

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

The Milton fair, next week, promises to have a good representation from this section.

Jefferson Slick, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Slick, expects to go to Milton next Monday to work in the shell plant.

Be sure to read Lieut. "Ned" Keller's interesting letter from France. Lieut. Keller writes intelligently and in a new style.

Chairman Walker's W. S. S. report for September will make a fine showing of sales of War Savings Stamps at the local post office.

For the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year, a meeting of the local Red Cross auxiliary will be held in the P. O. S. of A. rooms Tuesday evening, October 8th, at 7:30 o'clock.—Mrs. Clyde Smith, chairman.

Rev. J. A. Shultz will assist Rev. C. B. Snyder, pastor of the Millheim United Evangelical charge, at Woodward on Sunday evening, in raising funds to liquidate a debt on the church made on account of repairs to the church building.

A. S. Fleck, of Haskell, New Jersey, in making a remittance to the Reporter, writes the following: "We are making 100 tons of powder daily. I am glad to see the good patriotic showing from old Centre county. Keep up the good work."

Miss Gertrude Spaner left Centre Hall on Saturday for Rochester, New York, where she will spend the fall and winter months as a student in the Rochester Bible-Training School. Miss Spangler will make her home at 161 East Ave.

O. C. Homán advertises sale for March 19. He is located on William Grove's farm, near Spring Mills. After the sale he will move to Union county, having purchased the Charles Kerstetter farm of seventy-five acres, about one mile north of Millinburg.

The late corn is past the stage where frost will do it any harm. Many farmers were obliged to do late corn planting in the spring, risking a bad crop in the event of early frost. Because of the good season there will be a splendid corn yield generally.

Almost one thousand pounds of clothing contributed by the people of Centre Hall, Potters Mills, Earlys, town and Tusseyville, for the relief of the Belgian people, in the call of the Red Cross, last week. The clothing has been boxed and is ready for shipment.

Helen, the twelve year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bohn, of near this place, was taken to the Bellefonte hospital last Thursday where an operation was performed the same day for mastoiditis. The little Miss was in a serious condition but is fast growing better.

On Saturday our townsman H. W. Kreamer reached his eighty-first birthday. Hale and hearty, and continuing to do daily physical labor, Mr. Kreamer excites the admiration of his many friends, who trust that he may continue to be among them for many years to come.

The Sundays are growing more "gasless." The number of cars passing through Centre Hall on Sundays has gradually diminished from a number exceeding 500 to less than a dozen. The fuel administration does not intend to disturb the present order concerning Sunday automobiling, for the present, at least.

A report to the effect that G. R. Meiss, the Colyer merchant, has closed out his business, has gained circulation. Mr. Meiss informs the Reporter that he has discontinued one department of his business and will continue to handle groceries and other articles as heretofore. He states that remodeling of the store will begin next week.

Main street through Centre Hall this week received a coating of road oil and then a sprinkling of fine stones. Instead of the slow process of oiling by hand, the big motor oiler of the Ugitte company was put into operation and the width of the street was covered in two spans. The stones were scattered by a State road machine, the road first being put in first-class shape for receiving the oil through the use of the brush. The work appears to be well done.

With a view of buying potatoes and apples, Messrs. George Potter, Harry Landis, John Grubb, all Chester county farmers, and William Morris, the chief of police of Phoenixville, made a trip to Penns Valley this week and were successful in purchasing a car of potatoes as well as a nice lot of apples from William F. Colyer, of near Centre Hall. For potatoes, $1.75 was paid, and apples were bought at eighty cents per bushel. The gentlemen made the trip in several cars and were accompanied by Mrs. Potter and children and Mrs. Joseph Emery.

Mrs. Sadie Bushman is receiving letters regularly from her son, D. Ross Bushman, who is with the engineer corps in France. The former school teacher reports everything o. k. A noteworthy feature of all his letters is the praiseworthy comment he makes of the work done by the Red Cross and Y. M. C. A. organizations. He thinks that that class of people who have not yet unloosed their purse strings and given liberally and often to these two great causes, would most certainly do so were they to see what a friend these two organizations are to the soldier boy.

OUR INDIVIDUAL PART

Some observers think that the most characteristic thing about the American soldiers in France, something which astounds the enemy and excites the admiration of our allies, is the capacity of the American soldiers to do individual thinking and fighting. The German fights successfully only in mass formation, in organized bodies, while every American soldier has an initiative and independence of action which gives him remarkable efficiency in open fighting. They are not senseless cogs, but each is an individual working unit in a great fighting machine.

Every American at home should feel an individual responsibility and do his or her individual part in winning the war. There is not an American citizen who can not help win the war. The Fourth Liberty Loan drive, which begins September 28, offers a great opportunity for concerted action and for individual action, and the loan will be a tremendous success if each American will do his or her individual part as each American soldier in France does his part. Our soldiers deserve such support from the people at home.

We're back of 'em. Show it. This war is not of guns alone! Your share is your UTMOST. The boys are counting on you. Bonds fight behind the guns. Now is your time to punish.

KEEP UP THE STEADY STREAM

Over there in France are mammoth depots stored to the roof with munitions and supplies. Out from their gates stream over hundred and hundreds of miles of roads motor lorries, trains, and caissons rushing support to the battle lines. Over here at a hundred warves great ships are being laden with the guns, the shot, the shell, the powder, the vehicles of transport to feed these depots through their receiving doors.

