"CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP" IS CHILD'S LAXATIVE

Leok at tongue! Remove poisons from stomach, liver and Accept "California" Syrup of Figs only-look for the name California on the package, then you are sure your child is having the best and most harmless laxative or physic for the little stomach, liver and bowels. Children love its delicious fruity taste. Full directions for child's dose on each bottla Give it without fear.

Mother! You must say "California." -Adv.

Parrying a Hint. He-How do you find the oysters

Miss Smith? She-They are simply delicious, and I am awfully hungry, too.

He (to waiter)-Bring another plate of crackers,-Hotel Gazette.

A woman's pronunciation of depot depends upon her station in life.

EASY HOW TO SAW LOGS AND CUT DOWN TREES

Only one man, or even a boy, with the improved Ottawa Engine Log Saw can easily cut twenty-five to forty cords a day, and at a cost of less than 2c per cord. This machine, which out does all others, has a heavy, cross cut saw driven by a powerful especially designed 4-cycle gasoline engine. It's a fast money-maker for those using it and does more than ten men could do either cutting down trees, sawing logs or buzzing branches while you rest When not sawing, the engine can be used for other work requiring power

The entire machine is mounted on truck wheels to make it easy to move to the trees or logs, and from cut to cut on a log without stopping the en gine. For moving on the road, the truck wheels are placed parallel with the skids and the rig hauled straight shead. The wheels turn on a two way spindle. You do not have to take of but can change direction of wheel travel by merely taking out a

The Ottawa can be fitted for sawing down trees. It cuts level with surface of ground, thereby getting all the timber and leaving no stumps sticking up. An automatic friction clutch stops the saw in case of undue resistance. Two men can fall forty to fifty trees a day in ordinary timber,

The whole outfit is compact, simple, durable against a lifetime of hard wear. It sells for a low price and is fully guaranteed for reliable operation in the hands of every one who has trees to cut down and logs to work up.

Full information and low factory price to you can be had simply by addressing the Ottawa Mfg. Company, 2724 Wood St., Ottawa, Kansas.

BACHFURCO Your Raw Furs It means that you will get

ALL they are worth Highest Ruling Market Prices.

Honest Grading of the Sizes. The Most Liberal Assortment Made. All Transactions Fair and Straight. Prompt Returns and Full Advice.

As to the Market's Fall and Rise. Write for price list, shipping tags and further information to BACH FUR COMPANY

BUYBRS, MERCHANTS, EXPORTERS AMERICAN RAW FURS

118-120 West 27th Street, (Dept. W) NEW YORK CITY Direct Representation: Chicago Louden Paris Leipzig Geneva

RAW FURS

Ship your raw furs to the oldest raw fur house in N. Y. OTTO WAGNER

134-136-138-140 West 26th Street New York City, N. Y. HIGHEST MARKET PRICES NO COMMISSION CHARGED through." Check sent same day shipment is received. Send for price list now. temark had made her heart beat sud- come force of habit.-Judge,

An Impossible Story

By BESS PLAIN

(Copyright, 1919, by the McClure News-paper Syndicate.)

-And the foggy wind blew the spray of the waves about these two as they stood together on the rocky shore. Suddenly she turned to him and grasped his hand in hers, small, cold and damp with the breath of the sea.

"Do you remember," she said, "It was here, years ago, when we were, oh, so young, you-you once said you loved me?"

"Yes," he answered with quiet tenderness, "I remember."

"Tell me," she said quickly, "tell me! Do you still? I want you tooh, how I want you to!" "Dearest, dearest of all, you know

I do." "Then kiss me," she whispered. He bent his head to hers, and their souls seemed to meet, trembling, upon their lips. The waves bent their rhythmic thunder upon the rugged shore, spraying high over the rocks, as though atrempting to liberate themselves from the eternal bondage of the sca, and dash into the mists, free as the air that swirled about the two indistinct fig-

The End-As the sound of his voice ceased he closed the book softly, and there was a moment of silence. She stood up languidly and guzed wistfully out over the black sea.

