

RECEIVING WAR CROSS

The patriotic spirit and devotion with which American women have so far performed war-service work and made sacrifices has never been equalled in the history of any country. Mothers, wives and sisters support this burden with strength and fortitude. But those who are already miserable from the complaints and weaknesses which are so common to women, should take the right tonic for the womanly system. If a woman is borne down by pain and sufferings at regular or irregular intervals, by nervousness or dizzy spells, by headache or backache, "Favorite Prescription" should be taken. "Favorite Prescription" can now be had in tablet form as well as liquid at most drug stores. Send to Doctor Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for a ten-cent trial package of tablets. For fifty years Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets have been most satisfactory in liver and bowel troubles.

Danville, Va.—
"Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a wonderful tonic for expectant mothers. My own experience with it has proved to me that it not only keeps the mother in a healthy, happy condition but it also helps wonderfully in preventing suffering. My sister also vouches for the Prescription just as enthusiastically as I do."

PLANS BEING PREPARED TO BRING SEVERAL NOTED EUROPEAN WARRIORS ACROSS OCEAN

Boxing Behind Firing Line in Lorraine Before Hostilities Ceased.

American fistie champions who have been clamoring for a chance to meet European title holders probably will get their wish before the winter is over. They will, if Herbert L. Pratt, the noted sportsman who is chairman of the sports committee of the Y. M. C. A., has his way. Pratt is seriously considering bringing several foreign champions here to meet the United States experts before the end of the year. Among those he has offered to bring across the Atlantic are Georges Carpentier, the heavyweight champion of Europe; Eugene Criqui, the sensational French bantam, and Jimmy Wilde of England, the greatest flyweight in the world.

WILDE IS A GREAT BATTLER

According to Ed Lewis of Minneapolis, Bantamweight Boxer is Remarkably Fast.

In the opinion of Ed Lewis of Minneapolis, a former sport writer, who served in "Y" service in England, an all-conquering Welshman, by name Jimmy Wilde, is going to clean up every bantamweight boxer in America. And Lewis ought to know, for he has handled ring affairs for years and can pick a fighter with one eye shut. He writes that he recently saw Wilde fight Joe Camp at London and was astonished at the form shown by the little fellow.

Wilde is a townsman of Freddie Walsh, having been born in Pontypridd, Wales. He is twenty-six years old now, and it is safe to assume that he isn't going to outgrow his class. They call him a flyweight in England, and he weighs only 105 pounds. He has whipped everything over there within ten pounds of his left, and is regarded as a real sensation.
"I'll go on record right now," writes Lewis, "as saying he can beat anything in the United States up to 115 pounds. He is remarkably fast and hits terribly hard. His straight left is a bird. The boys at home will go crazy when they get a look at him."

LAW AGAINST SELLING STARS

That is What Connie Mack Favours Now After Realizing $200,000 For His Players.

Having realized nearly $200,000 in the sale of his once invincible Athletics, Connie Mack now favors startling reforms. He wants to have the practice of selling baseball stars stopped by legislation.

"I know the fans will smile," says the veteran manager, "but the sale of ball players for fabulous sums should be wiped out. These spectacular transactions result in inflated salaries, discontented players, disgusted fans, and give baseball a black eye in general. If a club doesn't want a player he should be released outright, or waivers should be requested before turning him over to a club that needs him at the uniform price of $25,000. There should be no more $25,000 or $50,000 deals. They are harmful to the game."

of the cleverest prize fighters in the world. He isn't as big as Willard, but could put up a good fight against the world's title holder.

Many Good Ones Here.
There are many other good ones here who would give Carpentier a great fight. Battling Levinsky is a boxer along the Frenchman's style and a bout between them would be a whirlwind from beginning to end. Jack Dempsey, Fatty Meehan, Joe Jeanette, Mike Gibbons and Billy Misket are others who would make the Frenchman display all of his wares.

If Criqui is the wonder he is reported to be and Peter Herman or Frankie Burns would furnish a thriller. The victor of that bout could be matched against Wilde and another hummer would be the result.

NO PARLOR JOB FOR JENKINS

Former Catcher of Chicago Team Has Been Seeing Lot of Tough Service in France.

