

"BEST MEDICINE FOR WOMEN"

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did For Ohio Woman.

Portsmouth, Ohio.—"I suffered from irregularities, pains in my side and so weak at times I could hardly get around to do my work, and as I had four in my family and three boarders it made it very hard for me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me. I took it and it has restored my health. It is certainly the best medicine for woman's ailments I ever saw."—Mrs. SARA SHAW, R. No. 1, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Mrs. Shaw proved the merit of this medicine and wrote this letter in order that other suffering women may find relief as she did. Women who are suffering as she was should not drag along from day to day without giving this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. For special advice in regard to such ailments write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of its forty years experience is at your service.

The Point of View.

"Don't you like hot water in the home?" "That depends on whether I'm in it."

WOMEN SUFFERERS MAY NEED SWAMP-ROOT

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney and bladder trouble and never suspect it.

Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

Pain in the back, headache, loss of ambition, nervousness, are often times symptoms of kidney trouble.

Don't delay starting treatment. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a physician's prescription, obtained at any drug store, may be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

Get a medium or large size bottle immediately from any drug store.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Adv.

PENNSYLVANIA STATE ITEMS

West Chester.—Engineers are making preliminary survey for a proposed road between Weatherly and Ashmore, across Spring Mountain.

West Chester.—All farmers' institutes arranged for Chester county as far ahead as January 9 have been postponed on account of influenza.

New Castle.—Despite the war time prohibition act, Lawrence county liquor license holders are going ahead with their applications for licenses and expect to present them at court on February 10. Papers are now being filed out.

Mauch Chunk.—Snow to the depth of several inches covers the upper section of the Lehigh valley and the weather is very cold. This is the first snow in this section this season.

Hazleton.—Edward B. Kennedy, local examiner of the federal employment bureau, said that despite the ending of the war the labor situation in the anthracite mines is far from satisfactory and that it is impossible to fill all the requisitions for miners and laborers.

Uniontown.—When fire destroyed the home of George Moran and Andrew Hergel, at Millersville, 8500 worth of Liberty bonds belonging to Hospital, were burned.

Sharon.—The Sharon works of the American Steel Foundries closed for an indefinite period, throwing about 600 men out of employment. For the last four years the plant has been making shell pigots, and it was a 100 per cent munitions concern.

Lebanon.—Louis Brenner, a Lebanon scrap iron dealer, has purchased the 24,000 tes and 1270 tons of rails laid in the construction of the Midland Pennsylvania railroad. The project was abandoned three years ago. It was to have run from Millersburg, Dauphin county, through Grats to points northeast.

York.—Boy Scouts of Red Lion have sold more than $11,000 worth of war savings stamps. The highest individual honor was held by Arthur Keyports, who disposed of $1610 worth.

Lehighton.—The resignation by Milton Schapel as chief of police here leaves a vacancy in that office, which town council has not yet been able to fill.

Summit Hill.—A movement to extend the boundaries of Lansford east toward Nesquehoning, which would mean the appropriating of land included in the present limits of Summit Hill borough, will be opposed by this town, as it would deprive the town of several large collieries, the main source of its taxes.

Mertztown.—Thieves sawed the lock from the door at the main entrance of the Mertztown high school building and stole the $100 talking machine presented to the school by a former principal. This was the sixth time the schoolhouse was robbed within the last two years, and the schoolrooms were almost entirely stripped of their mural adornments, including valuable oil paintings of Presidents Lincoln and McKinley. The matter has been placed in the hands of County Detective Krick.

Oakland.—A flock of sixteen sheep of William A. Michael, of District No. 4, was recently wiped out by dogs. Ten were killed outright and the other six were badly maimed. Mr. Michael killed one of the two dogs that he saw in the inclosure, but the animal bore no identification tag, hence the owner will not be arrested.

White Haven.—James N. Ditterline, of East Side borough, near here, was appointed constable in and for East Side by Judge Barber at Mauch Chunk. Harry A. Keiper, of Kidder township, likewise was appointed constable for the district in which he resides.

West Chester.—William Proctor, forty-eight, formerly dog catcher in the borough of Parkersburg, is in prison here charged with shooting and fatally wounding James Brady, white following an altercation. Brady is in a Conteeville hospital and Proctor is being held to await the result of his wounds.

Marysville.—The working force in the Marysville preference freight yards of the Pennsylvania railroad is being continually augmented by the addition of soldiers returning from France. The supply of labor has not yet equalled the demand and more employes, especially as members of the clerical force, are being hired.

Beaver Falls.—Impetus is being given a movement lately started for the building of a community home by Y. M. C. A. building for the returning soldiers and sailors, with the appointment of a committee to plan a working basis. Members of the committee are some of the best-known men of the community.

