NEW BUILDING FOR EVANGELICAL HOME.

New Dormitory, When Completed, To Cost $40,000 and Will Be Modern in Every Respect—Will Accommodate Seventy-five.

The ground breaking exercises for the first orphan's building at the United Evangelical Home, takes place Thanksgiving afternoon, when an excellent program will be given. The public was invited to attend these exercises, and to inspect the buildings of the home as they are at present.

The executive committee met last week and passed on the tentative plans for the new building and it is stated that it will cost in the neighborhood of $40,000 when completed. This includes the furnishings and dining room equipment. The building will be the most modern in every respect for this kind of work and will accommodate about seventy-five children. $100,000 of the million dollars now being raised by the Evangelical Churches throughout the country will go to the home at Lewisburg, and this will allow the authorities there to make many other improvements for the people who are residents there.

The starting of the new building marks another big step in the progress and prosperity of the Evangelical church and is a source of pride to those who were at the bottom of the movement.

Corn for Sale.

Several hundred bushels of first class corn are offered for sale. Every ear is a good one. S. W. Smith, Centre Hall.

Shipping High Class Pork.

Farmer Robert M. Smith, who is one of the Potter township farmers who makes the acres pay a dividend each year, shipped some high class pork to Philadelphia for Thanksgiving. The package was sent by parcel post and contained a dressed suckling pig, weighing twenty pounds.

To Raze Landmark.

The Strohm store house, at Centre Hill, was purchased from John F. Hoar by A. H. Spayd. The building will be used in the construction of a bungalow Mr. Spayd will build on the lot recently purchased by him from F. M. Fisher.

The Strohm store building is an old landmark at Centre Hill and came into being when business at Potters Mills began waning. Among the well known merchants who did business at this stand was Reuben Keller.

POLITICAL.

Senator Boies Penrose's attitude on the peace treaty may cost him his seat in the Senate next year, in the opinion of administration Democrats.

Considerable interest has been aroused by the statement of Joseph F. Guffey of Pittsburgh, one of the division chairmen of the Democratic State Committee of Pennsylvania, that Democrats of the state will give Penrose "the fight of his life" on the League of Nations.

Even Republicans are beginning to fear the effect on the G. O. P. of a political campaign centering around the treaty, and it is admitted that should the country rise in protest against the destructive program of the Senate majority, not even Senators like Penrose in overwhelming Republican states, would be exempt from danger of defeat.

Although Democrats generally hope the treaty will not be carried into politics and deplore the statement of Republican leaders like Lodge, Harding, Penrose and others forecasting that course, they will welcome the issue if it comes. They are convinced that Americans who like fair play and want peace will rally to the cause of the League in the spirit of crusaders, and sweep from office those Senators, Republicans and Democrats, who have sought by their tactics to defeat the Treaty and kill the League.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

November to date, has been quite warm.

Mrs. Mary Shoop will go to Baltimore to spend the winter. Her house will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shoop who now live with Mrs. Hulda Meyer.

By the time the Reporter reaches its readers the road through Centre Hall will have been completed, except to put on the oil and chips and do a bit of dressing along the sides. Whether the road will be finished this fall the Reporter is unable to say.

Stranding of a car was responsible for a brief call from A. J. Zimmerman, editor of the State College Times, on Monday morning. Mr. Zimmerman tells the Reporter that the Times is prospering and has a first rate line of commercial work booked at all times.

LODGES THINK WELL OF NEW SECURITY

Many Orders Investing Funds in Quick Redeemable Treasury Saving Certificates.

Among the fraternal organizations in the Third Federal Reserve District which have been investing their lodge funds in the new U. S. Treasury Saving Certificates are the Knights of Malta, Knights of Pythias, Improved Order of Red Men, Patriotic Order Sons of America, Jr. Order United American Mechanics, Foresters of America, and Order of Independent Americans. There are about 3300 lodges in the 69 Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware counties of the Third District and the War Savings Division has been interesting them in the advantages, from the lodge standpoint, of placing their funds in this new government security.

Many letters have been received from officers of lodges endorsing the certificates as the ideal investment for lodges. A trustee of one of the most prominent Knights of Pythias lodges in Pennsylvania said he considers the issuance of the certificates one of the biggest things the War Savings Division has achieved.

"These certificates exactly fit the needs of lodges," said this trustee. "Their absolute safety coupled with high interest rate and speedy redemption privilege make them the most attractive investment I know of for the funds of any organization which requires to have a string to its money so that it may be quickly recalled in case of emergency."

Treasury Savings Certificates are issued in the denominations of $100 and $500. Any sum up to $500 can be invested by a lodge in one year. The certificates are being sold in October at the rate of $91.20 per $100 if held until January 1, 1921, they will be redeemed at full face value, $100 or multiples thereof. Should a lodge need its money back at any time, its certificates will be redeemed upon 15 days' notice at full cost price plus 3 per cent interest. The value and interest are guaranteed by the United States Government. They are not subject to market fluctuations.

Certificates are obtainable at post offices and at all incorporated banks and trust companies. The War Savings Division, 1431 Walnut street, Philadelphia, will supply further information upon request.

