SECRETS OF WAR NOW REVEALED

British Book Shows Germany's Double Dealing

SOME DAMNING REVELATIONS

Ultimatum Deliberately Timed When President Poincare And Premier Viviani Were At Sea.

London.-Some of the accepted stories of the happenings of the momentous days just prior to the war. it is understood, are shattered in a book based on official documents and personal notes of diplomats and officials just issued.

The book characterizes as a fallacy the belief that the assassination of Archduke Francis Ferdinand at Sarajevo was a "stage managed afneeds a gentle, thorough cleansing at edge gained from official documents that if the assassination had not occurred the war certainly would have been started very soon.

Mr. Hurley left here last November with Herbert Hoover, of the Food Administration, to make a study of the shipping situation, formulate plans for getting American soldiers home and arrange for sending food supplies to Europe.

In a statement issued upon his arrival Mr. Hurley said an arrangement had been reached at Treves, on January 17, regarding the turn over of the German Fleet by a commission consisting of representatives of Allied countries and those of Germany.

"From information now at hand," Mr. Hurley said, "it appears that the total available German passenger tonnage suitable for carrying troops is over 600,000 tons gross. This estimate does not include the Bismarck, of 50,000 tons gross, which is not yet completed, nor the Imperator, sister sideration, and the resultant piling ship of the Leviathan, which cannot tures at the time of all times when thermore, this total does not include the strictest economy is needed, have the other large vessels, such as Tirpitz, yielded one excellent reaction, name- Hindenburg and Columbus, concerning which no reports have yet been re ceived.
