Would Revive Family As Unit.

Saving the American family from "over-emphasized individualism" is announced as a leading purpose of the New World Movement of Northern Baptists.

"There is too much talk of living one's own life and too little of the unit good," said Dr. H. A. Heath of the General Board of Promotion of the Northern Baptist Convention. "It is an unusual family that has any vital common interest."

To unify the family in its church life at least 10,000 Baptist churches throughout the country are being reorganized on the basis of what is known as the Family Group Plan. Every local church of the denomination in the Northern states will be divided into family groups, with not more than ten families in a group; a leader will be appointed, and the various group leaders, with the pastor, will form a church cabinet to put local and denominational programs into effect.

"Family Sunday" will be observed at least once each three months in all the Baptist churches in the country. Everything about the services, songs, text and sermon, will be chosen from the point of view of interesting the family. Members of the family will be asked to sit together, and in thousands of rows of seats in the United States father will lead the row and tow-head son will occupy the end seat.

Christian leaders say that family prayers are held at the present time in not more than one out of every ten families of church members. The Baptist campaign will make an effort to revive the custom in all the homes of that denomination.

The various members of each family group in the church will be expected to entertain each other in their homes. Since these divisions will be made without reference to social status, perhaps on an alphabetical basis or in some other equally impartial way, this will mean a real test of Christian democracy. The leaders believe that the members of the various congregations will come through this acid test triumphantly.

"Brotherhood ought to be an actual working principle in our churches and not an idle word," Dr. Heath said. "If it is not an actual working principle this is the time for us to find it out. If there is Christian snobbishness it should be unproved. But, as a matter of fact, the Family Group Plan is being met with favor wherever it is being tried out in our churches, and families write in that they welcome this opportunity to mingle with those of varying viewpoints."

Family week-end meetings will also be introduced into many local Baptist churches, at which the various members of the family will come together for readings, recitations, music, games and chat. These programs will not necessarily be religious at all, the church leaders say. The church can safely be used for family enjoyment in these modern times, they declare.

Dr. Heath contends that this reorganization of the church on the family basis is both wise and natural.

"The family is the natural division within the church as well as outside of it," he said. "The Baptist Church is simply recognizing this fact in the New World Movement. If the movement results in a stronger welding of family ties and in helping to settle the national discontent through the mingling of various classes the church, the home and the nation will all be the better for it."

Fire Adds to Allensville's Trouble.
Fire on Saturday evening at 9 o'clock broke out at Allensville, Millfin county, and totally consumed three large frame dwelling houses, on the east end of the town on the right side of the main street going westward.

The old adage that trouble never comes singly is being vindicated at Allensville which with the advent of fire has experienced the sequence of the much discussed trinity of trouble, the three scourges in Allensville's case being Flu, Snow and Fire.

Farm House Burned.
The dwelling house on the E. C. Strohm farm one and one-half miles north-west of Zion was totally destroyed by fire Wednesday afternoon of last week, the origin of the fire being unknown. The property was insured for $1000, and the household goods for $400 in the Farmers' Mutual company.

The farm, last January, was sold to Evan McClellan, of Altoona, who had moved all his household goods into the house. It is not known whether or not he had insurance on it.

When the fire broke out a daughter of Mr. Strohm and a daughter of Mr. McClellan were the only persons about the place.

Aged Man a Suicide.
Hanging to a tree at the very edge of the woods at the head of Market street, South Williamsport, within sight of a number of houses, the body of Philip P. Schneider, 62, a brick worker, was discovered about 6:30 p. m. Friday evening. A small boy who saw the body earlier thought it was an overcoat.

Schneider's family lives in South Williamsport, but he had not been living at home since August, 1919.

The limb from which the body was suspended was only eight feet from the ground. Schneider had used a light twine to end his life, throwing it around the limb nine times, fashioning a loop, and allowing his body to droop to a half-sitting position, partly encircling the tree, where he had apparently slowly strangled to death.
