A Maryland Case

John J. Beach, 48 Linden St., Frostburg, Md., says: "Years ago I had a serious case of kidney trouble. My back was so bad that I could not stoop. I could not raise up. My sight became blurred and flashes and specks came before my eyes. The kidney secretions were unnatural, contained sediment and annoyed me very much. Through use of Doan's Kidney Pills I was rewarded with good health."

ORIENTAL SPRINGS NEW ONE IN WEST

Chinese Lottery Tickets "Pages From School Books," He Tells Judge.

Portland, Ore.—Whatever else the prying police and prosecutors may say about him, they are compelled to admit that Lee Foon is an ingenious cus. They must also admit that the wily Oriental "pulled one from the clouds" in police court, and got away with it in big league style.

Lee, a studious looking disciple of Confucius, stood with solemn mien as he answered the police court roll on a charge of having lottery tickets in his possession.

Police testified that they had raided Foon's quarters in the Chinese section and procured an ample supply of lottery tickets, which they had found in his room. Other paraphernalia used for lotteries also was produced. The evidence seemed conclusive. Court attaches naturally figured Lee Foon didn't have a chance.

"Well, What Does This Say?"

And then Lee Foon offered his testimony. "These not lottery tickets," was his first astonishing statement.

Judge Rosman grew interested. He moved down from the bench and stood at Foon's side in the prisoner's dock.

"What are they, then?" inquired the court.

"They pages torn from Chinese school book," quickly answered the bland and unsmiling Foon.

"Well, what does this say?" inquired the court, as he selected an alleged lottery ticket at random and handed it to Foon for translation.

"It say, 'I see the cat,'" was the quick retort, which was almost drowned in the storm of laughter which swept over the courtroom.

"Well," muttered the court, as he shook his head in a perplexed manner. "I'll admit that lottery tickets should in time educate people that it's a losing gambling game, but this is the first time I ever heard a ticket called a page from a Chinese school book."

As so dumfounded was the court at Lee Foon's alibi that he permitted the prisoner to go his way minus the fine.

Crook Sorry He Spoiled Appetites of Victims

St. Louis, Mo.—"Keep right on with your breakfast—don't let me disturb you," said a man with a big revolver, addressing Joseph Matthews, night manager, and August Koppell, cook, in the Frank Chax restaurant, as he strolled in at 5 a. m.

The intruder took $20 from the cash register.

"Sorry I spoiled your appetites," he said, as he left. "But I just had to have the money."

ROCKING CHAIRS OUST PEWS

Pastor of Up-to-Date Church in Connecticut Will Make Parishioners Comfortable.

Chester, Conn.—The Rev. George B. Gilbert, rector of the Episcopal church here, has ordered the pews removed from the church and rocking chairs installed in their place.

Mr. Gilbert asserts it is the monstrosity of straight-backed pews that is killing the church. He intends to have his parishioners comfortable when they gather to hear the gospel. The old ladies can rock as hard as they want to, can make the chairs squeak and can bring their bag of stockings to mend if they want to.

Between Sundays Mr. Gilbert will have the church auditorium cleared of rocking chairs and the boys of the parish can use the floor of the church for a basketball court or a skating rink. After church on Sundays Mr. Gilbert is willing to umpire a baseball game on the church lawn.

"Nervous, Weak and Dizzy Spells"

Danville, Va.—"After motherhood I was in miserable health. Was nervous and weak, and suffered with headaches and dizzy spells. I also had backaches. I could not eat or sleep when I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and it completely restored me to good health. My appetite returned and I just felt fine."

"I also suffered with constipation and the only medicine that I ever found to give me relief and I might say, cure me of this trouble was Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They are an excellent regulator of the stomach, liver and bowels."—Mrs. C. E. Holland, 1015 Stokes St.

Parkburg, W. Va.—"When I was a girl I had the measles, and after that I became all run-down, weak and nervous. I suffered with suppression and my mother gave me Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and it completely restored me to health. I had been ailing for at least two years before. Had doctored and taken medicine, without relief, but 'Favorite Prescription' soon did the work where all others had failed. It is a fine medicine for young girls or women who are ailing."—Mrs. G. A. Thornburg, 845 Seventh St.

Roanoke, Va.—"I consider Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription unexcelled as a tonic. When my children were small and I seemed to be 'all in' I found wonderful strength and relief in this tonic." "In later years I have found great comfort in Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets and Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets for toning up the liver and kidneys. The Anuric has been of especial benefit, too, in relieving me of backaches." "It is a pleasure to recommend such reliable remedies as Dr. Pierce's always prove to be."—Mrs. M. S. Hyman, 638 Rorer Ave., S. W.

BRITISH DUPED BY AN ADVENTRESS

Men Led to Give Life Savings to Girl and to Desert Her at Altar.

NOT EVEN BEAUTIFUL

Found Smaller Towns of England Were Fruitful Fields for Her Operations—Faked War Adventures.

London.—A rare and picturesque person—an adventress who was not beautiful—has finally brought her multitudinous and successful ventures to the attention of the British police after many years of perfectly safe operation.

She is known as Miss Crawford, and she found the smaller towns of England all too ready to believe the old dictum that Americans must inevitably be wealthy, for her most successful operations were conducted playing these parts:

Daughter and heiress of Harry Thaw.

