THE CENTRE REPORTER ISSUED WEEKLY.

CENTRE HALL - - PENN'A.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1919.

EDWARD E. BAILEY { Local Editor and Business Clanager

Entered at the Post Office in Centre Hall as

TERMS.—The terms of subscription to the Reporter are one and one-half dollars pergyear.

ADVERTISING RATES—Display advertise ment of ten or more inches, for three or more in mertions, ten cents per inch for each issue. Display advertising occupying less space than ten inches and for less than three insertions, from fifteen to twenty-five cents per jude for each issue, according to composition. Minimum charge seventy—five cents.

Local notices accompanying display advertis-ing five cents per line for each insertion; other-wise, eight cents per line, minimum charge, twenty-five cents. Legal notices, twenty cents per line for three insertions, and ten cents per line for each additional insertion.

CHURCH APPOINTMENTS.

Methodist-No service. Reformed-Tusseyvills morning, Communion, Centre Hall afternoon.

Lutheran-Centre Hall, evening, Union morning, Georges Valley, aftrrnoon.

Hunter Killed.

A report reached relatives in Penns Valley on Monday that a son of Wilkie Horner, of Altoona, had been accidentally killed while hunting. Funeral today (Thursday) at Altoona. No definite information could be obtained.

Corn and Potato Show.

The first annual Corn and Potato Show will be held Saturday, December 20th, in the Court House at Bellefonte. This show is being put on under the direction of the Centre County Farm Buread with the intention of making it an annual event each fall.

$1275 Crop of Clover Seed.

Propably one of the best crops of clover seed harvested on the south side of Centre county was gathered by Frank Stover, who owns the John Wolf farm, just west of Rebersburg. After paying for the hulling, the crop just yielded the farmer $1275. There was 54 bushels of Bohn-Stover.

Frederick Bohn, of Millheim, and Miss Stella Stover, of Centre Hall, were married at the Lutheran parsonage at Centre Hall, Wednesday evening of last day at home. week, by Rev. D. S. Kurtz. The couple at once went to the home of the groom, who lives with his mother, Mrs. Frank Bohn, where they will live tor the present. The young couple have the best wishes of their many friends.

Threshermen's Association.

The Centre County Threshermen and Farmer's Protective Association will meet in the Court House, in Bellefonte, on Saturday at 10 a. m., for the purpose of taking up compensation insurance for 1920. Every one carrying compensation insurance will learn something of interest and profit to him at this meeting. This includes threshermen, saw mili, machine shop, garage operators, implement dealers as well as farmers.

Bradford Sells Tractors.

Farmers throughout Penns and Brush Valleys are preparing so that they will not be too much hampered next year by the inevitable scarcity of help. One of the ways this is being done is by purchasing tractors which greatly expedite farm work. Among farmers who recently purchased this class of motive power-I. H. C. tractor-are Charles Stover, and J. C. Boob, Millheim; and Harry Winklebleck, Rebersburg. They secured 10-20, 8-16 and 8-16 respective-

Pastor Called to Altoona.

The writer is informed that Rev. Victor H. Jones, Catawissa, has resigned his charge in order to accept a call from the Salem Reformed Church, Altoona, He will begin the work there about the middle of the present month. Rev. Mr. Jones, graduated from the Seminary at Lancaster, with the degree of B. D., in May 1916. Soon after his graduation, he was elected pastor of the at Reish's saw mill, at Smullton. Reformed church in Catawissa. He began his work there on July 1st. His first pastorate, extended over a period of three years and a half. The Reporter wishes him continued success in his new

LOGAL AND PERSONAL.

Progress Grange will meet in Grange Arcadia on Saturday afternoon.

Warren Krise, of Johnstown, is in Centre Hall on a visit to his father, Prof. W. A. Krise.

The first annual ThankOffering of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Reformed church in Spring Mills will be held on Sunday evening. Dec. 7th, 7:30 o'clock, in the Reformed Church. All are cordially invited to be present.

John B. Ruble, who has been in delicate health for some months, expects to go to a state sanitarium at Hamburg, Bucks county, within a very short time. For a number of years he has been employed in the Altoona car shops, his family living in Centre Hall. The Reporter joins a host of friends in the wish that he will speedily recover.

THE DEATH RECORD.

HESS.-Mrs. Emeline Jordan Hess, died at the Lock Haven hospital Saturday, November 29th, at the age of seventy-seven years, ten months and ten days. Interment was made at Aaronsburg, and services held in the Reformed church at Millheim, where she was a member, and her pastor, Rev. W. D. Donat, officiated.

The deceased was the widow of Major M. E. Hess, of Knox, who died in 1904. After his death, Mrs. Hess moved to Lock Haven, later to Aaronsburg where she bought the James P. Coburn home, and from there to Millheim, her home when she died. Mrs. Hess was born in Boalsburg.

Marriage Licenses.

Leonard Hugh Wensel, Howard. Sadie G. Weaver, Howard. William T. Whippo, Bellefonte. Mamie Keeler, Bellefonte. R. Alton Poorman, Orviston. Beatrice L. Stere, Unionville. Fred. C. Bohn, Millheim. Stella S. Stover, Centre Hall.

Box Social.

The Vocational School at Spring Mills will hold a box social Friday evening, December 12. Gentlemen, come prepared to buy them, so every one will en. joy the evening. Proceeds for school equipment.

BOALSBURG.

