Teachers' Salary Increase Bill.

The bill provides that the minimum salaries shall be as follows:

Teachers holding provisional certificates, $60 per school month; professional certificates or state normal school certificates, $70; state normal school diplomas, county permanent certificates, or college provisional certificates, $80.

Teachers who in 1918 and 1919 received less than $100 per school month but whose salary is not increased by at least twenty-five per cent, under other sections of the bill are to receive an increase of twenty-five per cent; those receiving between $100 and $150 an increase of twenty per cent; between $150 and $200 an increase of fifteen per cent, and those receiving more than $200 a month an increase of ten per cent.

Of the salaries provided for in the bill in second, third and fourth class districts the commonwealth shall pay as follows: Those holding provisional certificates $5 per school month; professional or state normal certificates, $12.50; state normal school diplomas, county or state permanent certificates or college provisional certificates, $20 per month.

STATE TO PAY HALF.

The school districts are to pay one-half of all increases and the state the other half.

In addition to the portion of salary required to be paid by the state, the commonwealth shall pay to each teacher of a rural school holding a certificate higher than a provisional certificate, $10 per school month. A rural school, according to the act, shall be taken to mean any one or two room school not a high school situated in the open country or small center of population.

Any school district that does not increase salaries in accordance with the provisions of the bill shall forfeit its right to share in any appropriation for the public schools of the state.

No payments on account of any increases shall be made by the state where the compensation of any teacher or nurse is reduced for the school year 1919 or 1920 or in any subsequent school year below the compensation paid for the school year 1918 and 1919.

"Found Seven Rats Dead in Bin Next Morning."

Robert Woodruff says: "My premises were infested with rats. I tried RAT-SNAP on friend's recommendation. Next morning found seven dead rats in bin, two near feed box, three in stall. Found large number since. No smell from dead rats—RAT-SNAP dries them up. Best thing I have ever used." Three sizes, 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold and guaranteed by C. M. Smith, Centre Hall; W. C. Meyer, Spring Mills, Pa.

Barn Destroyed by Lightning.

During a severe electrical storm late Saturday night, the barn on the farm of Mrs. Anne T. H. Hensy, about two miles northwest of State College, and tenanted by a Mr. Poorman, was struck by lightning and completely destroyed. Although it was two o'clock Sunday morning when the barn was struck, sufficient help was immediately secured to remove all of the ten head of horses before the flames reached them. A cow and a calf perished, and a number of implements were consumed.

The owner of the barn carried $2000 insurance in the Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Co., while Mr. Poorman carried $1000 on the contents of the barn in the Centre County Mutual Fire Insurance Co., P. of H.

Good News for Boys and Girls.

Here's good news for boys and girls. "Thrifty Jack" a new kind of Santa Claus, has a big supply of Savings Banks to give away.

"Jack" is a friend of "Uncle Sam" and makes his headquarters with the War Savings Division, in Philadelphia. He has sent supplies of the banks to all post offices and Savings Stamp agencies for free distribution to boys and girls who apply for them.

They are a real novelty in banks and "Jack" says the children will find them mighty interesting and useful. He wants every boy and girl to obtain one. All they have to do is step into the nearest post office or Savings Stamp agency and ask for a bank. They'll get it, and other interesting things along with it.

"And There Waan't the Slightest Smell from Dead Rats."

Writes John Simpkins, farmer of Annandale, N. J.: "Rats were costing me hundreds yearly; tried dogs, ferrets, poison, could not get rid of them. Bought $1.00 pkg. of RAT-SNAP (5 cakes). Used half, not a live rat since. Dead ones aplenty. I like RAT-SNAP because after killing rats it dries them up—leaves no smell." Three sizes 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold and guaranteed by C. M. Smith, Centre Hall; W. C. Meyer, Spring Mills, Pa.

Birds are valuable conservators of foliage because they feed on insect larva which eat the leaves. Birds destroy thousands of harmful insects which if not killed would in a few years destroy all vegetation.