Wife of George Crawford, American millionaire, whom she divorced in order to marry his brother.

Widow of Walter Crawford, the brother, who died leaving a peculiar will stipulating that she should marry "outside the family."

To Desert at Altar.

A working man, who was helping the girl obtain the mythical fortune of Walter Crawford, mythical American millionaire, by agreeing to marry her, and leave her at the church door, thus complying with the terms of the will, brought downfall and police investigation.

As the daughter of Harry Thaw, Miss Crawford had moved through many English towns, finding welcome and easy money from some of the hardest fisted folk of the British islands.

Despite the fact that she is slender, of childish figure, with a slight hump on her back and small features, she was able, by brilliant conversational gifts and a bearing that spoke "class" at every minute to win instant belief no matter how fictitious her "life" happened to be at the moment.

She was always beautifully dressed and she passed through so many various "characters" in the course of her swindling expeditions that the most careful police investigations after

She Was Able to Win Instant Belief her arrest have failed to reveal a single tangible fact regarding her real identity and antecedents.

Throughout she looked and acted the part she played.

Faked War Adventures.

The girl descended upon Woking, in Surrey, in military uniform, brimful of darddevil adventures at the front as driver of staff cars and of machines which had taken secret messengers on many dangerous missions.

Back of this was Walter Crawford and his peculiar will. She was destitute. Her properties in Canada would bring huge sums if she could realize on them. Wonderful how many perfectly sane persons helped her! Her landlady even mortgaged her home. A garage owner depleted his bank account and borrowed because he was to marry her and part at the church door and get $2,500 a year for life for parting.

LIVE LIZARD IN COW'S LUNG

The lizard was found lodged in the cow's lung.

EASY NOW TO SAW LOGS AND CUT DOWN TREES

Only one man, or even a boy, with the improved Ottawa Engine Log Saw can easily cut twenty-five to forty cords a day, and at a cost of less than 20 per cord. This machine, which outdoes all others, has a heavy, cross cut saw driven by a powerful especially designed 4-cycle gasoline engine. It's a fast money-maker for those using it, and does more than ten men could do, either cutting down trees, sawing logs, or buzzing branches while you rest. When not sawing, the engine can be used for other work requiring power.

Beware of Imitations.

The entire machine is mounted on truck wheels to make it easy to move to the trees or logs, and from cut to cut on a log without stopping the engine. For moving on the road, the truck wheels are placed parallel with the slide and the rig hauled straight ahead. The wheels turn on a two-way spindle. You do not have to take them off, but can change direction of wheel travel by merely taking out a pin.

The Ottawa can be fitted for sawing down trees. It cuts level with surface of ground, thereby getting all the timber and leaving no stumps sticking up. An automatic friction clutch stops the saw in case of undue resistance. Two men can fall forty to fifty trees a day in ordinary timber.

The whole outfit is compact, simple, durable against a lifetime of hard wear. It sells for a low price and is fully guaranteed for reliable operation in the hands of every one who has trees to cut down and logs to work up.

Full information and low factory price to you can be had simply by addressing the Ottawa Mfg. Company, 2724 Wood St., Ottawa, Kansas.

RELIEVED MIND OF HOSTESS

California Newspaper Man Proved Himself a Diplomat in Situation That Called for Tact.

While a Los Angeles publisher was abroad, a few months ago with a newspaper crowd, he was invited, with the rest of the party, to dine with a duke and duchess who were burdened with a double last name, such as Kelly-Angus.

The Californian was in an awful stew from the time the dinner started as to how he should address the hostess in case he fell into conversation with her, but finally, when the opportunity came, he proved himself every inch a diplomat.

The duchess, it seems, was apologizing for the dinner not being more formal, or something like that, and the newspaper man, desiring to make her feel at ease, just reached his right hand across the table, took the hostess by the hand, and said:

"Oh, that's all right, Mrs. Kelly, all of us like good home cooking."—Washington Star.

They never sicken you like Calomel, Salts, Oil or nasty, harsh pills. They cost so little too—Cascarets work while you sleep.—Adv.

UTRECHT'S PLACE IN HISTORY

Dutch Town, in Which Kaiser May Dwell, Saw Beginning of His Line's Rise to Power.

Reports say that the ex-kaiser has purchased a house near the historic town of Utrecht, Holland, and that he wishes to end his days there. It was in Utrecht, 206 years ago, that the house of Hohenzollern was first established in royal rank.

It was in the peace concluded in 1713 that the ex-emperor's ancestor, Frederick of Brandenburg, received acknowledgment from the leading European powers of his title of king of Prussia. This peace put an end to the long war of the Spanish succession, which many claim was begun over the fear that the ruling houses of France and Spain would become one, and upset the European balance of power.

The ex-kaiser is part English, and it was England, with her continental allies of lesser strength, that virtually established the kingdom of Prussia.

The same peace also made the duke of Savoy the king of Italy, but today the king of Italy rules over all of Italy except Savoy, which belongs to France.

England has retained practically everything it secured at that peace conference, including Gibraltar and Minorca, secured from Spain; Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and the Hudson bay territory from France as well as valuable trading privileges in Africa and South America, from both France and Spain.
