FOR REGISTER.

We are authorized to announce the name of J. FRANK SMITH, of Bellefonte Borough, as a candidate for the nomination for Register of Wills and Clerk of the Orphans' Court of Centre County, subject to the rules governing the Democratic primaries.

FOR TREASURER.

We are authorized to announce the name of J. E. HARTER, of Penn Township, as a candidate for the nomination for County Treasurer, subject to the decision of the Democratic voters as expressed at the general primaries to be held Wednesday, September 17th, 1919.

FOR RECORDER.

We are authorized to announce the name of D. WAGNER GILES, of Bellefonte, as a candidate for the nomination for Recorder, subject to the decision of the Democratic voters as expressed at the general primaries to be held Wednesday, September 17th, 1919.

If our memory isn't far afield, none of the conspicuous opponents of the League of Nations was in Europe at any time during the war or has been there since. On the other hand, some of the leading advocates of the league have been over here where they got a first-hand picture of war's horrors, notably former Attorney General Wickham and former Postmaster General Hitchcock.

Undaunted by his earlier experience in Pennsylvania Republican politics, Gifford Pinchot returns to the attack. If he can unhorse Penrose, he will prove himself worthy to wear the Rooseveltian mantle.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Hazel Emery left on Saturday for Camp Dix, New Jersey, where she has secured employment in the government railroad service. Her work will be of a clerical nature.

Mrs. Kate Dale and sister, Miss Mollie Hoffer, after spending the winter months at the home of the former's son, Dr. P. H. Dale, at State College, have returned to Centre Hall.

Three boys had a narrow escape from drowning in the Susquehanna river, near Lewisburg, on Sunday evening, when their canoe capsized. Another canoe close by hurried to the aid of the lads.

Messrs. George F. Emerick and M. Luther Emerick will leave for Harrisburg this (Thursday) morning to attend the funeral of their brother, the late Dr. C. E. Emerick, which will be held in the afternoon.

The boys' and girls' orchestra and several members of the Orphanage band went to Tamaqua the latter part of last week to take part in the centennial celebration of the I. O. O. F., at that place, and as an appreciation of their entertainment the members of the order of that city, by popular subscription raised $600 for which amount a check was drawn and presented to the children to be used for the building fund of the Orphanage.

THE DEATH RECORD.

Dr. C. E. Emerick.

Dr. Charles Emanuel Emerick, a practicing physician of the city of Harrisburg, and a native of Potter township, passed away at his home in that city on Sunday evening. Overwork resulted in a breaking down of the system, which was responsible for his death.

Dr. Emerick was a son of John and Rebecca Emerick and was born on the old homestead, east of Centre Hall, about sixty-four years ago. Following his graduation from the medical college, he practiced his profession in Centre Hall for seventeen years, removing to Harrisburg about fifteen years ago. He was married three times: first to Miss Martha Condo; later to a Miss Bartley, of Huntingdon. Both preceded him to the beyond. His surviving widow was Miss Mary Harrison, of Harrisburg. There are no children but the following brothers and sister survive; namely, George F. Emerick, of near Centre Hall; M. Luther, of Centre Hall; Harvey, of Oregon; Oscar, of Freeport, Ill.; and Mrs. Mary Price, of Maxbess, North Dakota. Deceased was a member of the Lutheran church. Burial will be made at Harrisburg this (Thursday) afternoon.

GROVE.—James P. Grove, an aged resident of Gregg township, died at the home of his son, B. Gardner Grove, near Penns Cave, on Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock, of diseases incident to old age. He was seventy-three years old on December 5th, last.

Burial will be made in the Union cemetery at Farmers Mills, to-morrow (Friday) morning at 10:30 o'clock, Rev. R. R. Jones officiating.

BILGER.—William Bilger passed away at his home in Pleasant Gap, on Monday evening at six o'clock, as a result of a paralytic stroke, aged fifty-four years. His wife preceded him to the grave five years ago, but their remain two sons—Charles and Harry Bilger, of Pleasant Gap.

Burial will be made at Pleasant Gap this (Thursday) morning.

Were Ready With Machine Guns to Quell Riot.

The Bolsheviki outbreak was brought closer to home than most folks in this section anticipated last week. It was learned a few days after the uprising at Indiana, Penna., that the state had sent orders to Bellefonte asking that the members of the Machine Gun Troop of the Pennsylvania Militia, or enough of them to man two machine guns, be in readiness for a hurried call in case their services were needed.

Two big trucks were sent from the State Arsenal at Harrisburg and at Bellefonte two machine guns were placed on board, each with 2000 rounds of ammunition. The men were held in readiness for a call, but State Police and other officials of the law succeeded in keeping the upper hand of the situation and the men were not needed.

Lock Haven Man Killed in Collision of Auto and Buggy.

Russell Herman, aged twenty-two, was instantly killed near Loganton, Saturday night, his neck being broken in an automobile crash. The vehicle collided with a horse and buggy while Herman and four other young men were going to the scene of a fire at the barn of P. P. Barnes, near Eastville, to render assistance. Their lights went out and as they started back to refill the tanks they ran into the buggy. Herman was thrown against the top of the car. His brother, Edward, sustained severe injuries, four ribs being torn loose. Others in the party were more or less badly bruised and injured. The buggy was wrecked but the occupants escaped with bruises.

The fire to which the men were going, destroyed the Barnes barn, together with seven calves, all the tools and feed. It is believed to have been of incendiary origin.

Mifflinburg Defeats Bond Issue.

Mifflinburg defeated its bond issue of $9000 Saturday by 67 votes. About three hundred votes were polled in both wards of the town.

The bond issue was for the purchase of a lot and the erection of a building to contain the offices of the borough, house the fire machinery and furnish storage room for the borough machinery.

Hog Cholera Quarantine.

The order of general quarantine which was issued by the State Livestock Sanitary Board and became effective April 28th, is designed to prevent the spread of hog cholera. These counties are included in the order: Adams, Berks, Bucks, Carbon, Chester, Cumberland, Dauphin, Deleware, Franklin, Lancaster, Lebanon, Lehigh, Montgomery, Monroe, Northampton, Philadelphia and York.

Public sales of swine are forbidden, but a breeder may sell at auction healthy swine raised on his own farm, provided the premises has been free from cholera.

Swine handled through stock pens, public sale premises, railroad or other feeding or watering yards or pens, are forbidden to enter or to be moved from one place to another within or from the quarantine area, except when consigned to a recognized slaughtering center or establishment.

Healthy and unexposed swine for purposes other than immediate slaughter may be shipped into, within or from the quarantined area by railroad, but must be accompanied by a permit from the State Veterinarian and owner's affidavit. Clean cars must be provided and stock yards or sale yards avoided.

Swine moved into, within, or from the quarantined area by other means than railroad, for purposes other than immediate slaughter, must not be handled through stock yards or sale premises.

The removal of swine for any purpose from premises on which the disease exists, is forbidden except on official permit.

The removal of manure, litter, etc., that may convey contagion from such premises is also forbidden, except on official permit.

All stock yards and pens where trading in swine is conducted and all public sale premises, railroad yards and cars, are determined infected and are declared under quarantine.