"Not a bad story, I'll say," he venured, "In fact, I rather liked it, Especially good for a week-end swimming party, when it's too cold to swim and everyhody sticks indoors." "Everybody?" she questioned arch-

"Thanks!" "Well everybody except a girl you've known so long that she'd be insulted if you tried any romance."

"So you take her out on the veranda in the fog and read an impossible story to her?" "Impossible story! I think it's a mighty good one; true to Ufe, and thing.

"That's where you're wrong. It isn't true to life or natural at all." flashing a look of literary superiority at him, "Of course I like the way you read and all that; but I do hate these bookey-books, with the things that never happen except in some starving author's brain. Imagine a woman asking a man if he still cared for her," she continued, scornfully. "I'd never ask a man that-not if I was dying to know. And then, on top of that, without waiting for an answer, she not only admits she wants him to, but practically begs him to. Pooh! It's too ridiculous!" she finished with unexpected heat, and, stepping from the veranda, started to walk toward the leaping breakers. A look of mild surprise came over his face. But as he watched her siender figure retreating through the gray fog a deep tenderness filled his eyes, unhidden now that she was not there to see. He thought for a moment reminiscently, and then grim determination, like an habitual mask, lined his features as he made a slight, unconscious gesture, as though casting away something futile.

Coming to himself, be tossed the book to the wicker tabaret, and strode after. In a few steps he was up to her, and linked his arm in bers in a familiar way. She made no sign, but continued slowly along the shore.

The mist, billowing in from the remote mystery of the ocean, soon hid the house they had just left and isolated them from the conventionalizing touch of its presence, the touch that builds up walls and barriers and keeps people from one another. The trees, farther in from the shore, rose in dark outline, and moved in the wind like vaguely gesticulating phantoms, arousing a sensation of strangeness and distance from the present, like blurred figures surging out of the past.

"I don't suppose they'll worry about our being unchaperoned," he jested. "No one ever worries about chaperoning us," she answered, with perhaps the faintest bint of irritation. "They all know I'm platonic and harmless." "Do they? That's why Mrs. Hostess appeared on the veranda last night with some totally superfluous refreshment when you were sitting out a dance with that new girl." "Oh, you mean the wonderful brunette, with the lovely-" "You needn't describe her." she cut in quickly. "I remember how she looks. No one could help noticing how you singled her out. The refreshment was probably to prevent a premature proposal-or something of the sort. You danced six dances with her."

"Was it really six?" he asked inno-

"And the only other one I danced, was with you." "That was self-sacrificing." "More so than you think."

"Please elucidate." "What's the use?-Oh, well! It's just this. I never dance with anyone else after having danced with you; I make you my last partner. When I have one with you. I want more-but I don't ask; so my evening is

Her eyes admitted her surprise at this. Her cheeks flushed, a little been so used lately to paying double passing wave of rose, as though his for everything I buy that it has be-denly faster. But only for a moment. Then she asked with apparently indifferent interest:

"Why don't you ask me for another?" "I don't want to pester you, especially when your tall, young blond friend, who dances so divinely, to around."

"Oh, I nate him!"

"What?" "I said I hate him."

"That's queer," he said in surprise. Then why favor him so often during the evening?" "Sometimes, you know, when you can't have what you want most, you This somewhat puzzling answer gone quickly to something else. Suddenly he spoke with apparent irrelevance, on dangerous ground. "You know, you once called me-an idiot. It's pretty easy to see that you still feel that way; that's why everybody knows we'd be safe at the end of the world without any intrusive matrons around to offer refreshment at the proper moment."

She seemed to wince a little at that. At least, he felt her arm tighten on his; but the way was becoming rougher, and he noticed how difficult it was for her to walk over the sharp, uneven stones in ner delicate pumps. Here and there, her graceful fragile ankle would bend as her foot slipped, and he felt that she needed more aid. He knew he should put his arm around her-he wanted to do so intensely, yet he had made up his mind. Should be do it, with her entrancing presence close to him, her lovely head against his shoulder, he knew he would fail in what he had once promised himself. Pride had helped him keep that promise for a long time, and he would not tempt failure now.

