Ross Farm Sold.

The Mrs. Mary A. Ross farm, near Farmers Mills, was sold a few days ago to Elmer Hettinger, of near Centre Hill. The farm referred to was owned by Mrs. Goodart and her brother, J. Frank Ross, of the Pittsburgh district, and contained about 180 acres, 130 of which was sold to Mr. Hettinger. The re remaining fifty acres were taken over by Mrs. Goodhart who owns a farm adjoining, the same at one time having been a part of the Ross farm. The purchase price has not been made public. Mr. Hettinger, the purchaser, having sold his farm along Sinking Creek some time ago, will take possession of the place purchased next spring.

The Blizzard is Over.

Last week a letter from William Zerby, of Lisbon, N. D., told of a fierce blizzard raging in that section. Under date of 2nd inst, he writes that the blizzard is now over and there are again many smiling faces to be seen. He relates that it was the most harrowing experience in the eighty-one years of his life.

A car load of cattle were unloaded at Lisbon to save them from perishing. Three of the animals were already badly used up and these were driven into the waiting room of the station. Two died, the third was nursed back to life. This shows that people of North Dakota have great concern about their cattle.

AMELS are in a class by themselves - easily the most refreshing, the most likable cigarette you ever smoked. You can prove that! Simply compare Camels puff-by-puff with any cigarette in the world at any price! Put quality, flavor and cigarette satisfaction to the utmost test!

Made to meet your taste, Camels never tire it, no matter how liberally you smoke them! The expert blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos makes Camels delightful-so fullbodied, yet so fascinatingly smooth and mellow-mild. Every time you light one you get new and keener enjoyment!

Freedom from any unpleasant cigaretty after taste or any unpleasant cigaretty odor makes Camels as unusual as they are enjoyable.

In fact, Carnels appeal to the most fastidious smoker in so many new ways you never will miss the absence of coupons, premiums or gifts. You'll prefer Camel Quality!