Damon Runyon, in one of his dispatches from France, dated October 22, notes that the day before he had run across Tom Jenkins, former catcher of the Chicago White Sox, who had just come out of the front line for a rest. From appearances, wrote Runyon, the former catcher had been seeing a lot of tough service, for he was dirty and unkempt, and was busy scraping mud off himself at a wayside billet. Runyon also notes in the same dispatch that he had recently seen Christy Mathewson and that he was the first to tell Matty of Eddie Grant's death.

AVOID ALL FOOTBALL HURTS

Player Who Uses Elbow to Break Jar of Fall is Liable to Broken or Dislocated Shoulder.

Football players appear to suffer more from dislocated or broken shoulders this season than from any other injury. This is because they do not know how to fall on the ball or to the ground. They use their elbows to break the jar.

The result is an extreme jar at the shoulder and something gives way. When falling on the ball, if the player curls his body around the ball, with his arm well under him, no injury can come to him no matter how many players may pile on him. The same principle applies to players who fall on the field.

Just a little more than $13 a second was what Andy Schuttlinger, a lad, received for riding Eternal to victory in the match race with Billy Kelly. The race was six furlongs and the time 1:12. James W. McClelland, the owner, paid Andy a riding fee of $1,000.

RICKENBACHER IS A CAPTAIN OF FLIERS

Ex-Racing Driver Honored for Great Work on Battle Front.

Turned Down at Start Because of Lack of College Education, He Finally Landed as Sergeant in Army Signal Corps.

It goes without saying that the many friends of Eddie Rickenbacher, ex-racing driver, are delighted that this American ace of aces was made a captain in the aviation corps just before the end of hostilities for his great work on the battle front.

His promotion makes it meet to recall the efforts made by Rick to get into the flying work. He came back from England about the time this country entered the war. He had been working in the Sunbeam factory there. Rick was filled with the idea that racing drivers, with their knowledge of internal-combustion engines and their proved courage in speed work, would make ideal airmen. He telegraphed about the country, getting pledges from the racing drivers to enter the government service, and corralled a whole squad. This cost him a great deal of money, which he spent willingly. Then the whole thing was turned down, because the racing drivers did not qualify as college men.

Undaunted, Rick got into the army as a sergeant in the signal corps. When he first went abroad he drove a car for General Pershing. Later his ambition was realized, and he was commissioned a lieutenant in the aviation corps. He has a record of 24 enemy airplanes officially and a lot more unofficially.

It is worth while noting that another ex-racing driver, Caleb S. Bragg it was, who recently made a wonderful record from Dayton to Washington and then to New York.

DRIVE WAS JUST LIKE GOING TO FIRST BASE

The Bayonet, the publication issued by the soldier boys at Camp Lee, takes the following view of the first American drive, describing it entirely in baseball:

"The first American drive was like going to first base. Didn't have to hit the dirt; just went into the bag standing up. The delivery was too fast for the Huns, and there was promiscuous use of the bean ball. Although it was like trying out new pitchers, they showed promise and are backed up by a number of veterans to take up the work if any wavering symptoms should show. Only the top of the batting order was used, and there will be some slugging before the game gets much older. From the way the batteries are going it looks as if the Hun side will be retired on strikes."

M'GRAW SEES GREAT REVIVAL

Future of Baseball is Exceedingly Bright, According to Manager of New York Giants.

The future of baseball is bright, especially now that the war has ended, according to John J. McGraw, manager of the New York Giants. "Baseball will receive a great boom," said McGraw. "The game will come back all of a sudden and the interest will be greater than ever. Our soldiers, when they return, will be the most ardent supporters of baseball, and many of them will find engagements with major and minor league clubs. The magnates have until February or March to arrive at a conclusion. Baseball isn't dead. It's merely resting. You can't kill it."

PRESIDENT TO HEAD PEACE PARTY

Other Envoys Lansing, White, House and Bliss.

HOUSE WILSON'S ADVISER

Other Delegates As Ambassadors—Announcement is Delayed Until Belligerents Agreed Upon Number To Be Named.

Washington.—The representatives of the United States at the peace conference will be:

President Wilson.
Robert Lansing, Secretary of State
Henry White, former Ambassador to France and Italy.
E. M. House.

General Tasker H. Bliss, representative of the American Army with the Supreme War Council at Versailles.