They were far out on the rocky point; the wild waters leaped about them on both sides of the narrow land; waves coming in from midocean shattered themselves at their feet in an instant. Everything seemed big and elemental; sea, rocks, and gray mists.

He wanted to tell her things; things that were with him day and night. He wanted to crush her frail little figure against him, and lift her up over these sharp stones. Pride, after all, was out of place here; a puny

But she had once called him an idiot when he was telling her these things, long ago, and she had laughed. She still thought so, no doubt. He would never let her laugh again.

He looked at her and saw that she had been watching him. He thought he caught a strange, far-away gleam in her eyes. But she looked down in-

And ther they saw that they were standing where they had stood years before, in the rocks at the farthest point, with the sea all about; once before, when the sun had leaped from minated only with the horizon. One could afford to have laughed then. Now they were shut in by the heavy, gray world; alone, terribly alone. With a grim laugh, he said, "Well, I might start being romantic now, if you wouldn't be insulted. I could say the regular thing. I'm just crazy about your ways; your eyes have to much soul, and there's such a thrill in your voice for me. May I caress your hair. It's so-"

Not until then he saw, quite startled, how deeply he was hurting her. "Don't; please, please don't, she said in a low, strangely suppressed

And the foggy wind blew the spray stood together on the rocky shore. came in it was a real novelty. Suddenly she turned to him and grasped his hand in hers, small, cold, and damp with the breath of the sea.

"Do you remember," she said, "it was here, years ago, when we were, oh! so young, you-you once said you loved me?"

"Yes," he answered with quiet tenderness. "I remember."

She pressed closer to him, and turned her face up to his.

"Tell me," she said quickly, "tell me! Do you still? I want you to-Oh! how I want you to!" "Dearest, dearest of all, you know

"Then, kiss me," she whispered, He bent his head to here, and their souls seemed to meet, trembling, upon their lips.

The waves beat their rhythmic thunder upon the rugged shore, spraying high over the rocks, as though attempting to liberate themselves from the eternal bondage of the sea, and dash into the mists, free as the air, that swirled about the two indistinct

Interesting Engineering Work. Some interesting engineering work was performed in Indianapolis in the rebuilding of the union station, where it was necessary to raise the tracks and erect a new station white maintaining 165 passenger trains per day, 70 of which were through trains, with some 60 freight trains. Fortunately the station was to be widened on the south side, which made it possible to build two new track sections on the elevated grade, and after these tracks were built they were put in service while two of the old tracks were elevated to the new grade.

Could Not Resist. Irate Profiteer-What do you mean. sir, by forcing two pennies at once in my chewing gum machine?

Customer-Pardon me. You see I've

SUIT CHANGES ARE FEW

servative Type.

Last Winter's Outfit Will Not Be Passe-Fur Trimming Is Not So General.

There are many women who wear one coat suit for at least two seasons take what you want least, just out of and always look well in it. These are usually the women who select a conservative style to begin with and then passed unchallenged. His mind had freshen it up the second season with small fashionable touches. Say what you will about the changeableness of fashion, observes a fashion writer, you will have to grant that within the last few years there have been very few changes in suit styles that would affect the more conservative type of suit. That is, we have worn the same sort of suit sleeves and the straight belted or semi-fitted jacket that persisted. To be sure, there have been changes in skirt length and girth, but you have never looked out of style if you persisted in a conservative medium in these matters.

Now radical changes are said to be working in the realm of fashions as an inevitable aftermath of the war's end. Distended hips are sure to come in. They are always worn almost to the exclusion of any other sort of thing for evening gowns by fashionable women, but it has really been determined by the makers of women's clothes that these distended hips shall not have a showing in women's suits. It would take more goods than the women could afford to pay for. Consequently the straight silhouette will persist for day street wear at least during the winter.

