

Paragraphs of News Taken from the Files of the Reporter of 1884.

April 23, 1884

The prospect of the early completion of the railroad to our town is already noticed in increased activity; improvements are going on and all the vacant dwellings and business rooms are taken up, with a demand for more.

Treasurer Keller took fifty-seven head of stall-fed cattle through here, a few days ago, which were shipped by cars to Philadelphia.

Last Wednesday night an attempt was made to rob Wolf's store. The thieves forced the door until the lock broke, but the iron cross-bar inside prevented the opening of the door. The noise made attracted the attention of some one, and the burglars seeing they were detected, fled, firing a pistol as they ran.

Prof. Robb, late principal of the Mifflinburg schools, opened a select school here last Monday.

Thirteen carloads of iron reached Spring Mills on Saturday, for our road; and Mr. Vandyke has begun laying track. The roadbed is trimmed up to Centre Hall and ready for ties and rails. We expect the construction train to reach our town within three weeks.

Henry "Boozer" has now opened his meat market, in the building near the hotel.

The church to be built at Aaronsburg will now be Reformed, the Presbyterians having withdrawn. Robert Smith is the contractor.

Alexander and Keller have awakened a business boom with their new store at Linden Hall.

REBERSBURG.

Edwin Guiseville has found employment at Lock Haven, in the paper mill.

The stork made a visit last week at the Adam Bethlehem home and left a baby girl, number 4.

Jerry Brungart spent part of last week in the western part of this state. Some say he had the Dodge fever.

Lester Minnich, who is employed at Milton, spent Sunday with his family in this place.

William Shultz, one of our energetic young men, has rented a small farm two miles west of Madisonburg and will commence farming in the spring.

Jacob Winkleblech was compelled to quit operating his saw-mill for several weeks on account of some of his hands and their families having the "flu".

Norman Bierly left on Monday for Flemington, where he has found employment at the Long grist mill as a truck driver.

Justice J. W. Carlin is closing out his store goods and will vacate the store room the first of April. From then on he will give his entire time to legal business.

Our town is under ban. All loafing and public gatherings forbidden. Schools and churches are closed, on account of a fresh out break of influenza. Seventy-five cases are reported by the board of health.

W. S. S. LIMIT HOLDERS.

It was the intention of your Chairman to give the names and residences of the 181 persons in Centre County who purchased the limit ($1000.00 maturity value) of War Saving Stamps during the year, 1918, but quite a number of the Limit Holders requested that their names be not made public. The best that can be done therefore under the circumstances, is to give a statement of the said Limit Holders by post offices, and which is as follows:—

Bellefonte	47
Pleasant Gap	1
Penn'a Furnace, R. F. D.	3
Warriors Mark, R. F. D.	12
Port Matilda, R. F. D.	3

Total	181

Half Moon Township has 15 Limit Holders, they receiving their mail at either Warriors Mark R. F. D. or from Port Matilda, R. F. D.

Where credit is given to Bellefonte, Phillipsburg, State College, Spring Mills and Centre Hall, the Limit Holders receiving their mail by the R. F. D. route are included in said post office report as will appear from the above statement. The Limit Holders receiving their mail through the Penn'a Furnace R. F. D. route live in Ferguson Township, and the one Limit Holder credited to Nittany lives in the village of Jacksonsville.

The above 181 Limit Holders are responsible for raising $181,000.00 of the quota allotted in Centre County, and they are entitled to an exceptionally full share of credit for their patriotic service. Individuals only were Limit Holders. Not a single corporation in Centre County took advantage of our government's provisions to become Limit Holders of W. S. S.

It will be of special interest for you to know that three of the above Limit Holders were in active service and personally engaged in a number of battles at the Front during the "World War."

Very truly yours,
W. HARRISON WALKER,
Chairman War Savings Committee for Centre County.

Gold in Goose's Gizzard.

Strange and miraculous things are occurring every day, but one of the strangest of occurrences was brought to our attention Wednesday morning by Nelson Robb, secretary and treasurer of the Bellefonte Trust Company, says the Keystone Gazette.

Tuesday afternoon about the time of closing the bank, two ladies from Bush Addition, a suburb of Bellefonte, came to the door on High street, leading into the private apartment of the bank, and Mr. Robb gave them a cordial welcome. One of the ladies was Mrs. Curtin C. Taylor, and in her hand she had a gold coin which she handed to Mr. Robb, inquiring as to what it was worth. Mr. Robb on taking the coin found that it had been worn perfectly smooth on both sides so that it was impossible for him to tell as to which denomination it belonged. The lady was informed that the piece could be sent to the mint and whatever they made it she would get.

In the meantime Mr. Robb became curious to know where she had gotten the coin. Mrs. Taylor hesitated a little about telling the story, and Mr. Robb informed her that if it was something private he would not press the answer. Then Mrs. Taylor volunteered to tell the story, which was to the effect that she had killed a goose for New Year's and while removing the insides she found the coin in the gizzard. The only solution to the problem is that the goose picked up the coin a long time ago and as it revolved in the gizzard it was worn smooth by coming in contact with pebbles and other articles picked up by the bird. It is certainly a good place to purchase a goose where the "fillings" are found so precious.

Why Meat Prices Vary in Different Stores

Prime steers	$19.00@20.25
Good to choice steers	17.00@18.00
Common to medium steers	16.75@17.75
Fairlings, fair to fancy	16.00@19.00
Fat cows and heifers	8.25@10.25
Canning cows and heifers	7.25@ 8.25
Bulls, plain to best	6.50@12.50
Poor to fancy calves	6.75@15.75
Western range steers	10.00@18.00

These newspaper quotations represent live cattle prices in Chicago on December 30th, 1918.

The list shows price ranges on nine general classified groups with a spread of $13.85 per cwt.—the lowest at $6.50 and the highest at $20.35.

Why this variation in price?

Because the meat from different animals varies greatly in quality and weight.

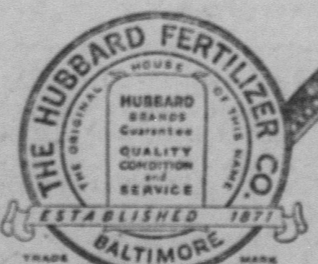

Although the quotations shown are in nine divisions, Swift & Company grades cattle into 34 general classes, and each class into a variety of weights and qualities.

As a result of these differences in cattle prices, (due to differences in weights and meat qualities), there is a range of 15 cents in Swift & Company's selling prices of beef carcasses.

These facts explain:

- 1—Why retail prices vary in different stores.
- 2—Why it would be difficult to regulate prices of cattle or beef.
- 3—Why it requires experts to judge cattle and to sell meat, so as to yield the profit of only a fraction of a cent a pound—a profit too small to affect prices.
