THIRTY-FIVE YEARS AGO.

Paragraphs of News Taken from the Files of the Reporter of 1884.

September 3, 1884.
Dr. Rishel, of this place, thinks of locating at Milroy.

The Aaronburg Lutheran charge and the Centre Hall Reformed charge are vacant.

The next Granger picnic will be held on the mountain, at Centre Hall, Thursday, September 18.

I. J. Grenoble thinks of establishing a branch grain house at Oak Hall with the opening of our railroad.

Mr. Kennedy, jeweler, has purchased a large and handsome safe, and will remove his establishment to the Durst store room. Mr. Kennedy is a first-class watchmaker and has a skillful assistant in Mr. Stillson.

An infant child of Howard Spangler, of Bellefonte, aged about three months, which was brought over by its parents on Friday last, visiting at Mr. John Spangler's, in this place, took cholera infantum, and died, on Monday.

REBERSBURG.

A new iron bridge with a concrete floor will take the place of the old iron bridge that spans Elk creek one mile west of Smulton.

Mrs. Samuel Shaffer is on the sick list, and is confined to her bed.

Earnest Harry, who was in the service in France and who has received several slight wounds while going over the top, visited old acquaintances in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Israel Wance attended the funeral of Allen Bower, at Aaronburg, on Friday.

Just who will be the Rebersburg postmaster is not yet made known.

Easter mass was held early Easter morning in the school building at this place. Quite a number of town people were in attendance.

E. Bair is making preparations to build a large manure shed to the barn at the farm he bought from Frank Shultz.

Prof. E. S. Stover, of Bloomfield, N. J., and his father, Scott Stover, had telephones placed in the dwelling houses on their two farms the past week.

Mrs. Scott Stover is spending this week at Pine Creek with her daughter, Mrs. J. D. Houser.

Harry Bair and daughter, of Altoona, spent Sunday at the Wm. Bair home.

One day last week Russel Beckenbach and Miss Alice Weber made a trip to Lock Haven and while there they had the nuptial knot tied.

Trout Fishermen Find Body of Drowned Man.

While whipping Kishacoquillas creek at a point just back of Gibboney's woolen mills, near Lewistown, two Rebersville fishermen, Frank Rowe and Paul Hetrick, Thursday morning were startled by the gruesome discovery of a man's dead body lying in the creek's shallow waters.

The victim was lying face down in the stream and had evidently been dead several days.

Basing their belief on the clothes the man wore those viewing the body are firm in their statement that the victim is a Philadelphia surveyor who has been surveying land for the Kulp planing mill in that region. The man has not been seen since last Monday and did not give his name to anyone in the neighborhood.

How the man got into the creek is a complete mystery but the supposition is that he fell off the foot log leading to Cedar Hill station of the K. V. railroad. If this theory is correct he must have been rendered unconscious by the fall as the water is low at that point and even if the man could not swim it would not have been a difficult matter for him to have waded out.

Grange Booster Meeting.

The Executive Committee of the Pennsylvania State Grange has arranged for a series of booster meetings that promise to go down in Grange annals as leading events of their kind. The first meeting of the series is booked to be held at West Chester on April 22. Three other meetings will be held, as follows: Scranton, April 23; Williamsport April 24, and DuBois, April 25.

There will be morning, afternoon and evening sessions at all these meetings, which will be presided over by John A. McSparran, Master of the Pennsylvania State Grange. Hon. Gifford Pinchot, chairman of the Grange committee on conservation, Congressman John R. Varr, of Scranton, and other prominent Grangers will address the meetings. All fourth degree members are welcome to attend.

The primary purpose of these meetings is to discuss the problems of reconstruction with reference to their bearing on agriculture and to exemplify the ritualistic work of the Grange. The sixth degree will be conferred at the evening sessions. Dr. C. C. Rankin, of West Chester, will have charge of this feature of the program.

Many Grangers are organizing automobile parties and will travel long distances to attend these meetings.

The estimated average price paid for commercial fertilizer in the southern-tier counties of Pennsylvania last year was $30.00 per ton and in the northern-tier counties $32.10.

Build a Silo and Provide Cheaper and Better Feed for Your Cows.

The question of reducing expenses is one that is uppermost in the minds of many dairymen. In this connection Fred. Rasmussen, Secretary of Agriculture, says that the cost of feeding dairy cows can be reduced by providing a silo. Two tons of hay to the acre is a good yield yet it will feed a cow about six months, while the same acre will grow sixteen tons of silage, corn and feed five cows about six months. Of course, a cow needs a small amount of hay too but this is more than offset by the extra benefit obtained from feeding silage as it is a green succulent feed and keeps the cows in a better physical condition. Now is the time to plan for building in order to provide for next winter's feeding.

The Pennsylvania State College, State College, Pa., has published a very interesting bulletin on silo construction which will be a great help to any one contemplating building a silo.

State Agricultural Notes.

It appears that no material damage was done to the fruit by the recent cold spell.

During the past winter the grain had ten days of snow protection compared with ten weeks the winter previous.

No man can raise poultry and produce eggs at so low a cost as the farmer.

Word comes from Snyder county that many farmers are improving their dairy herds by buying a registered bull and one or two registered cows or heifers.

The average price of potatoes over the State on April first was $1.10 compared with 0.96 one year ago. The best price seems to prevail in Greene county.

The farmer needs clean, sober, industrious help, as he has to take his help into his home, to eat at his table, to lodge in his house and to associate with his family.

"Clean up and paint up!",
Don't you hear the call?
Indoors and outdoors
Work for each and all!
Clean house—and paint house,
White or brown or red;
Tidy up the back yard
And paint up the shed;
Burn the alley rubbish;
Send the tin can hence
After that—the thought is rich!
Fix that alley fence!

Still in Business at the Old Stand

Finding that a number of persons are at a loss to understand why I am still at the old stand doing business, having announced that I sold my store property, as an explanation would say that according to arrangements with purchaser, I am not compelled to vacate until August next.

So far as I know now I will be here up to the time to vacate, offering you staple merchandise, at least.

I still have a lot of seasonable goods to offer, and at prices less than any catalog house or home merchants are quoting.

Now then, sit up and take notice:

MEN'S WORK SHOES, $1.75 and up.
BOYS' " " " $1.25 and up.

In fact you are missing great bargains if you fail to try and secure some of my remaining stock of SHOES for Men, Women and children. I have some specially good Bargains in CHILDREN'S LOW SHOES.

IT'S PAINTING TIME—My line is not as big as it once was, but I still have many things that are needed in painting, and at PRE-WAR PRICES.