So your last winter's suit will not look so out of the picture after all. In the matter of fur trimming, although some coats are trimmed lavishly with it, it is by no means so general, and some women who have planned the remodeling of suits they have worn last winter or before have planned to have the old fur removed. On some of the new suits with fur trimming would be possible then to have the fur are a pleasing feature. from the other part of the coat removed and enough that is good made over to use in this way. Then some of the suits show the use of warm angora cloth or other fabrics made to be finished will be to wear widetake the place of fur, but by no means brimmed hats or very tail hats. The why not get the tailor to make use of Louis XV in France was worn to counone of these angura fabrics? It would teract the dwarfing effect of the wideis cut along the sports lines.

IS THE SMALL HAT DOOMED?

Indication Favorable to Broadness Through Hips Points to Wide or Tall Headgear.

There are some smart women who never feel smartly dressed for the street unless they are wearing a small ception, are made in straight scarf hat. This does not mean that the form, in various lengths and widths. small hat is any smarter-simply that Collarettes and fancy shoulder capes some women feel smarter when wear- have some representation. ing it, and there is no denying the fact | In pelts, mink takes first place for that it is vastly easier to keep one's garments and neckpieces, as well as locks trim and in place under a small for trimmings of cloth suits.

hat than a large one. for a good many wencen ever to give rics, revival of interest in mink as a up the small hat. Yet there are times trimming, and in kolinsky in the light when small hats are quite out of fash- yellow of the natural color is noted. ion. A couple of decades ago no one but old women in their weeds were mand as a trimming; gray squirrel small hats, and those small hats were still holds its own. of the waves about these two as they bonnets. When the so-called toque Rabbit is used to some extent.

And there are those who say that ness through the hips we will look use of real leather is too expensive.

Convenience for Carrying Groceries and Other Articles—Canvas Is Material Suggested.

In these days, when one has as often as not to carry home one's groceries

and such-like things, a roomy shopping

bag is an absolute necessity. The one

Illustrated here has two large pockets and will be found very handy. It is Double Shopping Bag.

three-quarters yard long and 14 inches dainty.

18

Handy Double Shopping Bag

Styles Only Slightly Affect Con- OUTFIT THAT WINS PRAISE

This tailleur of cocoa peach bloom is cut along rather severe lines, but is rendered quite elaborate by silk emit is found only on the collar and along | broidery and bands of kolinsky. Wide the edge of large hip pockets. It embroidered cuffs on the tight sleeves gans to become diseased.

Pain in the back, headache, loss of am-absurd in our small hats. The only way to finish the picture as it should imitations. If the old fur is shabby very high headdress of the period of be especially attractive on a suit that hipped pannier frock and when full skirts were in vogue some twelve or fifteen years ago hats that were extremely wide-so wide that you could not have worn one into a telephone booth without holding your head sidewise-came into vogue.

WINTER FURS

Neckpieces, with practically no es-

Brown and tan being the fashion-Undoubtedly it would be very hard able colors in both silk and wool fab-Natural colored gray hare is in de-

Materials for Hats. with the dress silhouette tending Leather, felt and metal brocade are whither it now is the small hat will hat materials much in evidence for simply have to go. If we are to wear autumn and winter. Leather imitaskirts that give the effect of broad- tions have been introduced where the wide; this forms the foundation of the

bag. Double this in halves to get ex act center, to which a handle made from the canvas is attached-a strip

about three inches wide, folded over into three and stitched firmly to the end of foundation, tack sides of pock ets and foundation together. Wher

this is done, turn over narrow turnings

all round on to wrong side and cover with a narrow binding same shade as bag, and stitch by machine on either edge of binding, so that the bag will

Double in halves, with pockets fall-

Avoid the Powdered Coat Collar.

shouldn't they if it increases their charm? But why should they also powder the inside of their coat collar?

Of course, they don't mean to, but if you will take a look inside a lovely

new cost, you will find nine times out of ten, that already it is the worse for powder-wear. Of lace about three inches wide make a dainty protection for your coat collar. A straight piece about three-quarters of a yard long will do very nicely. Ecru filet would color of the coat lining. Tack it on

Girls will powder their necks. Why

ing on either side when in use.

