THE DEATH RECORD.

MARKLE.—William M. Markle, a native of Harris township, died at his home in Altoona on Sunday night as the result of injuries sustained in a trolley car accident in the city of Altoona. Mr. Markle was a conductor on one of the city's trolley lines. Deceased was born east of Boalsburg, and is survived by his wife, three children, and also his mother, Mrs. Margaret Markle, who resides at the Charles Kuhn home near Boalsburg. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon and burial was made at Altoona.

CARPENETO.—Loui Carpeneto, the well-known fruit dealer of Bellefonte, dropped over dead in New York city on Friday as a result of over exertion, following a short hunting trip up the state. He had been suffering with heart trouble for the past several years. A short time ago he and his wife went to New York and the day preceding his death his wife started for their Bellefonte home. The body arrived in Bellefonte on Saturday where interment was made.

Mr. Carpeneto acquired considerable wealth from his fruit business which he conducted for a number of years in Bellefonte. He leaves a wife and a number of children.

TATE.—George C. Tate, a prominent contractor of Mifflin county, and well known in this section, died at his home in Ferguson valley Sunday evening while sitting upon the porch. He was ill only a few minutes and the physician stated that his death was probably due to uremic poisoning. He was up and around Sunday and was jovial and did not complain about feeling sick.

Mr. Tate was aged forty-eight years, four months and four days, and is survived by his wife whose maiden name was Catherine Hoy, of Jacksonville, this county, and by five children: Mrs. Harry Bowen, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Marion Lauretta, Joseph Foster, George Fred and Mary Olive at home. Olive, the youngest, is six years old. Three brothers, Herbert Tate of Detroit, Mich.; Burton Tate, of East Palestine, Ohio, and Henry Tate, of Wilmerding, are also living.

During the past fifteen or more years he was a carpenter and did considerable building contract work. As contractor he erected the Lewistown Trust Company and Daily Sentinel buildings, Lewistown, as well as many other large public and private edifices throughout Mifflin county.

His parents, Potter and Julia Tate, preceded him in death, his father's death occurring four years ago and his mother being dead 22 years.

In his daily and public life Mr. Tate was a whole-souled, genial fellow who attracted many friends who respected and esteemed him. Of unusually strong physique and apparently enjoying much vigor of health and body his death announcement came as a shocking surprise to his host of companions and acquaintances.

The funeral services were held Wednesday evening 7:30 o'clock, at his late residence, Rev. A. H. Spangler, officiating. The body will be taken Thursday morning, eight o'clock, to Myers cemetery, Bellefonte, where interment will be made.

32-to-36-Year Men to Go First.

Draft boards all over the country will shortly be notified that men between the ages of 32 and 35 inclusive and 19 and 20 will be called first in the new draft.

Recent dispatches from Washington state that Provost Marshal General Crowder has announced this decision. Youths of 18 years and men between the ages of 35 and 45 inclusive will be called later.

No order has been issued by Gen. Crowder as to whether the youths of 18 will be called before the men of 35 and 45 or after them. This will be determined later.

September calls will practically exhaust the original class one registrants, there being but a few of those who registered on August 24 to still be classified and sent to training camps. The mailing of the new questionnaires will be started immediately after the registration of about 13,000,000 men on Thursday of this week.

Marriage Licenses.

- Paul A. Oswald, Philipsburg
- Vera O. Swisher, Julian
- Ralph E. Edmiston, Bellefonte

No September Court.

September Court has been continued generally, and jurors have been notified not to appear.

GEORGES VALLEY.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerre Zettle and daughter, of Wisconsin, arrived at the home of his brother, F. W. Zettle, on Friday. Mr. Zettle was born and raised in Georges Valley. He left this place and went west about twenty-nine years ago and is now one of the up-to-date farmers. This is his third visit to his home but it is the first visit east for his wife. She is a native of Wisconsin and is delighted with the beautiful scenery and mountains here.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Decker spent Sunday with friends in Spring Mills.

HOW CENTRE CO. FARMERS HAVE BEEN HELPED.

The Work Done by Centre County Branch of Penn'a Council of National Defense.

Working quietly, yet efficiently, the Centre County Branch of the Pennsylvania Council of National Defense and Committee of Public Safety has played a very important part in planting and harvesting the bumper crops that Centre county farms have produced this year.

Through the splendid work of John L. Holmes, of State College, farm labor manager for Centre county, a complete survey of the farm labor situation was made early in the spring and upon it was built an organization designed to supply the calls that might be made for farm labor.

First came the enrollment and training of boys for the Boys Working Reserve. Of the number enrolled twenty-one were sent to State College for intensive preliminary training and then assigned farms in the county as follows:

Howard Moore, Philipsburg, placed with William Way, Halfmoon township turned out to be a disappointment.

James Johnson, Philipsburg, placed with Milton Walker, of Marengo, turned out to be a disappointment.

Richard Hoffman, Howard, placed with Ives L. Harvey, in Howard township, splendid boy and earned the bronze medal.

Harry Crain, Philipsburg, placed with Darlington Way, Halfmoon township, was not satisfactory to Mr. Way but showed that he was a good boy by accepting a transfer to Mr. Wilson in the same township and earning the bronze medal.