This announcement was made at the White House. In the absence of any official explanation, it was assumed that the President goes as President of the United States, and that Secretary Lansing, Mr. White and Colonel House and, possibly also, General Bliss will be delegates with an ambassadorial rank.

It was recalled that the President's announcement that he would go to France "for the purpose of taking part in the discussion and settlement of the main features of the treaty of peace" said that it was not likely that he could remain throughout the sessions of the peace conference, and that he would be "accompanied by delegates who will sit as the representatives of the United States throughout the conference."

The White House announcement follows:

"It was announced at the Executive offices that the representatives of the United States at the Peace Conference would be: The President himself, the Secretary of State, the Hon. Henry White, recently Ambassador to France; Edward M. House and General Tasker H. Bliss.

"It was explained that it had not been possible to announce these appointments before because the number of representatives each of the chief belligerents was to be decided until a day or two ago by the conference."

The Premiers of Great Britain, France and Italy are expected to attend the Peace Conference as representatives of the government, but, like the President, may not remain throughout the conferences. The general understanding here is that present plans are to have the conference agree to the broad principles of the treaty and leave the working out of details to further sittings.

This would enable the President and the Entente Premiers to return to the capitals of their respective countries, so as to give their personal attention to affairs of state.

$9,572,000,000 SPENT LAST YEAR.

The Public Debt On June 30 Was $12,396,000,000.

Washington.—It cost $5,645,000,000 to run the American Army during the year ending June 30 last; $1,368,000,000 for the navy and $1,516,000,000 for the civil Government proper. The Shipping Board spent $862,000,000 and $181,000,000 was paid out in pensions. These figures are shown by the annual report of John Burke, Treasurer of the United States, to Secretary McAdoo. The report showed the public debt on June 30 was $12,396,000,000.

NOBEL PRIZE TO PRESIDENT.

He Will Be Invited to Visit Christiania to Receive It.

Grand Forks.—A special cable dispatch to the Normandy in this city from Christiania indicates that the Nobel Peace prize for 1918 may be awarded to President Wilson who according to the dispatch, probably will be invited to visit the Norwegian capital in order to accept personally the prize. The Danish and Swedish governments also are said to consider extending an invitation to the President.

HUNS DAMAGE AIRPLANES.

150 Collected For Surrender To Allies Ruined By Revolutionists.

Basle, Switzerland.—One hundred and fifty airplanes, which had been gathered at the Boeblingen airfield, 11 miles southwest of Stuttgart, to be handed over to the Allies in accordance with the provisions of the armistice according to a Stuttgart dispatch received here.

They have been rendered useless by order of the Revolutionary Committee.

1,100 JEWS MASSACRED.

Berlin Papers Say Synagogue At Lemburg Set On Fire.

London.—Eleven hundred Jews were killed during the recent massacre in Lemburg, according to dispatches in the Berlin newspapers transmitted by the Copenhagen correspondent of the Central News. Hundreds of Jews are said to have barricaded themselves in a synagogue, which was set afire. Those who attempted to escape from this refuge were fired upon.

THE JOY OF MOTHERHOOD

Came to this Woman after Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to Restore Her Health

Ellensburg, Wash.—"After I was married I was not well for a long time and a good deal of the time go about. Our greatest desire was to have a child in our home and one day my husband came back from town with a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and wanted me to try it. It brought relief from my troubles.

I improved in health so I could do my housework; we now have a little one, all of which I owe to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. O. S. JOHNSON, R. No. 3, Ellensburg, Wash.

There are women everywhere who long for children in their homes yet are denied this happiness on account of some functional disorder which in most cases would readily yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Such women should not give up hope until they have given this wonderful medicine a trial, and for special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of 40 years experience is at your service.

A boy was bragging to a playmate that his grandfather fought in the Civil war.

Up to Date.

Secretary Lane, speaking of the way in which the war has changed our viewpoint of life, tells the following:

They were to be married shortly and now they were sitting in the study meditating on the blissfulness of futurity.

"Algy," said the girl suddenly, "every morn you bring me violets which at even you have culled, don't you?"

"I do," responded the ever faithful, "let them cost what they will."
"I've been thinking," continued the girl, "that if you would send beefsteaks and mutton chops instead it would make a lot bigger hit with father and mother, and be a lot cheaper for you, too."
