FOR DELEGATE TO NATIONAL REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

We are requested to announce the name of Melville Gillett, of Smethport, Pa., as candidate for Delegate to the Republican National Convention subject to the decision of the Republican Primaries to be held May 18th, 1920. P. O. Address, Smethport, Pa.

35 PERSONS KILLED DURING 1919 HUNTING SEASON.

Also 123 Wounded—Figures Highest in Years—Tabulation of Game Killed Shows 2,913 Deer.

The state game commission has completed a tabulation of the game killed in the state during the 1919 season, showing that the season was one of the best ever recorded in recent years. Accurate records are not possible, but the figures recorded herewith are regarded as practically authentic.

Below is given an interesting table of game killed in Pennsylvania in the season of 1919:

2,913 legal male deer, 472 bears, 2,719-879 rabbits, 439,106 squirrels, 34,036 raccoons, 5,181 wild turkeys, 278,007 ruffed grouse, 15,658 ring-neck pheasants, 27,714 wild waterfowl, 46,319 Virginia quail, 27,769 woodcock, 575 Hungarian quail.

There were 119 male fawns and 207 doe deer illegally killed during the last season. Fatal accidents exceeded former years, there being thirty-five persons killed and 123 wounded.

Thousands of pelts from noxious animals, wildcats, minks, weasels and foxes are being received daily by the bounty division, being estimated that it is requiring about $1,700 per day to pay bounty claims, which money comes out of the resident hunters' license fund. From Dec. 1, 1918, to Nov. 30, 1919, $69,254 was paid out for bounty claims.

SPRING MILLS.

Mrs. Harry Allison is very low at this writing and no hopes of her recovery.

On account of the drifted roads, Rev. Aikens was unable to fill his appointment at the Lutheran church on Sunday evening.

Spring Mills will have "movies". The first exhibition will be next Tuesday in the Grange Hall which has been lighted with electric lights.

Word was received of the sad death of Alice Heckman, Miss Heckman was born and grew to womanhood in this vicinity and has many warm friends here; for recent years she has resided in Millin county but she occasionally visited her many friends who mourn her death.

Guy Corman and John Heckman, students in the vocational school, accompanied by Prof. Reitz, went to Harrisburg Tuesday, to attend the sessions of Farmers Week which is being observed in that city this week. The young men are interested in the medals for prize corn that will be awarded.

More Eggs.

Reefer's "More Eggs" is the most scientific tonic on the market today. It makes layers out of loafers. Reefer's "More Eggs" stimulates your hens and makes a champion layer out of an ordinary back-yard hen.

This great egg producer is being used successfully on the Kerlin's Grand View Poultry Farm, of this place, and the Kerlin's are offering a $1.00 package on a money-back guarantee, for seventy-five (75) cents.

Mrs. W. F. Keller, on Wednesday, returned to her home in Centre Hall from the Bellefonte hospital where two weeks previous she underwent an operation for appendicitis. Her condition is very good.

WANTED.—About eight tons of baled oats or wheat straw.—John Snavely, Spring Mills. o.4

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

A six-inch snow fell on Monday. Snow and blow has been the order for the past week.

John Kimpert, of Boalsburg, was a visitor in town last Thursday.

S. J. Eisenhower, of Lock Haven, was in town on Friday tuning pianos.

Elmer Miller, who is employed in Altoona, spent a few days at his home at Tusseyville.

The wife of Dr. M. J. Locke, a Bellefonte physician, died on Monday from heart trouble.

W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. C. F. Emery on Saturday evening. A full attendance is desired.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Campbell, at the Penns Cave House, beginning of the week.

John M. Luse the mail carrier, recently purchased a Howard piano for his daughter, Miss Edna, who is taking music lessons.

Charley Stump writes the Reporter from Finneywood, Virginia, that he reached that point in safety and found it much warmer there than in Pennsylvania. He saw snow last in Washington, D. C.

