Hoisting the W. S. S.
The sale of war stamps at the local post office was booted during the last three days of April by Cemetery Association, $866.00; I. O. O. F., $400; Harvey Hagen family, $365.00; Messrs. Adam C. and Emory B. Ripke, $1000.00. To this must be added the efforts of numerous smaller contributors, as well as the Boys and Girls W. S. S. and T. S. Club.

Sugar Restrictions.
The Food Administrator for Centre county, W. Fred Reynolds, authorizes, through the newspapers, retail dealers in the county to sell sugar in quantities as follows:—

- To consumers residing in towns and cities, 2 lbs. to 5 lbs.
To consumers residing in rural communities, 5 lbs. to 10 lbs.
Eighty per cent of the normal consumption is the maximum that any family should indulge in.

June 5 Registration Day for Men 21 Years of Age.
Young men who have attained the age of twenty-one years since June 5, 1917, will be compelled to register for military service on June 5 this year.

There will be a roll call of the District Chairmen, and also of the ladies and gentlemen who compose the Liberty Loan Committee. The meeting will be called promptly at two o'clock. The gentlemen above named will give the necessary instructions whereby Centre county will get in line to go "Over the Top" in the sale of War Savings and Thrift Stamps.

It is therefore absolutely necessary that the good people of Centre county attend the meeting, and become especially interested in "Pledge Week". These men will tell us how we can go "Over the Top". It can be done. Let us not be satisfied until it is done.

Nebraska by the same method has at this time received Pledges that will mean a per capita for every man, woman and child in that State of over $35.00 Centre county can do as well, and probably better.

With the sincere hope therefore that you will, without fail, attend this meeting, I am,
Very truly yours,
W. HARRISON WALKER, Chairman National War-Savings Committee for Centre County.

Walker—Houser.
Floyd Walker, of Centre Hall, and Miss Anna Mary Houser, of Linden Hall, were united in wedlock yesterday (Wednesday) afternoon at four o'clock at the Reformed parsonage in Soalsburg by the bride's pastor, Rev. S. C. Stover. The bridal couple were attended by Miss Flora Walker, sister of the groom, and Leslie Deltrich. The bride appeared charming in a dress of white crepe de chine, trimmed in white satin. County Report on W. S. S. Sales.
The report for the week ending April 20th, 1918, shows that Centre county had a per capita of twenty-two cents in the War-Savings Campaign, and that from December 1st, 1917, to April 20th our per capita is $3.16. Centre county is now ninth in the list of counties for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

I had the pleasure of attending the meeting of the County Chairmen in Philadelphia last Thursday, at which time addresses were made by ex-President William Howard Taft; National War Savings Committee Chairman Frank B. Vanderlip; State Director, Mr. Robert K. Cassett; Mr. Ward M. Burgess, State Director for Nebraska, and a number of other men from Washington, D. C., who are especially interested in our National problems.

Arrangements have been perfected whereby on Tuesday, May 7th, at two o'clock in the afternoon of that day, at the Court House, Bellefonte, Pa., a meeting will be held at which time and place we will have with us the State Director, Mr. Robert K. Cassett; and Assistant State Director, Mr. Lincoln L. Eyre; and the Director for Counties, Mr. Edwin C. Bendere. These men have active charge of the National War Savings Committee for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

They will outline fully and discuss at length what is known as the "Nebraska Plan" and also of "Pledge Week," which will commence on May 13th and end May 18th.

Your Chairman will expect a goodly number of the District Chairmen, Liberty Loan Committee and Solicitors, Secretaries of War-Savings Societies, authorized agents, post masters, ministers, school superintendents, and in fact any person who is interested in the boys at the front and those who will follow. You are therefore respectfully and urgently requested to be present at the meeting. It will be worth your while to attend the meeting. You can't afford to miss it.

There will be a roll call of the District Chairmen, and also of the ladies and gentlemen who compose the Liberty Loan Committee. The meeting will be called promptly at two o'clock. The gentlemen above named will give the necessary instructions whereby Centre county will get in line to go "Over the Top" in the sale of War Savings and Thrift Stamps.

It is therefore absolutely necessary that the good people of Centre county attend the meeting, and become especially interested in "Pledge Week". These men will tell us how we can go "Over the Top". It can be done. Let us not be satisfied until it is done.

Nebraska by the same method has at this time received Pledges that will mean a per capita for every man, woman and child in that State of over $35.00 Centre county can do as well, and probably better.

With the sincere hope therefore that you will, without fail, attend this meeting, I am,
Very truly yours,
W. HARRISON WALKER, Chairman National War-Savings Committee for Centre County.

HARRISBURG NEWS LETTER.

gence and precision. Aflable and companionable to popularity, he had the diplomacy to part with "undesirable" without giving offense. He loved to associate with our older citizens, now sleeping under the willows, and then to turn gave him wise council without stint. Ambitious, persistent, he sought the highest plane and found it. Strangest of all, his preminent success engendered no jealousy.

"Opportunity came to him and he grasped it with a Guffey grip. The tide of fortune came and he seized it at its flood. He entered the natural gas business and today stands at the head of that industry. He was recently appointed Oil Administrator of the United States by President Woodrow Wilson.

"Mr. Guffey is chairman of the Democratic Committee of Allegheny county. Here he has been fighting the alliance between Penrose and the machine built up by the liquor interests. The contest, until now, left little hope of final victory. The alliance between Penroseism and the Prussian propaganda is doomed to fall in the coming contest, for true Americanism has resolved to put an end to such unbolty coalitions in the dark. It is Mr. Guffey's purpose to gather around the nucleus thus formed by the activities of his committee, every true Democrat for an uncompromising war on Penrose and his allies.

"Joseph F. Guffey may best be remembered by our older citizens by his father, the late ex-Sheriff John Guffey. In a virile Democracy, in a detestation of compromising principle to temporary success, in refusing an alliance with political renegades, the son is true to his heritage. I mistake existing sentiment if it is not anxious to follow a leadership that rises above the plane of selfishness and self-aggrandizement to serve the popular will. Democrats and Republicans alike pray for deliverance from the obnoxious conditions that meet them at every turn.

"No informed man doubts Joseph F. Guffey's loyalty to his country nor his steadfastness to the policies of Woodrow Wilson. When the former was a student at Princeton, an attachment sprang up between dean and student which ripened into intimacy and that intimacy gathers as it goes. That which the trained eye of the teacher saw in the young man may not be disclosed to many, but no one can have an hour's social chat with Mr. Guffey and not be impressed by the depth of his patriotism, the solicitude he feels for our Nation's safety, the concern for the honor of his State through the right of her citizens to have such legislation as they deem most conducive to their social, moral and political good."
