Brown's claim that he only wants two successive terms is far fetched. He has now been twice elected for two full terms, the custom in this county. If he wants two successive terms he may have to be in the field until too old to "run" and then retire without having reached his goal.

Harter, the Penn township Democratic candidate for treasurer, has every qualification for the office to which he aspires. He has also a clean record as a citizen, business man and former candidate. He can meet any man in the county with a straight forward look.

Centre Hall ought to show a kindly spirit toward Frank Smith on election day. He was a good citizen, always pleasant and agreeable, and we all know how he fell in with the boys, many of whom are now old enough to make that little "x" after his name on the official ballot. Couldn't you give Frank a lift. It will be your last opportunity to do so.

There are other young, capable and deserving Republicans that might have been pitted against D. W. Geiss for Recorder, but Brown made them all stand back until he had his fill of office according to his notion. Of course, he will not be elected for the third time, but his greed for office spoiled the opportunity of some clean young Republican having the experience of a campaign.

It would be a political crime not to give Frank J. Smith his second term for the office of Register. Few defeated candidates remain as loyal and true as Smith. Defeat engendered no spirit of hate toward Democrats or Republicans. Give Smith a boost this time. He will not fail to appreciate your vote and will not be after a third term.

Dukeman, the Republican candidate for sheriff, if off duty on a furlough during which time he is hunting a county office. Dick Taylor stayed by his job in France, including a German prison, until it was completed, and now he is asking your vote for sheriff. Quite a difference. Taylor served his country for those who could not and now it is our turn to select which of these two men, one a policeman and the other a real overseas fighting man, shall be elected Sheriff. You agree that Taylor has the best claim on your vote.

Austin, the Republican candidate for county commissioner, surely deceives his looks. He doesn't look as though he didn't own an inch of real estate, nor does he act it. He poses as a man fully qualified to conduct the affairs of Centre county, when the fact of the matter is no matter how much he and his party run riot in high taxes, he will have no share in the payment of them. He'd make some county commissioner.

In making up your ticket remember it will not be complete without a vote for John J. Bower for District Attorney. He was regularly admitted to the bar some years ago and is altogether capable of filling the place.

Another evidence that the Republican politicians knew their men when they selected Austin and Yarnell as their candidates for the office of county commissioner is the fact that Austin doesn't own a bit of real estate. It is no difference to him how high taxes soar, he won't have any of it to pay.

The election of Messrs. Harter and Fry will insure four years of economy in the financial affairs of Centre county.

The Democratic candidates for county commissioner had no need to make a pre-election promise on bond issues. No one would believe that they would bond Centre county contrary to the wishes of the tax-payers, no matter what reports might be circulated. But no one now knows what Yarnell and Austin would do in the matter of bond issues or anything else should Centre county be unfortunate as to have them on the board of commissioners. If they are elected to office it is not intended that they use their own judgement—they will have the bosses.

THE DEATH RECORD.

HUBLER.—William Cook Hubler, a respected citizen of Centre Hall borough, passed away at his home on Saturday at 12:30 p. m. He sustained a stroke of paralysis on Monday previous while seated at the dinner table and since that time was practically unconscious. He was one of a family of fourteen children and was born at Aaronsburg. At the time of his death he was seventy-eight years, six months and twenty-three days old. He followed farming for six years. For the past fifteen years he resided in this place and during the past few years his health had not been very good. Besides his wife, who was Miss Mary Fiedler, three children survive; Mrs. I. B. Showers, of Milesburg; Mrs. John Emig, of Green Burt, and Harry F. Hubler, of Lock Haven. One sister remains, Mrs. Rebecca Charles, of Hublersburg.

Deceased was a member of the Reformed church, and his pastor, Rev. R. Jones, had charge of the funeral services which were held in the church on Tuesday afternoon. Burial was made at Centre Hall.

ARMBRUSTER.—Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Armbruster, widow of G. D. Armbruster, passed away at her home at Farmers Mills on Sunday morning near 8:00 o'clock, after suffering several weeks with dropsy and heart trouble. She was born in the locality where she died, on Feb. 23, 1847, hence was in her seventy-third year. She was a daughter of Jacob and Susan Neese. Five daughters survive: Mrs. Harvey Rossmann, of Penns Cave; Mrs. Clement W. Luse, Mrs. George Heckman, both of near Centre Hall; Mrs. James Bilger, of Pleasant Gap, and Miss Martha, at home. Also by one brother, Calvin Neese, of Little Rock, Ark., and one sister, Mrs. Henry Homan, of Lakewood, Ohio.

Deceased was a member of the Reformed church. Funeral services were held at the home on Wednesday morning, burial following in the Union cemetery at Farmers Mills.

ARD.—Rebecca Ard, relict of George Ard, passed away Sunday at her home in Ferguson township, as the result of a fractured hip, aged eighty-eight years and eight months. Her parents, the late Daniel and Susan Musser, were pioneer settlers of Ferguson township. Burial was made in the new cemetery on Tuesday, her pastor, Rev. S. C. Stover, officiating.

Three Die in Electric Chair.

For the first time since electrocution was made the death penalty in Pennsylvania three men, on Monday, were sent to the electric chair, at the western penitentiary at Rockview.

They were William Evans, colored, of Dauphin county, who killed Rufus Gilliam in Harrisburg; John Sandoe, of Lancaster, who murdered four-year-old Anna Mary Hershey, and Gregory Phoros, of Lancaster, who murdered Peter Mormous.