D. W. Bradford is attending the agricultural show, at Harrisburg, this week, and while there will take the opportunity to become more expert in handling the I. H. C. farm tractor, in the company's school.

M. O. Musser and T. R. Stamm, of West Union, Iowa, both former residents of Millheim, while on their way to Texas were in a railroad wreck that resulted in injury to the backs of both of them. The wreck occurred in Missouri.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Lohr, of Rutledge, came to Centre Hall on Monday for a week's stay at the Bartholomew home. Mr. Lohr has not been enjoying the best of health lately and it is hoped that the trip here may prove beneficial.

Centre Hall ought to have a public building, devoted exclusively to public use. It should be centrally located; well equipped; open at all hours; it should be made a memorial to the soldier boys. Is there any one else of this opinion who will help back up it?

The Reporter feels altogether vindicated in its position taken on the Milk League-Sheffer question in view of the incidents of the Monday morning just past, when the heads of the local branch of the Milk League asked Mr. Sheffer to receive their milk, which he did.

On Friday evening a sled load of twenty-four young people from the grammar and High schools were entertained at the home of Miss Luella Bloom, west of town. Games were played and sandwiches, pickles, ice cream and cake were served.

The Reedsville correspondent to the Belleville Times has this to say: Roy and Paul Dippery, aged respectively seven and eleven years, and who are sons of Miles Dippery, were removed to the Cresson Sanitarium last Friday. Two little girls of Mr. Dippery may go later. They have premonitory symptoms of a tubercular affection.

And what if Mr. Sheffer would have closed his plant at Centre Hall! He surely is a man of big heart, forgiving in spirit, and not the "crook and thief" he was publicly pronounced to be. Our little institutions are after all worth much to us. They come to our rescue when others fail us. Let us stand firmly by them, because they mean so much to us.

The Penn Public Service Corporation, operating in Centre, Clearfield, Cambria and other counties, with plants at Philipsburg and at Johnstown, has filed with Recorder W. H. Brown for recording in the Court House at Bellefonte a $4,000,000 mortgage, one of the biggest instruments presented in years. The Bankers Trust Company, of New York, is named as trustee. In addition to the extensive improvements at the Philipsburg plant and numerous costly extensions the corporation plans a new $2,000,000 plant not far from Johnstown.

Asks New Postoffice Building.

Congressman John V. Leshar introduced a bill into congress calling for the erection of a new post office building for Milton, the cost of which shall run into six figures. The bill carries an appropriation of $25,000 for the purchase of a site.

Policeman a Suicide.

Charles F. Ebert, a member of the Williamsport police department since 1910, committed suicide at his home, about 1:30 o'clock on Saturday. Mr. Ebert had gone to the third floor of his home and a few minutes later a shot was heard. An investigation revealed the fact that Mr. Ebert had ended his life with a revolver. He was dead when found.

W. E. Tobias, Clearfield Postmaster.

Prof. W. E. Tobias, who served faithfully for some years as superintendent of the schools of Clearfield county, has been appointed postmaster at Clearfield by President Wilson.

May Abolish Associate Judges.

Twenty counties of Pennsylvania would be effected if the amendment by committee for abolition of associate judges goes through.

There are thirty-nine such officials now, one vacancy existing in Millin county where W. C. Eckbert is being urged.

The Counties are Adams, Bedford, Cameron, Clinton, Columbia, Elk, Forest, Fulton, Huntingdon, Juniata, Millin, Monroe, Montour, Perry, Pike, Snyder, Sullivan, Union, Warren, and Wyoming.

Efficient Paris.

Visitors to France are much struck just now with the remarkable resiliency of the French people. Notwithstanding that the German armies were encamped for nearly four and a half years within 50 miles of Paris, the city is in a wonderful state of repair and efficiency, thus justifying its coat-of-arms and motto—a ship, with a Latin inscription underneath which reads: "It often rolls, but never sinks."
