We are requested to announce the name of Melville Gillett, of Smethport, Pa., as candidate for Delegate to the Republican National Convention subject to the decision of the Republican Primaries to be held May 18th, 1920. P. O. Address, Smethport, Pa.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.
Mrs. J. A. Shultz is confined to bed because of illness.
Mrs. B. H. Arney, who had been ill for over two weeks, is recovering.

A youth's rubber was lost Saturday night on the road between Smith's store and Grange hall. Finder please leave at this office.

Mrs. Robert Meyer, of Altoona, came to Centre Hall Monday and next day returned home. She was entertained by her sister-in-law, Mrs. W. A. Odenkirch.

LOST.—Two grey geese strayed from the premises of undersigned. Party finding same please communicate with C. T. CRUST, Centre Hall, Pa., R. D. 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Crawford, of Bellefonte, went to Philadelphia, Tuesday of last week to attend the funeral of Mr. Crawford's brother, H. Victor Crawford.

The Boy Scouts, of McVeytown, are feeding the wild turkeys by carrying corn to the districts they inhabit. And they are being given credit for having done a good deed.

A large number of neighbors were entertained in a most delightful manner at the Clayton Musser home at Linden Hall, on Tuesday evening. Delightful refreshments were served and all present reported a royal good time.

W. Frank Bradford, who about two weeks ago suffered from a severe hemorrhage of the nose, is back to the railroad station again. This is his second effort to fill his place, having been obliged to return to his home for a longer rest after his first attempt.

Rev. James P. Miller, pastor of the First Lutheran church, in Tyrone, has resigned to accept a pastorate in Richmond, Indiana. Rev. Edward M. Morgan, now a Y. M. C. A. secretary, Camp Lee, has been elected a successor to Rev. Miller. The newly elected pastor served the congregation ten years ago.

A number of local hunters out for foxes on Tuesday, discovered the print of a strange animal in the snow on Nittany mountain, a short distance below Centre Hall. From the large cat-like tracks the animal made, and the length of its leap in clearing a fence, the men are of the opinion that a panther or mountain lion is lurking about, and possibly keeps hidden in the Greens Valley fastness.

The local Boy Scouts are entirely satisfied with their trip to Millheim, last Friday night, where they rendered their play "A Country Boy Scout." The audience was not so large, but their most respectful attention and the generally good atmosphere made up for lack in numbers. The Scouts, too, are under great obligation to H. E. Shreckengast, who transported them for a nominal charge.

Mrs. Elizabeth Stone, of State College, had a narrow escape from asphyxiation in the kitchen of the Nittany Inn, Wednesday evening of last week. She noticed that gas seemed to be coming from the range but went on with her work, not paying any attention to it. Suddenly the gas seemed to take effect and rendered her unconscious. A doctor was hastily summoned and for several hours she was in a critical condition, but is rapidly improving at this time.

R. M. Smith, who for a long time farmed at Centre Hill, first a tenant and later as an owner, moved to Pottery Mills, on Tuesday. He will be succeeded by his son, Charles Smith, who since his marriage lived on the Bubb place, near Red Mill. The Bubb home is now occupied by Harvey F. Musser, who for many years lived on the Peter Smith farm, just east of Centre Hill. Charles Miller, who is beginning farming operations, is Mr. Musser's successor. The first named Mr. Smith moved into the property Mr. Miller vacated, so you see it was a swapping among the four families.

THE DEATH RECORD.

HOSTERMAN.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Hosterman, at Centre Hill, has been saddened by the death of their only child, Kramer M. Hosterman, who became nine years of age, January 6th, last. The boy passed away in the Bellefonte hospital at 12:18 o'clock Wednesday morning, following an operation for appendicitis. Kramer became ill about two weeks ago with chicken pox, and later became afflicted with "flu." His condition had become somewhat better when he suddenly suffered a relapse and appendicitis further weakened his system. An operation was deemed necessary at once, and he was rushed to the Bellefonte hospital on Monday, and the operation performed that night. He came out of the ether all right, but his weakened condition could not stand the ordeal and he passed away at the time stated.
At the time of going to press no funeral arrangements had been made. Burial, however, will be made in the old cemetery at Zion Hill.

HACKENBURG.—Mrs. S. A. Hackenburg died at her home in Phillipsburg on Wednesday of last week, of bronchial pneumonia, attributable to "flu." She was aged thirty-four years, one month, and fourteen days, and was a daughter of John and Sarah Ocker, deceased, of Rebersburg. The body was taken to the home of her only brother, Forest Ocker, at Rebersburg, from which place burial was made in the Evangelical Association cemetery, Rev. Shannon officiating. Deceased was a member of the Methodist church. Besides the brother mentioned there survive three sisters: Mrs. Ed. Nearhood, of Pittsburg; Mrs. J. W. Ruhl, of Millinburg, and Mrs. A. D. Houck, of Pittsburg.

COLE.—James Wilson Cole died at his home in Rebersburg, Tuesday, from heart trouble and dropsy, and on Friday interment will be made in the Ev. Association cemetery, Rev. Hewett to officiate. The deceased was born January 16, 1854, making his age a bit over sixty-six years. He was twice married, first to Miss Jennie Schell, of Millinburg. There survives from this union one son, James Lewis Cole, of Hummelstown. The second wife, who survives, was Isabella Mallory. One brother, Charles B., and a sister, Mrs. Kline Heckman, both of Loganton, also survive.
Mr. Cole was a good citizen and lived a clean christian life.

GROVE.—Hiram Grove died at Greensburg, Friday. Interment was made at that place on Monday. He was superintendent of the Westmoreland hospital at the time of his death and was a son of John Grove, late of Gregg township.

The Telephone Situation in Pennsylvania

THIS Company is confronted by a problem, which unaided it cannot solve. Briefly, the situation is this.

Our operating costs have for several years been steadily rising—have now practically doubled. In this respect we have been experiencing only what you have, in your factories, your offices and your homes. The income with which we pay our bills is derived from the rates charged for our service, and—

These rates are now what they were before the war!

The problem, then, is one of making ends meet; and this, despite every practical economy, we have for some time been unable to do.

The seriousness of the situation concerns every user. We are certain that no one wants the quality of the service to slump badly. It is a service that plays too vital a part in the every-hour life of the community.

We are asking the Public Service Commission of this Commonwealth to consider the inadequacy of our present revenues, and to approve schedules of rates that will guarantee permanency, extension and improvement to the business and the service.

It is our duty to present the situation to the public in its essential details, and this we shall endeavor to do by frequent statements that will set forth its many aspects of immediate concern to telephone users.