Lebanon.—The 2500 employes of the Hershey Chocolate company, at the Hershey plant have been notified of the payment, to be made early in the new year, of a 5 per cent bonus on their 1918 earnings. The Hershey company has been working on war orders and only recently completed a monster government order for Christmas chocolates for the American troops on overseas duty.

Erie.—The Manufacturers' association of this city entered complaint before the public service commission against the new rates of the Mutual Telephone company.

Chambersburg.—Restoration of two passenger and mail trains on the Cumberland Valley road is petitioned for by the citizens of Chambersburg.

Heverly.—Falling asleep on the railroad track near Heverly, Clearfield county, John Hollinko was run over by a train, and is dying in a hospital.

Harrisburg.—All critically ill with influenza, Otto B. Tripp, his wife and four children were taken helpless from their home to a Harrisburg hospital.

Chambersburg.—For violating orders regarding admission of children during the influenza quarantine, a moving picture house here has been closed.

Harrisburg.—Commutation of the death sentence of Luther Knox, of Armstrong, to life imprisonment has been granted on an official report that he is insane.

Carlisle.—The unidentified shell-shocked soldier so long under treatment here has been found to be Sergeant Charles Pembura, of Bridgeport, Conn.

Pottstown.—The school board has decided to take summary measures against violation of the compulsory attendance law.

Reading.—Twenty Reading members of Company I, fourth regiment, Pennsylvania national guard, now a part of the Rainbow division, were killed in action overseas.

Bethlehem.—When a moving picture theatre here announced free admission to every child who brought a potato, nearly 2000 youngsters brought more than twenty-one bushels of potatoes, which were given to the Children's Home.

Scranton.—Accused of stealing from freight cars, A. L. Campfield, conductor, and Charles Scutt, brakeman, on the D. & H. railroad, are held in $1000 bail each at Scranton.

Hazleton.—In the woods between here and White Haven, James Russell, of Freeland, discovered the carcass of a cow in a steel trap that had evidently been set for bears.

Mauch Chunk.—A big landslide, carrying with it 100 tons of debris, came from the mountain here and settled on the tracks of the New Jersey Central railroad, delaying traffic for some time, but was removed before any damage resulted.

Allentown.—Mitchel Arbulina, aged thirty-two, of East Allentown, was struck by an automobile while on his way home and was instantly killed. About the same time fourteen-year-old Luther Dilcher, riding a bicycle, was run down by a United States postal truck and was fatally injured, dying on his way to the hospital.

Allentown.—Local business houses were flooded with bogus checks during the holiday rush, the worthless paper in each case being for $13, and purported to be signed by the same person.

Reading.—The Tivoli Camping club, of this city, was the first applicant for a dog license for 1919. County Treasurer E. C. Gery has received 13,000 licenses and expects to issue all of them.

Connellsville.—Owing to the fact that the insurance policy on the city garbage plant near Snyderstown was permitted to lapse without the knowledge of the city council, the building which was destroyed will be a total loss.

Womelsdorf.—Jerome Emerich has purchased the Keener flour and gristmill at Host, near here. He has installed electric power, and farmers in this locality are returning to the practice of using home-ground feed instead of that shipped from the west.

Port Royal.—William M. Bender, fifty years old, a track laborer on the Pennsylvania railroad, was struck and instantly killed by a passenger train a mile east of this place. While engaged about his duties, he failed to notice the train's approach.

Reading.—Wellington Dietrich, a wealthy member of the First Reformed church, presented the church with a $1900 check as a Christmas gift. Last Christmas Mr. Dietrich gave the treasury of the church $8500 for the purchase of a new pipe organ.

Reading.—Thomas L. Toker, of this city, an Argonne forest battle survivor, at home here recovering from the effects of gas, was granted a marriage license to wed Miss Catherine A. Heffernan, daughter of Mrs. Catherine Heffernan. His brother, Sergeant Harry Toker, was killed in the Argonne.

Mauch Chunk.—Every one of the numerous rural postoffices in Carbon county has now been abandoned, and former patrons furnished with free rural delivery.

Allentown.—Paul T. three-year-old son of Peter Druckenmiller, was killed in a singular manner when a board, forming part of a pen in which a Christmas goose was confined, fell on the child, breaking its neck, causing instant death.

Hellertown.—Wilson Fritchman, so far this season has captured six foxes.

Bethlehem.—The Rotary club has given the Children's Home a $100 Liberty Bond.

Reading.—Berks' school children contributed more than $1000 to a fund to fight tuberculosis in that county.

Lehighton.—Gregory Fellers is the first Lehighton soldier to arrive home from France. He was located at an aviation station in France.

