

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Rena Wagner entered the Lock Haven Normal, last week, for the spring term.

Mrs. S. W. Smith is attending the missionary convention, at Maseppa, this week.

Miss Flora Love of Bellefonte, visited her sister, Mrs. W. S. Martz, at Tusseyville, on Sunday.

A large concrete cistern is being built on the Hoy farm, tenanted by Thomas Delaney, at Old Fort.

The hour for Memorial Day service at Sprucetown is 1:30 o'clock. The speaker will be Rev. C. F. Catherman.

Who wouldn't be a High school graduate! Why, they have been the most conspicuous and envied creatures imaginable.

Have you noticed how soon the overseas fighter throws off the khaki and dons the civilian clothing? "The change is great," he says.

Mrs. William A. Magee and two sons, of Wenonah, New Jersey, are here on a vacation at the home of Mrs. Magee's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Huyett.

Mrs. Emma A. Fisher, Miss Anna Dale, Mrs. Anna Patterson and daughter Miss Frances, of Boalsburg, motored to Centre Hall on Saturday to visit friends.

All the members of the Red Cross are urged to take part in the Memorial Day parade which will start promptly at 6 p. m. from the Presbyterian church.—Chairman.

Reuben Spangler, a member of the A. E. F., 42nd ("Rainbow") Division, has been mustered out of the service and visited his father, Howard Spangler, in Centre Hall, this week.

Miss Margaret Jacobs attended a convention of the Rebekah lodge, I. O. O. F., in Johnstown, last week, and from there went to Stubeville, Ohio, to visit her brother, Guy W. Jacobs, and family.

The woman's committee in charge of the Victory loan campaign in Spring Mills have donated the German helmet which they received in recognition of their good work, to the Gregg township Vocational School, where it has been put on display.

W. F. Colyer and his tenant, George Bright, left on Monday for New York State where they are attending a four-day sale of thoroughbred Holstein cattle which is being held at Cortland. They expect to return by Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Scholl, of Lewistown, disposed of their household goods at public sale, last week, and after visiting relatives in Centre county for a short time will leave for Akron, Ohio, where Mr. Scholl is employed in a rubber manufacturing plant.

A centenary social was held by the local Methodist people in their church on Friday evening. Rev. C. F. Catherman was present and about 150 members of the various organizations of the church. Refreshments were served and the evening was enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. Daniel Kurtz, of Lancaster, mother of Rev. D. S. Kurtz of Centre Hall, observed her ninety-second birthday anniversary last week by cleaning the yard at her home. She still possesses remarkable vitality for one of her years. Her son John reached the age of seventy-one years, on the same day, at his home at North Lawrence, Ohio.

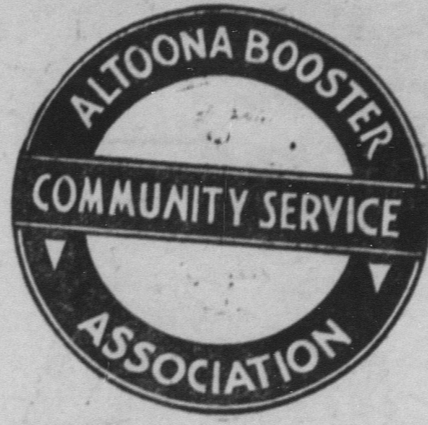

Miss Ella Decker, of Los Angeles, California, is contemplating a trip east in a few weeks, and will stop at Centre Hall and Spring Mills, to visit her brother at the latter place. She will make the trip by way of North Dakota, where she will visit her brother, Joseph Decker, and stepmother, Mrs. Greene Decker, before coming through to Pennsylvania.

Clayton Martz, who was among the seventy-five members of Co. A, 107th Machine Gun Battalion who arrived in a group at State College on Friday for the reception and parade, has returned to his home at Tusseyville. Soldier Martz escaped unhurt in all the fighting, although he stood close by when his comrades were killed and severely injured. He was close at hand when his com-mander, Major Leitzell, was wounded by a bursting shell, and witnessed sights which will leave their impress for years to come.

Eight and one half inches of rain in a week is an unprecedented record for this section. Such was the precipitation from Tuesday until Saturday of last week. The numerous soldier boys who returned home that week must have thought that there was little difference between weather conditions here and in France. Many corn fields were washed, making re-planting necessary. Never were so many cellars in Centre Hall flooded. In some the water stood at a depth of two feet. Roads in many places were badly washed and considerable repair work will be necessary.

The giving to the Salvation Army fund by our local well-to-dos has been very meager. The spirit is apparently that of throwing scrap food to the dogs. Then there is that claim that "everybody is after me for money for some charitable purpose," by those who seldom give at all to any charitable cause. Their claim is true only so far it relates to having been hailed for support—giving by them is not practiced except on rare occasions. The time for receiving these contributions has been extended until May 29th, which gives us time to consider whether those who have already contributed will not enlarge their gifts, and those who have not obligated themselves on any scale, to do so.

Hot Weather Necessities IN WEARING APPAREL

It is time now to begin to prepare your wardrobe for the warm weather that is "just around the corner." More people will take vacations this year than ever before. You will more than likely find your favorite resort crowded with strange faces, so, naturally you will want to appear at your best. To accomplish this you must be correctly and appropriately dressed.

Altoona merchants are ready with everything needed to make your summer wardrobe complete even to the most minute detail. Stocks were never so large nor assortments so varied as at the present time and styles are so chic and new it is a real pleasure to the merchant to show them.

The desire to be well dressed is a commendable one; the well dressed man or woman reflects a note of prosperity and well being that can be attained in almost no other way. So by all means be well dressed.

But how about the home surroundings? You will want them in keeping with your clothes; perhaps it's a new rug, carpet, rocker, bedroom or diningroom suite that's needed, new porch furniture, shades, a victrola or piano that will add to your pleasure and comfort.

Go over the whole house carefully, make list of your needs and if your neighborhood store does not have what you want, spend a few hours shopping in Altoona stores and you will be surprised to learn how cheaply and satisfactorily your wants can be supplied.

Altoona stores are good stores to shop in every day; but by all means visit them every Thursday, "Suburban Day"—the day of many opportunities for economical shopping.
