POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENT

FOR LEGISLATURE.

We are authorized to announce the name of I. L. HARVEY, of Bellefonte, as a candidate for the Legislature for Centre county, subject to rules governing the Republican primaries, to be held May 18, 1920.

FOR DELEGATE TO NATIONAL REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

We are requested to announce the name of Melville Gillett, of Smethport, Pa., as candidate for Delegate to the Republican National Convention subject to the decision of the Republican Primaries to be held May 18th, 1920. P. O. Address, Smethport, Pa.

Week of Prayer Offerings.

The offerings taken during the local Week of Prayer service, last month, totalled $26.41. The expenses amounted to $7.30, leaving a balance of $19.11 which goes to the American Bible Society. Rev. C. F. Catherman was treasurer of the fund.

Tried to Crack Safe in P. R. R. Station at Woodland.

Robbers early Monday morning entered the Pennsylvania Railroad station at Woodland, Clearfield county, and twice tried to blow open the safe, but were unsuccessful. They could not get the safe door open.

Dr. Parcels Dead at Lewistown.

Dr. Parcels, seventy-two years old, is dead at Lewistown. He enlisted in the Army of the Potomac when only 15 years old and saw hard service, was in active practice as a physician in Lewistown 44 years and represented Millin county in the Legislature in 1883, 1884, 1895 and 1896.

Bank Cashiers Out of Prison.

A. C. Helfrich of Belleville, and W. Bates Bell, of Mt. Union, both bank cashiers, each sentenced to serve nine months sentences in the jails of their respective counties, for the embezzlement of bank funds, were released on Monday, their sentences having been shortened by Judge Charles W. Witmer of the U. S. Federal court, from nine months to two months. Each was sentenced to pay a fine of $100.

"Mutt and Jeff" at Garman's.

A show that is strictly out of the ordinary is promised as the next attraction at Garman's opera house, Tuesday, Feb. 17. It is "Mutt and Jeff's Dream," that most perennial and enduring of all musical farces. The play is entirely new, up-to-date material, song hits, features, novelties, surprises, and a scenic adornment that is certain to lift the production to a high plane of perfection. Thirty people are engaged in the offering, which is one of the few real entertainments of the season offered at popular prices—35, 50, 75, and $1.00.

Census Takers Use Aeroplanes.

Everything from aeroplanes to snowshoes is being used by the agents of Uncle Sam in taking the 1920 census of the United States. About the only modern method of transportation either on, over, or below land or water that has not been employed in enumerating Uncle Sam's nieces and nephews seems to be the submarine.

Aeroplanes have come in handy in enumerating the dwellers on the islands off the coast of Florida; yachts and rowboats have been used in the harbors of the country; native canoes have been in demand among the Hawaiian Islands; "fliers" are being used everywhere; the tried and trusty mule team has carried the census takers out on the desert region; and snowshoes have become the trusted aides of the census gatherers in the northern states and Alaska.

Wanted.—Experienced farmer; good wages to right party. Must furnish reference. Apply to C. A. Schweitzer, Shamokin, Pa. Both phones. 2t

PINE GROVE MILLS.

Weather prognostication: Six weeks bad weather.

John Hess, of Altoona, visited friends here beginning of the week.

J. F. Kimport and wife spent Sunday at the Chas. M. Dale home, on the Branch.

Alf. Ripka, of Georges Valley, is visiting relatives all along the line here and at Altoona.

Among the sick are Mrs. J. C. Gates, of heart trouble; Mrs. J. H. Williams, Mrs. Margaret Bierly and Walter Sunday, of bronchial trouble.

E. W. Hess, who was under the knife in the Bellefonte hospital, is improving nicely and is soon ready for his discharge.

Ed. Martz resigned his job of carrying the mail between Pine Grove Mills and State College. His successor is Clara Swabb.

Cards are out for another wedding of a prominent young couple in the western part of the county, within a few days.

A sledding party of three sled loads halted at the F. W. Swabb home, Friday evening, for a good time. Refreshments were served, and the party closed with a swell "hop".

Last Thursday evening the Rebekahs, I. O. O. F., of State College, constituted a jolly sledding party and took the J. A. Fortney home by storm, bent on a royal good time, as the Fortneys are noted entertainers.

Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Woods received a telegram from Seattle, Wash., of the serious illness of their son, George Woods, of influenza, in that far-off city. A second telegram, received Saturday, carried the cherry news of his improved condition.

The Odd Fellows banquet, held Friday evening, was a success. Covers were laid for 120, and all taken. Dr. R. M. Krebs was master of ceremonies. Mrs. D. S. Peterson presided at the piano. Rev. A. M. Lutton, Rev. Ira E. Fisher and Rev. Wilson P. Ard, of Bellefonte, spoke on the good accomplished by the brotherhood.

Last Monday Ed. Loesh with his fiancée surprised their friends by going to Lynn where they were married by Rev. L. N. Fleck at 12 o'clock noon. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Sunday, of near this place, and is a splendid young lady. The groom is an industrious young carpenter and one of the soldier boys who recently returned from overseas. The young couple will be at home after April 1st at Struble where a cozy home awaits them.

A delightful birthday party was given Mrs. A. J. Tate, January 24, by her eleven children and husband, it being her fiftieth anniversary. She was Annie Bottorf before her marriage. It was strictly a family gathering. Their son, Paul J., and his bride, nee Miss Florence Saltzman, of Beaver Springs, were guests of honor on the happy occasion. He was an overseas boy of the 28th Division. After visiting Centre county friends the couple will go to Pittsburg where the groom has a position in the U. S. railway mail service. Mrs. Tate was the recipient of many useful and beautiful presents from the family,—among them being a splendid gold watch.

REBERSBURG.

Mrs. Samuel Gephart is visiting relatives in Pittsburg.

Jasper Beckenbaugh, of Smulton, will make sale and move to Franklin county. Samuel Winters, who is employed at Montgomery, spent a few days the past week at the home of his mother.

John Zeigler, who had been on the sack list for the past four weeks, is again able to be about.

The calithumpians were out on Friday evening and serenaded Harry Shultz and wife.

Miss Bowersox, daughter of Floyd Bowersox, of near Millinburg is visiting at this place.

Last Sunday morning while attending the Reformed Sunday school, Mrs. Sidney Krumrine received a paralytic stroke. She has since been helpless.

Jacob Winkleblech this week will finish up his lumber job, near Madisonburg. He has not decided definitely where he will next locate his mill.

Miles Wance, a twelve-year-old son of Israel Wance, on last Friday, while wrestling with a school companion, had the misfortune to fracture his right arm between the wrist and elbow.

CENTRE MILLS.

Charles Wells and Charles Mauck took dinner at the J. F. Best home on Monday, the former being Mrs. Best's brother.

Henry Sweely went to Sugar Valley on Sunday.

The neighbors about here opened the roads on Monday, so it is passable for cars to Smulton.

J. Elmer Noll moved his family to this place on Tuesday. Miss Gertrude Loughner accompanied her sister, Mrs. Noll, to this place and returned to her home at Potters Mills on Saturday.

Mrs. Kline has been on the sick list for several days.

C. Roy Held went to Milton to seek employment.

AARONSBURG.

Mrs. (Rev.) Bowersox, of York, was called here last week to the home of her mother, Mrs. T. P. Condo, who was in a critical condition, but who at present shows much improvement.

W. A. Guisewitz, who has been a sufferer with sciatic rheumatism and lumbago, is very much improved.

JAMES J. GRAMLEY WRITES.

Ex-Treasurer of Centre County Celebrates 77th Birthday in Illinois.—His Democracy Unwavering.

Cedarville, Ill.
Jan. 24, 1920.

Editor Reporter:

We used to have a Democratic paper printed in our county seat, Freeport, a town of 20,000 population, called "The Bulletin;" P. O. Stiver, a native of your valley, was the editor. It was a good paper, lots of Republicans got it in preference to the Republican paper of Freeport, but Stiver's health failed; he sold out to a company and they got a man to run it and he ran it in debt, and they sold out in August to the "Journal Standard," Republican paper of Freeport and they send us now their paper to the time it was paid for. Mine runs out on the 20th of Feb. Then I am going to drop it and I always read the Democratic papers so I will enclose a check for your paper for a year. My cousin gets the Millheim Journal and we exchange the Centre Democrat; and I want to send for the New York World for a copy to see if its Democracy is all right. I will take that too, so if I get four Democratic papers I should not waver from Democracy.