Miss Cathryn Dale spent Saturday a

Mrs. Irvin and daughter and Mrs. Marjorie Shugarts, of Altoona, spent part of last week at the George Shu-

Mrs. Sara Shuey, of State College, spent a few days last week at her home

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Brown, of Yeagertown, visit with their son, Rev. E. F Brown, from Thursday until Saturday. Miss Ella Sayner, of State College, visited friends here a few days last

Mrs. Gemberling and son, of Selinsgrove, are visiting at the Henry Reitz

There will be services the Lutheran church Sunday evening, December 7. Mrs. Maria Wagner and grandson, Samuel Bitner, of Tusseyville, spent Thanksgiving with the former's son, Samuel Wagner and family. Cyrus Wagner, of Altoona, also spent that

Cyril Zechman, of Selinsgrove, was a recent visitor at his home hera. Mrs. Foster Charles and danghter spent Thursday of last week at State

Mrs. B. F. Homan and Mrs. Mary Brumgart, of State College, spent Monday at the Charles Mothersbaugh home.

SPRING MILLS.

Mrs. John Horner returned from a month's visit with her daughter, in Cambria county.

Mrs. Clarence Musser and wife, of Cambersburg, spent a few days at the Robert Musser home.

Mrs. Grover Gentzell and children, of Altoona, spent Thanksgiving with the George Gentzell family.

Wm. Allison and daughter, Miss Mabel, spent Thanksgiving with friends at

Harry Rishel and family of Bellefonte, also Wm, Ruhl, ate their Thanksgiving dinner with their mother, Mrs.

Mrs. Sarah Guise, of Penn Hall, will spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. H. F. Rossman.

CENTRE MILLS.

J. A. Kline and Elmer Noll motored to the later's home at the Red Mill on

Mrs. William Sweely visited her brother in Nittany Valley last week. Miss Zettle, of Georges Valley, who spent the summer in this valley, returned to stay a short time at the home of Adam Reish. The many friends of Mrs. Harvey Limbert will be glad to hear that she recovered from her recent illness.

Willis Best who worked for Win Crebs, the past summer, began to work

BUY AND USE RED CROSS CHRISTMAS SEALS

Telephone Rates

The Public Service Commission has ordered that the telephone rates which were in effect immediately prior to the period of Federal Control be restored on December 1, 1919.

This applies to rates for both local service and toll messages originating and terminating within Pennsylvania.

Toll rate information and rates for toll messages originating and terminating within Pennsylvania, appearing in the current directory, no longer apply. If rates or information is desired, please call the Toll or Long Distance Operator.

For local service rates, apply to the Business Office.

The Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania.

EAGLE PENCIL COMPANY, NEW YORK

Do your Christmas

Christmas shopping is indeed a pleasure the A.B.A. way. You get all the advantages of extensive, seasonable selection—quality and variety plus economy.

shop at ALTOONA BOOSTER ASSOCIATION STORES

The Altoona Booster Association is a community organization, comprising not only private, but public institutionsbanks, hotels, and colleges as well as department stores, grocers, men's and women's specialty shops, florists, jewelers-in fact, concerns catering to every personal need. The A.B.A., as it is becoming popularly known, stands for Educational Publicity to spread broadcast the gospel of Altoona's service to a community of which it is the important

Thank Offering Service.

fering Service on Sunday evening. The women of the congregation. recitations, exercises, singing and pageant were all well rendered. The attendance was good and the offering lib-work. The pastor stated that there are mission charged. now four Woman's Missionary Societies in the Centre Hall charge, and that he would be an associate member in each | Special sale of hats, Saturday Decema one of them. He challenged the men to ber 6th. All trimmed hats from $2.00 to emulate his example by becoming an as- $4.50; all children's hats at cost. sociate member in the congregation to which they belonged. The pastor chal-The Woman's Missionary Society of lenged the four societies to see which he Reformed church held its Thank Of- one would be the first to enroll all the Capt Curray at Linden Hall.

Capt. John Curray, of Altoona, a Salvation Army worker, will talk Saturday The purpose of the meeting, as was evening, at Linden Hall, on "The Un- Mrs. Robert Musser. stated by the pastor in his address, was written History of the World War", and o arouse greater interest in Missions. on Sunday night he will deliver one of Song, story, and drama are used in or- his famous Salvation Army sermons. ler, if possible, to portray this great The public is urged to hear him. No ad-

Special Sale of Hats.

Myra Kimport, Centre Hall.

SPRING MILLS.

On the 17th of Nov. a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Perry Detwiler Lebanon county, and on the 22nd a son to Mr. and Mrs Cleveland Gentzell.

Miss Gertrude Musser, of Altoona, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Those from here who attended the

a few days at Pleasant Gap. C. G. King expects to install a bath terman and daughter, Miss Maude, room in his residence.

the M. E. church. George Shook and family attended the funeral of Mrs. Shook's sister, Mrs. John H. Horner, on Monday afternoon at Tusseyville.

AARONSBURG.

Mrs. Gus Miller, sister in law of Rev. W. D. Donat, is here from Jonestown, Miss Mary Carson, the primary school teacher, spent Thanksgiving Day with her friend, Miss Mary Grenoble.

funeral of Adam Hosterman at Boals-Jack Mulfinger and wife are spending burg were Mr. and Mrs. John Hains, Miss Cora Amanda Hains, Robert Hos-

The Wilt Brothers and another gentle-Rev. C. F. Catherman preached an in- man, from Franklin, are expected at the teresting sermon on Sunday evening in home of Mr. and. Mrs. Guisewite to join the hunting club.

The result with Larro-feed has been more milk, a longer milking period, healthier cows and bigger milk checks, Car just in.—R. D. Foreman.