Daniel Pendleton, colored, Bellefonte, placed with George Thompson, at Alto, stayed one week. Didn't like work.

Malcom Everhart, Bellefonte, placed with Elmer Lowder, at Oak Hall. Fine boy, pleased Mr. Lowder, but quit after ten days because a seasoned man's work was expected from a boy just out of school.

Malcolm Haupt, Bellefonte, placed with Paul Vonada, at Zion, well liked by Mr. Vonada but was too small for farm work.

Malcolm Love, Bellefonte, placed with Clyde Fishburn, in Ferguson township, and later with J. F. Hoy, Rockview, worked fine and awarded the bronze medal.

William Reed, Philipsburg, took the course but never reported for work.

Albert Smith, Bellefonte, placed with Samuel Homan, Rock Springs, good boy, liked by his employer, but left after ten days claiming that the work was too hard.

E. D. Leitzell, Bellefonte, placed with E. D. Merritt, back of Julian, stayed one week and left, claiming the place was too lonely.

Randall Graham, State College, placed on the College farm. Did good work was awarded the bronze medal.

Rufus Cole, State College, placed with E. D. Worthen, College township, good boy and awarded the bronze medal.

C. Dale Slagel, State College, placed with David Slagle, Ferguson township, good boy, awarded bronze medal.

Geo. E. McClelland, Bellefonte, placed with William Mothersbaugh, in Harris township, good worker and well liked by his employer but wouldn't stay.

Harold Zimmerman, Bellefonte, placed with Charles E. Mothersbaugh, Harris township, was too light for farm work.

Ralph Kern, Lemont, placed with C. E. Meyer, State College, awarded bronze medal.

Guy Williams, Oak Hall, placed with C. E. Meyer, State College, was awarded bronze medal.

Harry Detwiler, Miles township, placed with Frank Homan, Ferguson township, splendid boy, but got an infected hand and had to quit.

Irving Boerlin, Sewickley, Pa., placed first with E. F. Shoemaker, Harris township, then transferred to D. A. Grove, of College township. A city boy who made good in the country and was awarded bronze medal.

George R. Rice, Sewickley, Pa., placed with Stine Walker, in Ferguson township; another city boy made good in the country and was awarded bronze medal.

Of the above twenty-one the ten awarded the bronze medal worked their full six weeks on the farms and in every case proved to their employers that a high school boy, however inexperienced, can make himself very useful on a farm where he is encouraged and not worked too hard until he gets a little seasoned.

This work of placing boys on farms supplied every call that was made. It was later supplemented by the farm emergency crops organized by Chairman Kapp and Mr. Holmes largely through the co-operation of Bellefonte and State College merchants. Through this organization ninety-two farm hands were sent out, for one and two days at a time, from stores in which they are regularly employed, and in each instance the results were satisfactory. Every demand was supplied. And in addition to this Mr. Holmes supplied eight farmers skilled help for the entire season.

The general committee, through the courtesy of J. Thomas Mitchell, Esq., and one of the local printing establishments, was able to furnish to the farmers of the county a legal application placing boys, who were working on the farms and subject to an early draft call, in a deferred call class and in this way saved boys for the farmers until the harvests were in.

This rather lengthy report is published at this time not only to show what the County Branch of the Pennsylvania Council of National Defense and Committee of Public Safety has been doing but to call the attention of farmers and others to the matter of boy labor. It is highly probable that next season farm labor will be scarcer than it has been this. It is also reasonably certain that the draft is going to make further drains on the skilled farm labor in the county. To meet this depletion all of our farmers should use the coming winter months to try to adjust themselves to new conditions that will confront us all next spring.

The first thing is to count out of consideration for next year any farm hand who is within the draft call, who is physically fit and has no dependents. While all such may not be taken plans should be made, if possible, to man the farms next spring with others, so that if they are taken serious interruptions of working plans will not be suffered.

To meet such a contingency only two sources of labor are available: Men over forty-five and boys under 18. It therefore seems urgent that in considering labor needs for next year only these two classes can be fully relied upon and because such will probably be the case the wise and patriotic farmer will make plans during the winter that will fit in with the changing conditions that war has brought upon all of us alike.

Executive Secretary.

11. No publisher shall conduct voting or other contests for the purpose of obtaining subscriptions; subscriptions obtained in this way will not be considered bona fide subscriptions.

12. No publisher may issue holiday, industrial, or other special editions.

13. Publishers shall, so far as possible, procure papers and all other materials from the nearest available source of supply, provided it is consistent with price, quality and service.

14. Publishers of papers of more than eight pages in size will reduce the pages in excess of eight pages 25 per cent. This reduction shall be an average reduction over one month's period.

15. Any publisher of a four or eight page paper will be considered to have fulfilled the requirements of this order if he immediately puts into effect paragraphs numbered 1 to 13, inclusive, and in addition thereto reduces to the lowest possible point any pressroom waste.

No newspaper may be established during the period of the war, except those for which arrangements had been made and plants purchased previous to the issuing of this order, or unless it can be shown that a new newspaper is a necessity. A sworn statement will be required from each publisher on November 1 as to how many of these rules have been put into effect by him, and what results in the matter of reducing paper consumption have been obtained.
