THIRTY-FIVE YEARS AGO.

Paragraphs of News Taken from the Files of the Reporter of 1884.

September 24, 1884. A horse belonging to William Bradford, at the Old Fort, fell down an embankment at the railroad and died from injuries sustained.

The dwelling house of Aaron Auman, in the mountains across from Penn Hall, was burned on Tuesday afternoon, 9th, with all its contents, including 80 M. F. Loy, farmer, Burnside. bushels of wheat and some $60 in

Rev. M. A. Sloat, one of the leading ministers of the Evangelical church, and some years ago a resident of Centre Hall, died in Cumberland county, on the Hiram Moore, laborer, S. Philipsburg. 10th, aged sixty years.

The Gentzell sawmill, in the Georges Valley mountains, was destroyed by fire L. E. Rossman, gentleman, Gregg. on the 18th. The mill had not been in A. W. Reese, merchant, Worth. use for some time. A quantity of lum- Frank W. Wingard, laborer, Haines. ber burned with the mill. The loss is about $1700; no insurance.

Sheriff Dunkle captured Miss Fortney, one of the fair daughters of Tusseyville, and made her his bride at Williamsport, on Monday. Rev. Fischer performed

The Grangers' picnic, on the mountain near Centre Hall, last Thursday, was very largly attended. There were between 4000 and 5000 people assembled. The roads were very dusty and rendered traveling unpleasant. Chairman L. Neff, with the committee, had all the usual decorations and preparations of the ground properly attended Flags, mottos, streamers, etc., lent pleasure to the eye. Two bands were present to enliven the occasion.

The Stone mill and dwelling house, owned by Simon Ruble, in Potter township, were destroyed by fire, on last Sunday night about two o'clock. The fire originated in the mill, from which the dwelling was distant some three or four rods, and as help was scarce, the house also took fire, and mill and house with all contents in them were burned. Mr. Ruble did not even save his books, which he claims were worth several thousand dollars. There was an insurance on the dwelling of $2000, in the Centre Hall company. Mr. Ruble had an actual insurance of $4000 in some outside company, which will fully cover his loss on the mill property. This fire obliterates an old landmark, as the Stone mill was one of the oldest in the valley. Mr. Ruble had about 200 bushels of wheat burned in the mill.

Sappho. Sappho's fragments are redolent of flowers; her woven verse, a "rich-red chlamys" in the sunshine, has a silver sheen in the moonlight. We hear the full-throated song of the "herald of the spring, the nightingale;" the breeze moves the apple boughs, the wind shakes the oak trees. Her allusions to the "hyacinths, darkening the ground when trampled under foot of shepherds;" the "fine, soft bloom of grass, trodden by the tender feet of Cretan women as they dance;" or the "golden pulse growing on the shore"-all these seem inevitable to one who has seen the acres of bright flowers that carpet the Islands of the nearby littoral of the Aslan coast. . . . In her Lesblan orchards the sweet quince-apple is still left hanging "solltary on the topmost bough upon its very end;" and there is heard "cool murmuring through apple boughs while slumber floateth down from quivering leaves."-Francis G. Allinson and Arna C. E. Allinson.

Matter of "Two Evils." A Londoner whose business is coaching stage aspirants tells this "One day my work was interrupted by a weak-featured but rather pretty girl of about eighteen. She was tastefully dressed, but had obviously been crying. She said she was wishful to adopt the profession of the stage. Had she ever played in amateur productions? No. Were her parents prepared to pay the fees? She had neither father nor mother. "Well, what are you?" he inquired. Then she sobbed. She was a housemaid in the service of a crochety old lady. When the professor advised her to return to her mistress, she exclaimed: "I can't bear 'er! I'd sooner go on the stage than stand her any longer."

Perfectly Innocent Fun. "Willie, are you and Roy in any mischief out there?" "Oh, no, ma," came the reply. "We're just playing with some eggs the grocer left, to see how many times we can catch them before they break."-Boston Transcript.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly falling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
