Big Barn Burned Near Pleasant Gap.

The large barn on the Harry Smith farm, located a mile and a half east of Pleasant Gap, on the road to Zion, was completely destroyed by fire early Tuesday morning, entailing a heavy loss to Mr. Smith, who lived on the place.
About 5:30 o'clock Mr. Smith went to a shed attached to one end of the barn to place some gasoline in his car, preparatory to departing to do a day's butchering. He carried a lighted lantern which he placed on the seat of the car while he filled his gasoline tank. The fumes of the gas became ignited and in an instant there was a spread of flames, which soon became beyond the control of Mr. Smith, who seeing that the barn was doomed, set to work to save his stock, succeeding in getting his four horses and his cattle to a point of safety. Five shoats, however, were burned, and the entire season's crops, as well as all the farm machinery, which was new.
Mr. Smith carried insurance, but not sufficient to cover his heavy loss.

Killed in France.

Monday of last week Clyde Smetzler, of near Bellefonte, received the sad intelligence that his son-in-law, James Hull, had been killed while in active service in France. For the last five years he had been making his home with Mr. Smetzler, and on the 14th of last May left Bellefonte for Columbus Barracks. He was only three days there when he was ordered to a camp in Texas. On the 14th of August he sailed for France and was taken to the front a short time after he arrived there. He was killed on the 10th of November, one day before the war ended.

The young man was a son of John Hull and 31 years ago was born near Zion. On the 14th of November, 1917, he was married to Miss Pearl Smetzler who survives him. The last letter received from him by his wife was on the 31st of last month. He is survived by seven brothers and three sisters. He belonged to the Bellefonte Lodge of Odd Fellows and was a fine young man in every respect.

John Reifsnider moved last week into the Catherman house, which he purchased recently.

Mrs. Musser and sons, Philip and Stuart, are among the sick in this section.

Albert Confer and Rosemer Warren went to Akron, Ohio, last week where they expect to secure employment.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ross, Paul Ross and Mrs. J. W. Keller motored to Rebersburg Sunday where they spent the day at the home of Earl Ross.

Samuel Coble, Jr., who has been in the service at Hoboken, was discharged recently and is now at the home of his parents here.

Miss Ruth Elton, a sophomore from Penn State, spent a few days last week with Mildred Wieland while the college is closed.

Monday morning Mrs. James Irvin was taken to the Bellefonte hospital and underwent an operation that afternoon. For a time her condition was serious but now she is getting along very well.

Samuel Ross, after spending two weeks with his parents, returned to Akron, where he has a good position in a rubber factory. He was accompanied by Hugh Ralston, who will be employed by the same company.

Young Cashier Dead.

David Harold Crosby, aged thirty years, and cashier of the Mohannon National Bank, at Philipsburg, died on Monday morning, the result of pneumonia, after only a few days' illness.

THREE HUNTING PARTIES
KILL 18 BUCK DEER.

The Limit of Deer Is Killed by Bradfords, Deckers and Colyer Parties.

Three hunting parties, with their camps located at comparatively short distances from Potters Mills and Colyer, succeeded in killing six male deer each—the limit for a party. The lucky parties are the Deckers, the Bradfords and the Colyers. The last named force of hunters undoubtedly established a record for the season. Up until Monday morning they had three deer hanging at their camp and in one drive on that day they succeeded in rounding up three bucks. In less than ten minutes two deer had fallen and in another half hour the third was shot, making their total six.

With the aid of W. F. McKinney, of Potters Mills the Reporter has been able to gather the following report on deer killed.

- Bradfords, of Centre Hall 6
- Decker party, in Decker Valley 6
- Colyer party, on the Geary farm 6
- Potters Mills day hunters 5
- Hornor party, of Pleasant Gap, on Runkle's land 3
- Slack party, on Stone creek 3
- McKees Rock party, at Stave Field 4
- Altoona party, at Slate Ridge 3
- Bellefonte party, (Shuey party) 3
- Pennington party, at Perry 2
- Krise place 2
- Penn Hall party 3
- Bron party, of Dauphin county, at Ammon Vonada's 2
- Yeagertown party, east of Garry's 2
- Sweetwood party, at the Summit 1
- Palymra party, at Venrick's 1
- Schuykill-Haven party, at Nevel's 1
- The Brown party, from Schuykill county, crippled a deer but failed to get it.

In the Bear Meadows district, hunting parties met with grand success, as is shown by the following report:

- Bucktails, from Danville 2
- Fredericktown party 1
- Fillmore party 3
- Rileys, from Boalsburg 2
- Raymonds, of Oak Hall 5
- Hess party, of State College 6
- Blairsville party 3
- Harrisburg party 1
- Wilson party 3
- Wilson party, day hunters 3
- Pitcairn party 1
- Charter Oak party 4
- Greensburg party 2
- Indiana party 1
- Ackenberger party, from Charter Oak 1

Among the freaks of the hunting season was a doe with horns, shot by Ed. Hornor, of the Colyer party. Mr. McKinney, the ranger, visited the camp and vouches for the truth of the report.

Two dead does were found, one in the Bear Meadow territory and the other near Potters Mills. Both were sent to the Bellefonte hospital.

Ralph Season Died in France.

Mrs. John O. Diehl, of Millinburg, received word from Washington that her son, Ralph Waldo Season, died from pneumonia in a hospital in France. He graduated from the Millinburg High school, class of 1917, and that fall entered Colgate University. After school closed he took up work at Lewisburg in the supervisor's office of the Penna. R. Co. and shortly after that was offered a position by the B. and O. R. R. Co. which he accepted and worked for them until April 7th, 1918, when he enlisted in the heavy artillery, was sent to Fort Slocum, later to Fort Totten. He belonged to Co. 4 of the Recruit Detachment from which he was transferred to different companies. On the 4th of July he was made Corporal of the 5th Anti-Aircraft Battery, and later to the 6th Anti-Aircraft Battalion. He sailed for France September 18th and died as stated above October 7th, 1918, at the age of twenty-one years, four months and two days.

His mother, step father, half brother and a host of friends are left to mourn their loss.

It is a matter of record that the influenza disease exacted a heavy toll among cigarette smokers. The young man who made cigarette smoking a habit proved to lack the strength necessary to successfully combat the disease once it took hold of him. The term "coffin nails" was more than a joke in these cases.
