THURSDAY, JULY 17, 1919.

THIRTY-FIVE YEARS AGO.

Paragraphs of News Taken from the Files of the Reporter of 1884.

Nov. 19, 1884.

Mr. Hess' grain house at Linden Hall is ready for business.

Rev. Koser, of Pine Grove Mills Lutheran charge, has resigned.

J. Henry Keller, of this place, goes to Kansas this week, possibly if he can suit himself, to make it his home.

Wolf & Grove have the lumber contract for the Centre Hall railroad station.

Jacob Meese, with his separator, threshed 910 bushels of grain, on Wednesday, at Lingle's barn near Centre Hall. This is big threshing, and hard to beat.

J. O. Deiminger, having purchased several lots near the railroad station, intends to erect carriage shops on them next spring.

The Democracy held quite a lively racket at Centre Hall on Thursday evening, 13th. A delegation of horsemen, with D. C. Runkle as captain, escorted the Loop band and delegation to town and a parade was had through town. Anvils were kept booming all evening. Later the Farmers Mills band also arrived; an address was made by J. L. Spangler, after which a tar barrel, on a high pole, was planted in the square and burned. The barrel had been kept by John Rishel over twenty years, awaiting the jollification upon the election of a Democratic President.

Deaths of Centre Countians.

Dr. J. E. Ward, a Bellefonte dentist, aged sixty years. He was married to Miss Belle M. Stiver, of Centre Hall, who survives with three children.

Mrs. Elizabeth S. Smith, of near Pleasant Gap, died in the Bellefonte hospital, aged fifty-six years. She was formerly Miss Elizabeth Lonberger. Burial was made in the Centre Hall cemetery.

AARONSBURG.

Walter Orwig has accepted a position with H. H. Leitzell, the Millheim butcher.

W. A. Guisewite entertained, on Sunday, James Miller and family, Mrs. Lucy Russell and daughter Gertrude, all of Lewisburg.

While attending services in the Lutheran church on Sunday morning J. M. Harter and Mrs. Calvin Weaver both were seized with heart attacks and were removed to their homes.

Frank Miller, of New Jersey, spent Sunday at the Thomas Hull home.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Detwiler and the former's father of near Centre Hall took dinner on Sunday at the Warren Winklebeck home.

C. S. Musser, an overseas soldier discharged from the service, returned to his home here on Sunday.

Mrs. Carrie McKinney, of Millheim, spent some time with her sister, Mrs. A. S. Stover.

Harry Walter, a discharged overseas fighter, of Swengle, spent Sunday visiting friends in town.

High Power Radio Station for Bellefonte.

The postoffice department at Washington has contracted for the erection of three high power radio stations, the first of a chain in various cities to be used primarily for the direction of mail-carrying air-planes handicapped by fog. Stations will be established at Bellefonte and Cleveland, with a third at some point on Long Island or Newark, N. J. Appropriations for these already are available. Others will be erected at Washington and Chicago as soon as Congress provides funds.

Each station will have a range of 400 miles to mail air-planes and 700 miles between stations, the difference being due to the lesser sending ability of the airplanes' wireless.

The station at Bellefonte will be completed about the middle of October, while the other two decided upon are expected to be ready early in December.

Stolen Car Found.

The Hudson car belonging to Percival Rudy, of State College, which was stolen from the Nuttany Garage on the night of the Welcome-Home celebration at Bellefonte, was found at Hinkson Run Dam, about two miles from Johnstown, on Thursday, July 3rd. The watchman at a manufacturing plant located there discovered the abandoned car and immediately got into communication with the authorities at Harrisburg, and soon learned that the car belonged to Mr. Rudy, who was notified and left on the next train for Johnstown. The following day he returned with his car which was none the worse for the experience through which it had passed.

State Agricultural Notes.

Bordeaux mixture prevents tomato blight and rotting of the fruit.

Reports say that Snyder county will have the largest crop of hay since 1897.

The modern tendency is to take the burden off the man and put it on the machine.

Dust cabbage with powdered arsenate and hydrated lime or gypsum, one to four or five parts. There is no danger of poisoning the inside of the heads because they expand and grow outwardly.

A pound of swine flesh can be produced more cheaply than a pound of flesh in any other farm animal. The hog is built so compactly that there is very little waste in slaughtering, and it will eat many kinds of food that could not be disposed of otherwise.

Harvesting of wheat and rye is now in progress. While reports say that there has been some damage by fly, rust and storm, yet indications point to the largest crop ever produced in Pennsylvania.