Think of the billions and billions of dollars needed to supply them all! Think of the boys at the front who are endangered, unless the supplies arrive on time! And then think of what YOU must do to keep up the steady stream!

This Fourth Liberty Loan for Six Billion Dollars is your answer!

Our soldiers do not say after a fight or two, "I have done enough!" Then, surely, neither will YOU after you have bought a bond or two.

Buy every bond you have the cash to pay for and then every one you can pay for in future installments.

Stop, think and loosen. Buy! Bondage versus Bonds, which? Strike the sneer from the Hun! Bonds are symbols of RIGHT. Remember Chateau-Thierry! Bonds fight in the trenches.

BLIND THE HUNS

In this war aeroplanes are the eyes of the army.

Overwhelming thousands of these air fighters will place in the hands of General Pershing the exact location of enemy forces in every sector of the front and prevent the enemy from learning the disposal of our own boys. This alone may save the life of your son or brother or husband, and perhaps tens of thousands of others.

Measure your risk against the risk of every noble aviator fighting for you—He goes up today and returns, he may do the same thing tomorrow and the next day, but he never knows if he will come down alive or dead—Yet he does it day after day and feels his job is never done. Neither is yours, not even if you bought a Liberty Bond every day.

Americans, FIGHT with your dollars, stand staunch behind the brave boys. Bring with you cash and buy on installments. And do it NOW!

Stick to YOUR Bond-Trench. They even crucified prisoners. Keep YOUR conscience clear. The Hun MUST be crushed. His sister urges you to buy. Money talks! Buy more Bonds.

Premiums for State Fruit Show.

The largest display of Pennsylvania grown fruit that has ever been shown is expected for the State Farm Products Show which will be held at Harrisburg January 21, 22, 23, and 24, under the auspices of the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture and allied agricultural organization of the State.

The premium list includes seventeen classes with cash prizes amounting to almost $400. Arrangements have been made to take care of all exhibit apples or fruit which can be shipped to H. F. Hershey, Secretary, Biglerville Cold Storage Co., Biglerville, Pa. Fruit growers are urged at this season to select their finest specimen and prepare to hold them for exhibition. There will be displays of plates, boxes and barreled apples and special collections which are shown on the premium lists.

The State Horticultural Association has already had 100 barrels of apples contributed for exhibition which will be sold at private sale during the show or at private sale and auction at the close of the show.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

W. J. Smith, the dairyman, has been ill the past week.

Guyer Durst is among the soldier boys at Camp Lee, Va., to be affected with Spanish influenza.

James B. Spangler, of Tusseyville, offers for sale 200 bushels of first-class apples, at a low price. Buyer must pick them.

Mrs. Belle Whiteman left for Newport last week where she will spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles W. Geary, and family.

A. C. Confer, of near Spring Mills, is another farmer who will quit on account of scarcity of help. Mr. Confer advertises sale for Saturday, November 23rd.

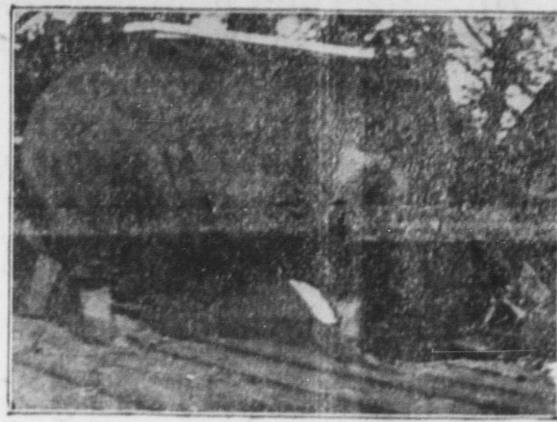

A baby girl was recently born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morrill, at their home in Amesbury, Mass. Mrs. Morrill will be better known as Miss Nellie Kerlin, formerly of this place.

J. P. Shook, the veterinarian at Spring Mills, was a business caller at this office one day last week. Mr. Shook is a University of Pennsylvania graduate and exceptionally well qualified for the work in his line.

On Saturday morning E. B. McMullen of Millheim; C. W. Wolfe and J. W. Auman, of Aaronburg, and George Weaver, of Spring Mills, started for Camp Lee, Va., where each of the gentlemen have a son in training, says the Millheim Journal. At Sunbury they were joined by Gurney Y. Hosterman, of Wellsboro, who accompanied them. They returned to their respective homes on Monday evening and report that the young soldier boys are all well, although Fred Wolfe's company is under quarantine and he was not permitted to mingle with the visitors.

Thanks, Friends!

The way many of the Reporter subscribers responded to our request to pay up arrears, last week, in order that we might make a creditable showing in our report to the U. S. government on November 1st, was most gratifying to the publishers. Our sincere thanks go out to all who responded so quickly, and those who have not taken any action in the matter, we would again urge to make their remittance some time this month. Please do not delay it beyond the month of October.

FERTILIZE YOUR WHEAT

This Fall, And Do It

Liberally.

Don't think the price is too high. The price at present on fertilizer is not as high in proportion as before the war.

It takes Less Wheat to Buy a Ton of Fertilizer Today than it did Before the War.

A FACT! Before the war it took more bushels of wheat to buy a ton of fertilizer than it takes today to buy a ton of the same quality of fertilizer.

I have a liberal stock on hand. Order early before the supply is exhausted.

Phone your order and the goods will be held until you want to use it.
