Rides at Head of Famous First Division

CROWDS WILD WITH JOY

Score Of Generals Serve On Staff-2,-000,000 Wildly Applaud As Veteran Heroes Give Great Military Review.

New York .- Over a five-mile flowerstrewn pathway, General Pershing led his famous First Division down Fifth avenue to the wild plaudits of 2,000,-000 proud countrymen. It was the last great review of the world war for New York and it was a fitting climax to a long series of military spectacles.

erans who won undying fame on the fields of France. For all of them it was one of life's most memorable days. As he rode down the avenue, the stern lines of the leader's face relaxed in the now famous Pershing smile, and Square at the end of the march, surrounded by his staff, he exclaimed:

"It was the most enthusiastic and patriotic outburst I ever have seen." Behind Pershing rode a score of major-generals and brigadiers and back of them strode the Commander's Guard of Honor, the world-famed composite regiment of doughboys, the flower of six divisions. Stalwart young giants, magnificent Americans, they scored in the nation's metropolice triumph far dearer to their hearts than the laurels they won in the victory reviews of Paris and London. Nearly all the men wore wound chevrons.

St. Paul .-- Readjustment of the cost machine. She says she enjoyed the of living, President Wilson declared in his address here, must await the establishment of a complete peace basis which would put labor and capital on their feet. In two addresses the President asserted, that the connection between acceptance of the peace treaty and amelioration of living conditions was a direct one, and that the world was ooking to America to take the lead in restoring the world to a sound ecoomic basis.

Mr. Wilson spoke in the morning at a special session of the Minnesota Legislature and in the evening at a public meeting at the St. Paul Auditorium. During the afternoon he also addressed a meeting in Minneapolis. When Mr. Wilson arrived at the St. Paul Auditorium he was loudly cheered by nearly 15,000 persons, who arose and sang the Star-Spangled Banner.

Mayor L. C. Hodgson, a Republican, introduced Mr. Wilson as "a great spiritual leader of American democracy" whose power was written "in the hearts of his people."

Opening his speech, Mr. Wilson said

GRATEFUL FOR PERSHING.

"Holds Place In Our Hearts Near Beloved Poilus," Declares Clemenceau.

Paris .- "The everlasting gratefulmess of France" was expressed by Premier Clemenceau in commenting upon General Pershing's homecoming. Clemenceau said:

"With General Pershing returning home after two years as commander of the American troops in France, I can only evoke indescribable emotion of the memory of the great soldier who, during the decisive campaign which began soon after the arrival of the first American- contingents. never doubted the issue of the fight, but said to himself: 'We must hold first and win next."

"From the handful of men who arrived with General Pershing to the formidable army he commanded when the common enemy surrendered, all were confident of their chief, whose value was soon revealed to us. We admired and revered him, giving him a place in our heart near the beloved poilus.

"With the whole of America acclaiming the man who led her sons to battle and to honor. I personally unite with France in a manifestation of unalterable friendship and everlasting gratefulness."