Doylestown.—The Presbyterian Women's Missionary society here sent a box of clothing valued at $60 to a colored mission in Charleston, S. C.

GERMANY MUST PAY

Kaiser's Men Responsible for Millions of Murders.

CANNOT PAY FOR LIVES LOST

Nation Must Be Forced to Pay and Pay, Until It Has Learned That Might Is Not Right.

By WRIGHT A. PATTERSON.

There are in France and Belgium today very close to 3,000,000 soldier graves that would not have been there had Germany not started a war of conquest to gratify the selfish ambitions of a selfish people for world domination.

In these graves are buried the heroes of America, of England, of France, of Belgium, of Italy, of Canada, of Australia, of South Africa, of India, of Portugal, of Morocco, of China and other parts of the world. These heroes gave their lives that the cruelly selfish plans of the Boche might be defeated; that the world might be a dwelling place for freemen and not for the slaves of autocracy. And the war in which they made the last great sacrifice was started by Germany only to gratify the selfish greed of a people who had been taught that might is right.

I realized the tragic interest of America in these graves as I walked over the hilltop at Guillumont farm, near the village of Bony, and found there two large cemeteries in which American dead lie buried. I realized it anew as Gen. Henry Rawlinson, commanding the Fourth British army, recounted to me the incidents of that battle in which American troops made the first break in the Hindenburg line, and when he told me of the wonderful gallantry of those American boys, "the most gallant troops that ever fought on a battlefield."

Today more than 1,000 of those gallant American boys are buried in soldier graves on that battlefield, and little wooden crosses mark their resting places.

Severe Lesson for Germany.

German money cannot pay for those lives, but that spirit of greed, of wantonness, of selfish ambition, that produced the senseless, needless war in which they died, must be crushed, and it can be crushed only by making the German pay, and pay, and pay, until he has learned that might is not right and that war for the purposes of conquest and domination is not profitable.

An American regiment, to which I had belonged some years ago, and in which were enrolled many personal friends, had fought on that field. As I walked beside the long rows of wooden crosses, and knew that some of them marked the resting places of my friends, I felt, as any other American would have felt under the same conditions, that Germany must pay in order that Germany should learn that might is not right.

I am sure that every father, every mother, every brother, every sister, every relative and friend of those American boys who are buried on European battlefields will feel that Germany must pay and pay heavily for the desolation she has caused throughout the world.

There is on the Somme battlefields, not far from what once was the beautiful little city of Peronne, a soldiers' cemetery in which British troops are buried. On each little wooden cross had been painted the name of the soldier buried beneath it, as well as the letter of his company and the number of his battalion. In the onrush of the Hun's last March this cemetery was taken, and the wanton cruelty of the Boche is now better illustrated than by the fact that he went through that cemetery and painted out the names of these British dead.

Should Pay to the Limit.

Should the Boche not pay for such dastardly work as that? Should he not pay for attempting to deprive the relatives and friends of those British soldiers of knowing their final resting place, even though, thanks to the British graves commission, the attempt will not be successful? He must pay the penalty just as any other criminal must pay the penalty for his crimes. The world cannot send an entire nation to jail, but the world can today punish the nations that have committed the most terrible crimes known to modern times, at least, by making the people of these nations work only that they may pay.

Among the saddest sights to be found in the battle areas of Europe today is the lonely grave, the little cross that stands by itself and marks the spot where a soldier met death by a stray shell. There were many, many thousands of these seen along the sides of the thousand miles of northern France, and in very many cases they marked the spot where a German shell had caught a transport driver as he guided his truck to or from the front. The boys who lie in these lonely graves were heroic American boys, heroic French boys, heroic British boys, and they have paid the great price that the Boche might not destroy the freedom of the world. They gave their all, and whatever the Boche may be made to pay will be small in comparison with this sacrifice.

Near what was the city of Noyon one may see a striking comparison between the methods of the Boche and those of the nations that have been fighting the Germans. Here lie buried side by side both French and German soldiers. Around each cemetery the French have built a fence. Over each French grave flies a French flag, and on each German grave green boughs have been placed by the French. Such

DANDRUFF MAKES HAIR FALL OUT

A small bottle of "Danderine" keeps hair thick, strong, beautiful.

Girls! Try this! Doubles beauty of your hair in a few moments.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp. A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine for a few cents at any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.—Adv.

LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE IF SICK, CROSS, FEVERISH

HURRY, MOTHER! REMOVE POISONS FROM LITTLE STOMACH, LIVER, BOWELS.

GIVE CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS AT ONCE IF BILIOUS OR CONSTIPATED.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of the little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative;" they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.
