Women can obtain greater physical strength and power so soon as they determine to do so, and adopt a different mode of living. There is absolutely nothing in the woman's organization that forbids it, as we are finding out more and more daily. Many young women are too lazy to grow strong. They cannot walk a dozen blocks, or do anything that calls for the slightest physical strength. Why? Because there is an inherent quality in the woman's body forbidding it? Not at all. Because they never have done it. There is no other reason on earth.

The women who are growing stronger mentally and physically can struggle at the objects who tell them they cannot do this or that, and answer by doing what they are accused of being incapable of doing. But the more timid and younger ones, who yet hesitate to venture into new fields of activity in the face of opposition and ridicule, need the assistance of professional opinion and the encouragement of those who have gone before.—Montreal Herald.

FOREIGN-BORN LEAD IN LOAN DRIVE

Section of a Group of Foreign-Language Representatives Who Met in Philadelphia to Boost the Victory Liberty Loan.

Foreign-born citizens of the Third Federal Reserve District won the distinction of being the first group of the new Victory Liberty Loan organization to start work when they launched their campaign in Philadelphia on Tuesday, March 4.

Representatives of nineteen different nationalities, comprising the sub-committee chairmen of the Foreign Language Division, attended and made suggestions for the conduct of the Victory Liberty Loan campaign. In line with the plans of the general committee, this is to be handled on a more intensive scale than any of the four previous loans. In the absence of Judge Joseph Buffington, Chairman, Cassimir A. Stenkiewicz, Executive Secretary, presided.

An outline of the new organization was given by A. E. Berry, associate director of the War Loan Organization for the Third Federal Reserve District.

"In the security to be offered in the Victory Liberty Loan," he said, "the chief difference from other loans is that instead of offering bonds that mature in fifteen years, the government will offer notes which it will agree to repay in one, two, three, four or five years."

To illustrate his point, Mr. Berry said the securities about to be offered are more like currency, which is payable on demand. He also emphasized that one never dreams of selling a dollar at less than its face value.

"Security men who know what they are talking about say there are hardly any securities on the market that give a better net return than government bonds," he said. "The notes, because of the new tax conditions under which they will be sold, will give a better net return than anything else."

He likened the members of the Foreign Language Division to trustees for the government in their mission of explaining the Victory Liberty Loan to foreign-born peoples.

E. McLain Watters, Chairman of the Advisory Committee for Pennsylvania of the War Loan Organization, said that foreign-born people of the Third

Saints at Earthly Courts.

They tell a tale of two great saints at court, one a Dominican, one a Franciscan. The king of France had the honor to entertain the angel of the schools at dinner, once upon a time. Never a word spoke he, nor morsel ate. His eyes were fixed on the opposite wall, while his mind followed out a train of thought to its conclusion; then followed a mighty thump on the table, and an exclamation: "Now that is conclusive against the Manichaeans!" St. Bonaventura sat at such a banquet, gazing intently upon the queen. The king said: "Good Brother Bonaventura, what thinkest thou?" To whom the Franciscan said: "Ah, sire, I think, if the beauty of an earthly monarch be so great, what must be the beauty of the Queen of Heaven!"

Praying and Doing.

Lord Palmerston—"Pam" as he was affectionately termed by his friends—was one of the shrewdest statesmen that ever lived. When petitioned by the Scotch clergy to appoint a day for fasting and prayer, so that a threatened epidemic of cholera might be averted, he replied:

"Clean your streets, keep your homes clean, promote cleanliness and health among the poor, see that they are plentifully supplied with good food and clothing, and employ right sanitary measures generally, and you will have no occasion to fast and pray, nor will the Lord hear your prayer while these his preventors remain unheeded."