If you vote for Harry N. Meyer for prothonotary you will never regret it. You will first be giving your support to one whose qualifications for the office are entirely fit; one to who will always greet you as a friend; one capable of showing due appreciation.

CAPT. W. H. FRY.

fession throughout the State. He is a member of the Presbyterian church and for thirty-one years has been secretary of the church council. He is commander of Capt. J. O. Campbell Post 272 G. A. R., is vice president of the 45th P. V. Regimental Association and seldom misses an encampment of the G. A. R., either county, state or national.

Capt. Fry is the oldest past grand of Penns Valley lodge 272 I. O. O. F., and probably one of the most enthusiastic Odd Fellows in the county. He is secretary of the Pine Grove Mills Academy Reunion association and a member of Centre Grange 252, P. of H. He is a charter member of the Jr. O. A. Mechanics and is its team captain.

He owns a fine farm in Ferguson township but at present is living with his good wife in Pine Grove Mills, his family of six sons and four daughters all having made homes for themselves.

We think we can make the statement, without fear of contradiction that he is youngest and most active man for his years in Centre county. He has the mental and physical acumen of a man of sixty. He has wonderful vitality and is not one of the kind who urges others on to do things, but rather, is a leader among the workers himself. There isn't anything of public interest that Capt. Fry isn't interested in to the extent that he gives and works to the very limit of his ability.

Capt. Fry and his companion candidate, George M. Harter, are men whom the taxpayers can rely on to conserve their interests and men who have property and reputations to preserve when slick bosses try to put things over at the public expense.

TO THE VOTERS OF CENTRE COUNTY:

The office of the County Commissioner is the most important issue before the voters of Centre county today. It affects the pocketbook of every voter. A person elected to the office of County Commissioner is one of the directors of the largest corporation in the county, with a capital stock of almost $14,000,000. The work of this office has increased 50 per cent. in the last four years, not only in dollars and cents, but in items. Three-fourths of the taxes paid into our county-seat are paid outside of the boroughs; therefore the office should be represented by one or two farmers.

VOTE FOR GEO. M. HARTER FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER. Your vote and influence will be much appreciated.

MAIL PLANE BURNS.

Aviator Falls Near Laurelton, But Escapes Death.—Nine Bags of Mail Burn.

Pilot Bradford, one of the U. S. mail aviators flying over the course from New York to Cleveland, had a thrilling and harrowing experience in the Seven Mile Narrows, about two miles north of the Pennsylvania Village for Feeble Minded women near Laurelton, Friday morning when his mail plane crashed to the ground.

Pilot Bradford was traveling towards Bellefonte and when at a point near the beginning of the Seven Mile Narrows his engine suddenly stopped. He attempted to set his plane to glide down, but because of the fact that he was not traveling high did not have ample room. At the same time he also thought his one gasoline tank had been emptied and attempted to turn on the gas in the auxiliary tank when his machine burst into flames. It came down, striking the top of a tall pine tree about one hundred and fifty feet from the right side of the Narrows road, at a point near the Hickernell Spring, when the big plane crashed into the ground. Immediately after landing the aviator made a hasty retreat from the burning plane and was about one hundred feet away from it when the gasoline tank exploded.

Pilot Bradford was severely bruised and cut and was picked up by a passing autoist and taken to Laurelton where his injuries were dressed by Dr. O. W. H. Glover. He later returned to the scene of the accident and shortly afterwards was on his way to the aviation field at Bellefonte.

The machine was completely smashed and completely burned up with the exception of the engine, which was taken from the wreckage on Saturday morning and taken to Bellefonte.

Along with the machine about nine bags of mail were burned up.

W. Crawford suffers Broken Leg.

Ed. W. Crawford, manager of the Dewart milk station at Centre Hall, met with a serious accident on Friday afternoon while unloading milk cans from the milk truck to the creamery platform. The muddy and slippery condition of the ground caused the truck to move backward while Mr. Crawford had his leg between the platform and truck and the result was that his right leg was broken near the ankle. The fracture was reduced by a physician.

Bair—Dutrow.

Saturday noon, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Dutrow, near Centre Hall, Rev. D. S. Kurtz, united in marriage Miss Anna Dutrow and Raymond Bair, the latter of Smulton. The newlyweds enjoyed a short honeymoon trip to Altoona.

The many friends of the young couple extend congratulations and best wishes.

"Broken Blossoms."

Don't fail to see that great screen production, "Broken Blossoms"—D. W. Griffith's latest masterpiece, at Pastime theatre, State College, Oct. 30th and 31st. This production far outranks his former triumphs, "The Birth of a Nation" and "Hearts of the World". It outranks in artistic achievement anything that has ever before appeared on the screen. It will be presented twice daily, at 6:30 and 8:30 each evening.

A special symphony orchestra accompanies the films from Pittsburgh where it has just been shown at $1.50 top prices first time in this state, excepting Philadelphia, and will be shown at State College at 25 and 50 cents. All seats are reserved.

Don't miss it—it is the most wonderful thing ever done in pictures.

"And There Wasn't the Slightest Smell from Dead Rats."

Writes John Simpkins, farmer of Ammandale, N. J.: "Rats were costing me hundreds yearly; tried dogs, ferrets, poison, could not get rid of them. Bought $1.00 pkg. of RAT-SNAP (5 cakes). Used half, not a live rat since. Dead ones aplenty. I like RAT-SNAP because after killing rats it dries them up—leaves no smell." Three sizes 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold and guaranteed by C. M. Smith, Centre Hall; W. C. Meyer, Spring Mills, Pa.
