THE CENTRE: REPORTER.

THURSDAY, MARCH 13, 1919.

THIRTY-FIVE YEARS AGO.

Paragraphs of News Taken from the Files of the Reporter of 1884.

July 16, 1884. George Harpster, of Manor Hill, died on the 17th ult., of lock jaw, caused by a cut on the instep.

Jacob McCool has found some heavy chunks of iron ore on one of his tracts of mountain land.

Steel rails are used on the Penns Valley road and all work is being done as for a first-class railroad.

On Saturday last a loaded wagon of John Geistweit, in Haines township, ran over a six year old daughter of Charles Hosterman, crushing her leg above the knee.

On Tussday when David Runkle, of this place, had occasion to make use of a set of double driving harness which he kept in his stable, he found that some body had used his knife on them, cutting them so bad that no use could be made of the harness.

Our farmers are about through harvesting. Harvesting in Penns Valley is now mostly done by self-binders.

Miss Ida, daughter of John Sankey, living a short distance above Centre Hall, on Wednesday last fell from a cherry tree, causing a dislocation of the shoulder, and a serious injury, probably a fracture of the hip.

On last Saturday a distressing accident befell William Runkle, a son of James Runkle, of near Tusseyville. The young man was on a Buckeye reaper, the seat of which gave way and Mr. Runkle was thrown on the platform of the machine; his leg was caught in the knives and one of his feet almost severed at the ankle. The father fortunately was present to give his son aid, and bandaged his leg, which no doubt saved the young man'from bleeding to death. Dr. Alexander was called and in using all his skill to avoid amputation of the foot.

D. J. Meyer, of this place, has returned from a visit to Chicago, Ill.

Engineer P. J. White was here on Tuesday to locate the Centre Hall depot. The site thought most desirable and convenient is on the north side of the railroad and a short distance east of the pike.

Dr. Charles Gutelius, of Mifflinburg. was here last week in the interest of the Mifflinburg Sabbath-school to engage grounds for a basket picnic. The schools will number about 800 individuals and arrive some time in the latter part of this month, if satisfactory arrangements can be made for a special train. The ground fixed on is Wolf's beautiful woods at the lower end of Who Benefits By High Prices?

You feel that retail meat prices are too high. Your retailer says he has to pay higher prices to the packers.

Swift & Company prove that out of every dollar the retailer pays to the packers for meat, 2 cents is for packers' profit, 13 cents is for operating expenses, and 85 cents goes to the stock raiser; and that the prices of live . stock and meat move up and down together.

The live-stock raiser points to rising costs of raising live stock.

Labor reminds us that higher wages must go hand in hand with the new cost of living.

No one, apparently, is responsible. No one, apparently, is benefited by higher prices and higher income.

We are all living on a highpriced scale. One trouble is, that the number of dollars has multiplied faster than the quantity of goods, so that each dollar buys less than formerly.

Do You Suffer from Eye Strain ?

Twitching of eyelids, occasional spells of dizziness, nauseau, constant headaches, etc., are symptoms from which to judge.

> My glasses quickly relieve such troubles.

This trade mark on a fertilizer bag is your assurance that it comes from the original house of Hubbard. It is your guarantee of genuinely good—uniformly good fertilizer that makes the soil smile with a harvest.

American Farmers did big things in the war. Now they must raise bigger, better crops to help feed a famine-threatened world. Hubbard brands mean a better yield. They spread freely and evenly. Make sure. Order early through your dealer.
