IS TEST OF DENOMINATION.

New World Movement Gains Momentum—Where the Money Will Go.

By LUPTON WILKINSON.

The eyes of the Protestants everywhere will be directed toward Northern Baptists between Sunday, April 25, and Sunday, May 2.

The 10,636 churches constituting the Northern Baptist Convention—noted for independence of action—have fitted themselves with iron-clad unity into a temporary but none the less powerful machine. On May 2 the machine will cease to exist, but in the meantime it is expected to have raised the imposing sum of $100,000,000.

Leaders say that probably never before have the laymen and laywomen of a denomination put their shoulders more completely to the wheel in a religious undertaking. In each of 34 states some man of marked ability has given his entire time for the past two months to the building of a campaign organization that reaches into every local church. The state directors include such men as ex-Governor Runyon of New Jersey, Smith G. Young, financier, of Lansing, Mich.; ex-Governor William W. Stickney of Vermont and Dr. John W. Bally, president of Colorado Women's College, Denver.

The lay organization extends down into each of 10,636 churches. D. C. Shull of Sioux City, Ia., president of the Northern Baptist Convention, summed up its challenge as follows:

"Those thousands of Baptists who learned the discipline and efficiency of planned campaigning while they were serving their country during the war can now apply that knowledge in the performance of the greatest task the Baptist denomination has ever faced as a unit. Thousands of others can bring their talents for use in a drive that will combine modernity of method with deep spiritual realization of a world in need.

"Surely it can be said with all reverence that no greater crisis has confronted evangelical Christians since those early days when, after the Ascension, a band of determined men set out on the initial effort to make faith in the Master worldwide."

The great momentum which the New World Movement of Northern Baptists has achieved is due to many men, but to those in touch with its progress two names stand out.

Dr. John Y. Aitchison, director of the General Board of Promotion of the Northern Baptist Convention, a man of unusual personal magnetism and winning character, has set the important campaign conferences on fire in every section of the country. Standing shoulder to shoulder with him is Dr. Frank W. Padelford, head of the Baptist Board of Education. Charged with the administration of 68 schools and colleges, Dr. Padelford nevertheless found time to write the survey on which the approaching campaign is based and is aiding heavily in the actual drive.

"The task before us," Dr. Aitchison said in a recent interview, "will stand or fall by one test. Are our people strong enough in their faith and vision to forget the old measurements of church giving? If they will realize the Christian crisis which exists, if they will hear the call of the whole world for help, and for the supreme soul-help of the Man of Galilee, there can be no possibility of holding back."

The proposed $100,000,000 fund will be used for the expansion of forty Baptist schools and colleges in the United States; the enlargement of missionary activities in all foreign fields of the denomination; Christian Americanization work among "new citizens" in the United States; an adequate pensioning fund for missionaries and ministers and kindred purposes. Approximately three-fourths of the money will be spent in this country.

Wood, Johnson and Lowden are the irreconcilables in the G. O. P. presidential camp, and are likely to be the source of a lot of worry to the "Old Guard" bosses when the curtain is raised at Chicago.

LAXATIVE for Aged People

THE BANE of old age is constipation. The bowels become weak and unable to perform their functions without aid. For this purpose only the mildest and gentlest laxative should be used. The use of harsh cathartics aggravates the trouble and makes the constipation worse. Chamberlain's Tablets are a favorite with people of middle age and older on account of their gentle action.
