just as we, or, at least, our savage forefathers, were once wild. And, of course, the cultivated garden vegetables, many of them, bear no more resemblance to their uncultivated prototypes, some of them, than we do to the missing link or his immediate descendants. WEEKLY WAR NEWS DIGEST.

ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF LABOR SAYS WAGES DO NOT KEEP PACE WITH RISING COST OF LIVING Wage increases in the United States are not keeping pace with the advance in the cost of living, Assistant Secretary of Labor Post asserts. Figures compiled by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the Department of Labor, he says, show that while the cost of food last year increased 25 per cent for the entire country, wages rose only one-half or two-thirds of that rate. The statement issued by the Bureau of Labor Statistics showing the increased living costs throughout the United States for the year ending January 15 says: "Comparing January 15, 1918, with January 15, 1917, the price of food as a whole increased 25 per cent. All articles show decided increases with the exception of potatoes, which decreased 16 per cent. Corn meal shows the greatest price change, an increase of 77 per cent. Bacon increased 64 per cent; lard, 53 per cent; pork chops, 44 per cent; ham, 42 per cent; milk, 35 per cent; beef, 29 per cent; butter, 25 per cent; eggs, 23 per cent; bread, 19 per cent; sugar, 18 per cent; and flour, 17 per cent."

GLASS FOUND IN FOOD IN BUT ONE CASE OUT OF 200 INVESTIGATED

The frequent and widespread publication of statements concerning the presence of ground glass in foodstuffs has led the Committee on Public Information to inquire into the authenticity of these reports. It has been advised by the Food Administrator that thorough investigations of more than 200 of the cases has disclosed only one instance in which ground glass was found in the foodstuffs investigated. The case in which glass was found occurred at Fort Smith, Ark. A baker in that town had had trouble with his employees, one of whom, desiring to destroy his employer's business, had filled with glass a loaf of bread which was to be delivered to an orphanage. When the bread was served to the inmates of the institution several of them suffered lacerations of their lips. No more serious injuries resulted.

COUNCIL OF DEFENSE FAVORS SCHOOL DISTRICT ORGANIZATIONS

In a statement urging the creation of "community councils" the Council of National Defense cites these advantages of the school district as a unit of community organization: The school district is small enough to permit individual contact, and is non-political. The schoolhouse supplies a meeting place in each district, and in many schools includes domestic science, manual training, and other facilities. The school district reaches children and parents alike, and in the cities the schools, to a large extent, already in touch with the alien population. The school is an established center of information and education. The school principal or faculty provides a tried agency through whose assistance community organization can be quickly effected. The school district, with the schoolhouse as its center, is already a social community, especially in farm districts.

NEW SWINDLE TAKES MONEY FROM PARENTS OF SOLDIERS

Parents of soldiers in camps are warned by the War Department of a swindle which has been successfully operated in various camps. A telegram is sent informing that the soldier has a furlough, and requesting funds by wire to come home, waiving identification. The rest is a mere matter of detail. Parents and friends should be warned of this game and of the similar one where the telegraphic request is to mail money to the soldier, care general delivery.

A Word to the Wise.

Reverend—Our collection today, my dear brethren, is for clothing for the poor. At the same time, may I earnestly impress upon you that, though the collection is for the clothing fund, it is not necessary to contribute buttons.

A Consumer.

"You must realize that you are the ultimate consumer." "I do realize it," replied Mr. Chugnia, "every time I shove a gallon of gasoline into the tank."

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; since cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.
