You can do something in the interest of the borough schools by giving your support to the entertainment Saturday evening, in Grange hall. It is for the benefit of the graduating class of 1920.

Last Friday was a bad sale day, and few ventured out in the blizzard, nevertheless the stock sale of J. C. Goodhart, at Centre Hill, totaled a handsome figure. Cows sold well above the $150.00 mark.

John M. Coldron is suffering with an abscess on the knee, and for a time had to resort to the use of crutches to get about. John is forced to lay off from work, which he takes more seriously than his sore knee.

Mrs. Kate Saunders, who spent the greater part of the winter at the A. P. Krape home, returned to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Raymond Miller, in Philadelphia, last week, but will return to Centre Hall in April.

The Gregg Township Vocational School students were unable to fill their engagement at Centre Hall on Saturday evening owing to the difficulty of travel over drifted roads. They have postponed their entertainment until a later date.

Daniel Delaney, father of the Delaney brothers living near Centre Hall, is quite ill at the home of his son, John W. Delaney. He had been out of the valley, returning about the last of February, and Tuesday a week he became suddenly ill.

Last week's thaw spoiled considerable goods in the warehouse of C. M. Smith's store, due to a leaky roof. A number of cellars in town were flooded, and higher water was averted only by the sudden fall in temperature accompanying the western blizzard which set in on Friday.

Keep in mind the Susquehanna University Concert Five, who are giving a series of concerts in Centre county, and will appear in Grange arcadia, Thursday evening, 18th inst. The proceeds will go to the Loyvsille Orphans Home which institution is worthy of any one's support.

Mrs. Park, wife of Dr. W. E. Park, of New Milford, had the misfortune to fall and break one of her lower limbs about two inches above the ankle. A fracture specialist, of Binghamton, New York, reduced the fracture and encased the limb in plaster paris. The news of the accident was received by Mrs. Park's father, Capt. G. M. Boal, Wednesday morning.

Lecture Course patrons were completely satisfied with the Lillian Johnson Concert company's entertainment in Grange hall, Tuesday evening. The three ladies comprising the troupe had exceptional musical ability, their voices blending in such perfect harmony that to listen to them was a perfect delight. Their Hawaiian singing in the native costume, accompanied by instruments, was splendid, as was their renditions of folk songs while dressed in the mode of yester days, to the accompaniment of the Irish harp. Miss Johnson's readings were equally as good as her singing, which is saying a great deal. Individually and collectively their work was artistic, and the most fastidious audiences would find no trouble to be well pleased with their program.

NORTHERN BAPTISTS HAVE NEW PAPER

February saw the appearance of Volume I, Number 1, of "The Baptist," the new official organ of the Northern Baptist Convention. Issued in Chicago, the weekly had a first printing of 75,000.

Dr. Lathan A. Crandall, formerly of Minneapolis, is editor-in-chief. Dr. Clifton D. Gray, editor of "The Standard," which "The Baptist" has absorbed, is managing editor. "The Standard" had been a household word in Baptist homes since 1853.

Among the contributing editors of "The Baptist" are Governor Carl Milliken of Maine, Professor William Lyon Phelps of Yale and Helen Barrett Montgomery. The purpose of the new paper is "to portray from week to week the forward steps of the denomination in the general advancement of Christianity."

Employment by many American communities of visiting nurses has inspired foreign mission societies to plan similar work, and a training school is being developed at Moulmein (Burma) Hospital for Women, so that Burmese villages may have similar workers.

Sixty-seven languages are spoken in an area a little larger than Michigan, according to the report of Baptist missionaries in Assam, British India, a province which lies close to the border of Tibet. Assam is a great tea producing center, its exports being 1,700,000 chests in 1917.

LAXATIVE for Aged People

THE BANE of old age is constipation. The bowels become weak and unable to perform their functions without aid. For this purpose only the mildest and gentlest laxative should be used. The use of harsh cathartics aggravates the trouble and makes the constipation worse. Chamberlain's Tablets are a favorite with people of middle age and older on account of their gentle action.