Place the pieces B and C to either bag as shown in illustration.

be quite secure.

best to use brown canvas for the pur- do handsomely. Simply finish the pose, three-quarters of a yard being ends of it with a blanket-stitch in the inches at widest end. Next cut a piece and, incidentally, it is very much more

"I want to see all them things."-Los Angeles Times. GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER,

IS ALL FALLING OUT

Let "Danderine" save your hair and double its beauty.

To stop falling hair at once and rid

the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a small bottle of delightful "Danderine" at any drug or toilet counter for a few cents, pour a little in your hand and rub it into the scalp. After several applications the hair usually stops coming out and you can't find any dandruff. Help your hair grow long,

thick and strong and become soft,

Too Obliging.

Marie Dressler, the head of the

"We are striking, too, for a clean life. Too many of the men in the theatrical profession expect the chorus girl to be-er-well, to be obliging.

"'That new French maid of the

"'Yes?' said another clubman. 'Yes?

"'This morning,' said the first clubman, I saw her out with Mrs. Smith-

Peterson's baby, this afternoon with

Mrs. Smith-Peterson's dog, and this evening with Mrs. Smith-Peterson's

WOMEN NEED SWAMP-ROOT

Thousands of women have kidney and bladder trouble and never suspect it. Womens' complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

condition, they may cause the other or-bition, nervousness, are often times symp-

Don't delay starting treatment. Dr.

Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a physician's prescription, obtained at any drug store, may be just the remedy needed to overcome

Get a medium or large size bottle im-

However, if you wish first to test this Little Ben, who was very fond of

"Why, Ben." said his uncle, "you mustn't eat any more meat. Don't you know," he counseled, "if you eat

more meat you might have a dream

and see elephants and tigers and lions,

and scorpions and panthers and-"

"Gimme another piece," he begged.

Ben grinned delightedly.

beefsteak, passed his plate the other night at dinner for a second helping.

great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and toms of kidney trouble.

conditions.

mediately from any drug store.

mention this paper. - Adv.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy husband." -- Detroit Free Press.

Smith-Petersons is an obliging crea-

Like the French maid, you know.

ture' said a clubman.

How so?

Chorus Girls' onion, said, during the chorus girls' strike in New York:

glossy and abundant .- Adv.

Hurryl

Stop a minute and think what it means to say that "Green's August Flower has been a household remedy all over the civilized world for more than half a century." No higher praise is possible and no better remedy can be found for constipation, intestinal troubles, torpid liver and the depressed feeling that accompanies such disorders. It is most valuable for indigestion or nervous dyspepsia and liver trouble, coming up of food, palpitation of heart, and many other symptoms. A few doses of August Flower will relieve you. It is a gentle laxative. Ask your druggist. Sold in all civilized countries .-- Adv. Exhibition of Bad Taste. "This store must cater to the fashonable trade."

"Why do you think so?" "I notice all the shop ladies carry their noses in the air."

"So they do, and your surmise is correct, but if you want to be convinced, just offer to pay cash for something and observe the supercilious manner in which your money will be accepted."-Birmingham Age-Herald.

Cuticura Soothes Baby Rashes, That itch and burn with hot baths of Cuticura Soap followed by gentle anointings of Cuticura Ointment. Nothing better, purer, sweeter, especially if a little of the fragrant Cuticura Talcum is dusted on at the fine ish. 25c each everywhere.-Adv.

Using a Doorway. The unused doorway makes an effective bookcase. The door should be locked and treated as the back of the case. Shelves can be set in the entire door space or the lower balf.

Very Necessary.

"Walter, there is sand on this "Oh, that's to keep the butter from slipping off."

grams marked B and C, measuring about 14 inches at narrw part and 16 lining, will look well inside your coat linches at widest end. Next cut a piece and tradegrams of the inside of the coat collar at the middie of the back. It will save your coat lining, will look well inside your coat lining. Adv.

Constitution generally indicates disordered stomach, liver and bawels. Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills restore regularity without grups. Adv.

When a bank note talks it might be termed a paying teller.