120,000 STAND IN BREAD LINE

More Than 1,000,000 Face Death Is Message Brought by Miss Dakesian.

Imagine a bread line of 120,000 famished people waiting for twenty-four hours a day for the dole of food that is the sole barrier between them and death from starvation. That is the situation in Alexandropol, a city in Russian Armenia, according to Miss Hermine Dakesian, a pretty Armenian girl, one of the survivors of four years of the horrors of Turkish massacres and deportations. Saved by an American woman, she has come to this country and entered Oberlin College.

With her came fourteen other Armenian girls in charge of Miss Adelaide S. Dwight, a Near East Relief worker, who has been instrumental in helping to save hundreds of thousands of their people from death by starvation. Miss Dwight, who is not given to exaggeration and has seen conditions at first hand, says more than a million people are facing death by starvation in Armenia and will perish unless America aids.

Herself an eyewitness to the slaughter of hundreds of helpless women and children by the Turks and a victim of the deportations, Miss Dakesian, an unusually pretty girl, says there is untold suffering in Armenia and Syria. She praises the efforts of the Near East Relief, formerly the American Committee for Armenian and Syrian Relief, to save as many of these people as possible. At Erivan, the capital of the Armenian republic, one hot meal is given out daily, and by this relief alone the city's death rate has been cut from a thousand daily to an average of twenty. At Alexandropol, where the refugees from Turkish Armenia were driven by thousands, the situation is appalling, Miss Dakesian says. It is to avert these wholesale deaths that Near East Relief is making a nation-wide appeal for funds.

NON-JEWS ACTIVE IN JEWISH DRIVE

Are Giving Active Aid in $35,000,000 Jewish War Campaign.

NON-JEWS HELP JEWS FOR FIRST TIME

"For the first time in the history of their race, the Jews are asking help for their people from those who are not of their own blood. I am here today to tell you why they are doing this."

Harrisburg.—The doctrine of human brotherhood, which came out of the Holy Land thousands of years ago, is being taken back to it today by Christians, Moslems and Jews, who, for the first time in the history of the world, are all working together for the relief of the suffering.

The American Red Cross here has turned over its medical supplies to American Jewish relief agencies, and the Jews have turned over to the Christians a part of recent shipments of food, sent from the United States by American Jewish relief agents. Moslems also are hard at work in the industrial work rooms established by the Red Cross Commission to Palestine.

Just as marked as is this co-operation in the Holy Land, is the co-operation in efforts to relieve sufferings of millions of destitute persons in central and eastern European areas. Members of the Jewish faith, 6,000,000 in number, or more than twice the number in all the United States, outnumber other faiths in these areas. So the bulk of relief work in these areas is being done by American Jewish relief agencies.

Campaigns to raise $35,000,000 to continue this work are now in progress in the United States under the auspices of the American Jewish committee, the Central Relief committee and the People's Relief committee. But the co-operation of other faiths in raising these funds shines forth in all brilliancy in the 19-county Central Pennsylvania District, with offices in Harrisburg, as well as in other districts throughout the country.

Reasons Outlined.

An idea of what the $200,000 asked of the 19-county Central Pennsylvania District will aid the national quota in accomplishing, may be gained from a message received at district headquarters in Harrisburg from Julius Rosenwald. Mr. Rosenwald is probably better qualified to speak on Jewish relief work than any other man in the United States. Within the past year or so, he has contributed approximately $2,000,000 to the carrying on of the relief work.

Of it, he says in part:

"The sending of vast quantities of food stuffs and clothing and medicines speedily to Europe is not a matter merely of relieving distress. The problem is a far greater one.

"Today is means an effort to save from death a large part of the people in hundreds of cities, villages and wide areas that have been turned into ruins and desolate wastes by five years cy and for speed in distribution."

"In what it means to the whole world to tomorrow, many see a problem more staggering still. When he pointed out the importance of this relief work in helping to save the world from Bolshevism, because 'where there is food and plenty this horror cannot live,' Samuel Gompers spoke the conviction of nearly all who have made personal investigation of the terrible after-war conditions in Europe.

"To the Jews of America the problem is to save from extinction the greater part of Europe's remnant of the race; for of all who have come alive through the horrors of the war, the Jews, men and women and children, are today the greatest sufferers, and out of all proportion in number.

"But Jewish relief is not limited to the Jews. It is non-sectarian. It goes out to Jew and Gentile where other aid is not available. It co-operates where co-operation works for efficiency and for speed in distribution.

District Activities.

The 19-county Central Pennsylvania District has set out to raise an apportionment of $200,000 in this $35,000,000 campaign. District offices have been opened in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, Harrisburg. David Kaufman and Morris E. Jacobson, both of Harrisburg, are chairman and treasurer, respectively, of the general committee.

The campaign will be divided into two parts. The first will be held during the week of February 9-16 in Fulton, Franklin, York, Adams, Cumberland, Dauphin, Perry, Mifflin, Juniata and Huntingdon counties. The second part of the campaign has been arranged for February 23 to March 1 in Tioga, Potter, Clinton, Lycoming, Center, Union, Snyder, Northumberland and Montour counties. Preliminary drives have resulted in the subscribing and oversubscribing of quotas in Montour and Franklin counties.

Church to Ask 11 Millions for Forward Movement.

The Reformed Church of the United States, through its Forward Movement Commission, will this spring ask its members for $10,874 425, for the work of the church for a five year period of growth and effort never before equalled by the church. This is in addition to the amount needed for regular expenses which will aggregate over $4,000,000 for the five-year period.

The huge budget will be itemized as follows: Home missions, $2,283,200; foreign missions, $2,514,225; educational instutions; $3,850,000; publication interest, $550,000; ministerial relief, $1,200,000. The cost of the campaign, estimated at three per cent, will be $350,000, making the grand total as shown above. Of the amount for ministerial relief, $1,000,000 will go for sustentation, and the remainder for disabled or aged ministers.

Educational institutions of the number of twelve will receive part of the fund, the largest being Franklin and Marshall College, with $600,000; Heidelberg University, $600,000; Ursinus College, $600,000; The Mission House, $350,000; Allentown College for Women, Hood College, and Mercersburg Academy, $300,000 each; Lancaster Theological Seminary and Central Theological Seminary, $250,000 each; Catawba College $125,000, Franklin and Marshall Academy, $100,000; and Massanutten Academy $75,000.

The financial campaign of the Reformed Church is in line with the policy of the Interchurch World Movement, which is planning a drive from April 31 to May 2, in which all evangelical churches, affiliated with that movement will take part. Over twenty of the denominations are affiliated, and many of them will have financial crusades at that time.

My Tractor for Sale

STOP! LISTEN! and BUY MY TRACTOR.

It Claims To Beat Them All!

It is claimed to have been put through the most strenuous tests on the experimental farm and is now past the experimental stage.

It is absolutely fool proof, and so simple that a child can operate it.

It has outclassed all its competitors in competitive tractor demonstrations and is here to stay, while its imitators and competitors are of the mushroom variety, springing up over night—here today and gone to-morrow.

It Will Be Sold Now for the Highest Dollar.

The chancing is off, since there was only one reply and that one opposed that method, consequently the opinions against chancing are unanimous. I blame no one for I myself am very much opposed to the method of buying and selling by chance, although the business of farming is very much a game of chance,—even to buying farm implements.

If there is anyone in need of a tractor, get in and bid while the bidding is good.