NEW SAVING PLAN

AIDS WAGE EARNERS

More Than 1400 Government Savings Associations Now Active in the Third Federal District.

More than 1400 Government Savings Associations are now operating in the Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware counties of the Third Federal Reserve District. These associations are located in business and industrial centers and have a total membership of over 200,000.

The members are regularly saving and investing through the purchase of Government Third and Savings Stamps. The largest of these associations has several thousand members and its total investment at a single pay runs from $5000 to $10,000.

The Government Savings Association plan is a very simple one. It is designed to make saving an easy and convenient process and for that reason is meeting with great favor among workers. There are no dues, no fines, no meetings, and no record is kept of individual accounts. The ease of saving by the method now introduced goes far to institute thrift as a permanent habit and the returns in various plants show that many workers who previously were very improvident are methodically and regularly putting by considerable sums.

In one small concern eleven men were interested in the plan and it was figured that in six months they were likely to save about $175. They actually saved more than $2000 in that time, as much to their own as to others' surprise, and two of them bought homes, using their investment in Government Savings Stamps to make the initial payments.

The War Savings Division, with headquarters at 1431 Walnut street, Philadelphia, is introducing the association plan into practically all leading business and is in meeting with the commendation of both the employers and the employees. Literature relating to the plan and suggestions to promote its introduction in any line of business are obtainable upon request.

NO MORE HAND GRENADE BANKS

As the War Department has determined that the distribution of hand grenades as souvenirs be discontinued, and has cancelled the arrangement for supplying grenades to the Treasury Department to be manufactured into grenade savings banks, the Treasury Department is unable to continue the distribution of the banks. In order, however, to recognize the efforts of the children in working and saving during the vacation time, each one who would be entitled to a bank will receive a Certificate of Achievement from the Treasury in appreciation of his or her industry in saving and buying government securities. War Savings Division, 3rd Federal Reserve District.

Results Corn Variety Tests.

In the spring several varieties of corn were planted to try and develop a better variety of corn for various sections of the County. A few local varieties as well as several varieties from other counties and States were used in these tests. The Spring Mills test was located on Hagerstown limestone soil and the Julian tests in DeKalb stony loam. The corn was all weighed, shelling and moisture percentages obtained and all results figured on a 15 per cent. basis of moisture.

The Whole Secret of A Better Tire

Simply a Matter of the Maker's Policies

This you will realize—once you try a Brunswick—that a super-tire is possible only when the name certifies that the maker is following the highest standards.

For tire making is chiefly a matter of standards and policies—cost plus care. Any maker can build a good tire if he cares to pay perfection's price.

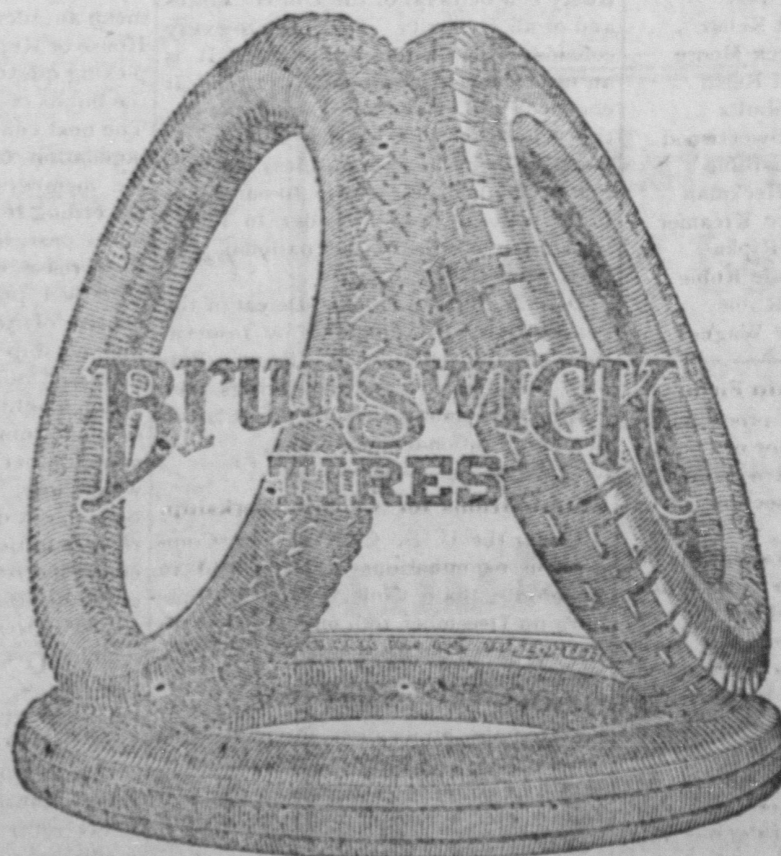

All men know Brunswick standards, for Brunswick products have been famous for 74 years.

Formulas, fabrics and standards vary vastly in cost. Reinforcements, plies and thickness are a matter of expense. And these variations affect endurance. It rests with the maker how far he wishes to go—how much he can afford to give.

For there are no secrets nor patents to hold one back.