Well on the 22nd of January was my 77th birthday and we ate supper a little after five o'clock and I washed the dishes and my wife dried them. I said tonight I am doing something I never did before, washing dishes on my 77th birthday, and laughed, and here the door bell rang. When I opened the door there stood eight of my neighbors and families. Seven are Pennsylvania families and talk dutch. Each family had a basket filled with sandwiches, doughnuts, cake, pie and bananas. They brought their supper along for us to eat with them, and one of the big old coffee pots full of hot coffee that I can well mind sixty-seven years ago I used to help my sisters carry out to the hay and harvest field for drink at the "ten o'clock piece". Well they had me rattled, I went out and carried chairs in but I did not tell them to take their wraps off or take chair chairs. They laugh yet when they see me.

There are in this block where I live twelve families and only two that can't talk dutch; and in the next block south are twelve families and only two that can't talk dutch—and the finest kind of people. I have not heard one man say a harmful word about any one else.

We have the United E. V., Methodist and Presbyterian churches here and they are holding a union revival meeting. They are more sociable here than any town I ever lived in, in regard to church matters. I like it very much although I still like Pennsylvania. I will never go back on old Pennsylvania.

We are having an old Pennsylvania winter. It commenced to snow on Thanksgiving day—a few inches—and on Christmas we had the very best sleighing and ever since. Yesterday we had the worst snow storm we had this winter. It snowed and blowed all day. This morning our mail could not go out for the first time and we have had no rain or thaw since Thanksgiving. Cold from around zero to 27 above; some days to below, but it the nicest cold winter. There were no drifts till this week that interfered with the milk trucks going. They have to haul with sleds. We have a six passenger truck leaving here in the morning at 7 o'clock to Freeport; comes back in the forenoon and after dinner goes in again; charges 60 cents a round trip. It is run by a girl—one of the best chauffeurs. We have 5 miles to Freeport and on Tuesday evening it was 9 o'clock when they came home—five hours on the road. Her father was along and they were nearly frozen.

Our Democratic postmaster died in Freeport, recently, and there are three applicants. They were examined last week. One of them is P. O. Stiver and I am sure he will get the office. He deserves it for what he has done for the Democratic party. The salary is $3,500 a year.

Yours truly,
JAMES J. GRAMLEY.

More Eggs.

Reefer's "More Eggs" is the most scientific tonic on the market today. It makes layers out of loafers. Reefer's "More Eggs" stimulates your hens and makes a champion layer out of an ordinary back-yard hen.

This great egg producer is being used successfully on the Kerlin's Grand View Poultry Farm, of this place, and the Kerlin's are offering a $1.00 package on a money-back guarantee, for seventy-five (75) cents.

Wisely Feathered Nests

Then He Wilted.

There is a distinct frigidly to the atmosphere in the home of Isaac Wilt retired farmer, in Valparaiso, when ever the subject of groceries and delivery boys is mentioned in the hearing of the master of the household. There's a reason: Mrs. Wilt telephoned a C. O. D. order. There was the customary delay in delivery and Mrs. Wilt stepped across the street to a neighbor's, leaving Mr. Wilt to receive and pay for the groceries. The boy with an armful arrived and laid his load on the table. Mr. Wilt scanned the bill and paid it from a pocketbook in which reposed five $20 bills. He laid the purse on the table and proceeded to confirm the bill by an inspection of the goods, depositing the wrappings on that part of the table where the pocketbook lay. Everything being found satisfactory he swept the wrappings and purse into a bundle and threw it into the stove.—Indianapolis News.

Pleasures of Brussels.

A friend who has been in Brussels for some time writes most tantalizing accounts of the delicious cakes and pastries which may be consumed with cups of chocolate and cream in the popular rendezvous there, says a writer in London Evening News. None of the custard or crumb-filled confections we have become so accustomed to here, but cakes coated with icing accompanied by almond paste, etc. He tells me that many of the improve ments made in the city by the Germans during their occupation are of the costly and permanent type, which fills the streets with beauty. Drainage systems were altered, electric lighting was installed in parts which had hitherto been devoid of it, and dancing halls were provided.
