

WOMEN! DYE RIGHT! SAY "DIAMOND DYES"

Don't Spoil or Streak Material in a Poor Dye

Each package of "Diamond Dyes" contains directions so simple that any woman can diamond-dye a new, rich, fadeless color into worn, shabby garments, draperies, coverings, whether wool, silk, linen, cotton or mixed goods.

Depends on How You Look at it. Weary William—Gee whiz! Dis would must be going crazy. Dere's an article in dis paper what says a man traveled 4,000 miles to take baths.

That Depends. "How I would like to taste her cherry lips!" "Why, do you fancy the lipstick flavor?"

Success. Mrs. Banks—How did he ever become an art critic? Mrs. De Boggs—He used to pass on his wife's complexion.

Endearing Occupation. "James is a dear, but he is certainly a bug about bee culture." "I see: a regular honeybug."

Stock Raising in WESTERN CANADA

is as profitable as grain growing. Successes as wonderful as those from growing wheat, oats, barley, and flax have been made in raising Horses, Cattle, Sheep and Hogs. Bright, sunny climate, nutritious grasses, good water, enormous fodder crops—these spell success to the farmer and stock raiser. And remember, you can buy on easy terms.

Farm Land at $15 to $30 An Acre

—land equal to that which through many years has yielded from 20 to 45 bushels of wheat to the acre—grazing land convenient to good grain farms at proportionately low prices. These lands have every rural convenience: good schools, churches, roads, telephones, etc., close to live towns and good markets.

If you want to get back to the farm, or to farm on a larger scale than is possible under your present conditions, investigate what Western Canada has to offer you.

TOOK AN EXCEPTION.

He was an argumentative local councillor, and was crushing an opponent's case.

"Gentlemen," he said, "you may say, with Councillor Smith, that this is a case of six of one and half a dozen of the other. But I say, 'No!'—pause for emphasis—"No; it is nothing of the sort. It is exactly the contrary."—London Tit-Bits.

Sensing the Film Fans' Tastes. Eager Author—I've got a great scenario here. Deep sea play, with starfish, octopuses and other denizens of the deep as our animal actors. Scenario Editor—Nope, wouldn't do; not enough novelty. Most of the audience are made up of hard shells, suckers, shrimps, lobsters, crabs and clams—an' they'd be bored to death.—Film Fun.

The Extremist. "Your friend, Miss Blank, is a very strict teetotaler," said a man commenting on a girl who had refused to eat brandy sauce with plum pudding. "Strict doesn't express it," replied the girl's friend. "Why, she's the particular she won't beat her curling tongs over a spirit lamp!"—London Tit-Bits.

A Puzzler. "Ma, when any one steals anything from you, mustn't you forgive him until he gives back what he took?" "Of course not, my child." "Then I'll tell Dick when he comes tonight that you say he must give me straight back the kias he stole from me yesterday."

"You and Grump seem to get along pretty well." "Yes, you see he never borrows anything but trouble, and that's the only thing I ever have to lend."

A Contingency. The early bird will get the worm. Of that there is no question; but if, alas, the worm should turn He'd get the indignation.

The Reason. "They say more fish is eaten in Japan than in any other country." "I suppose that is because they can manage the bones there with Japanese."

Sure Ways. "What is the quickest way to get up in the world?" "Either get a job with an aviator or pat a mule on the off hind leg."

Pleasant Change. "You are working too hard." "I must finish this novel." "Sometimes I wish I had trained you to wipe dishes," declared his wife. "Why, my dear?" "Then you could get away from your work now and then."

It's a Great Life! Harry—Old Miserly worked hard and long, but he finally succeeded in amassing a fortune. Hugh—Yes; he now has enough money to pay his doctor bills the remainder of his life.

Contrary Success. "Bings has been remarkably successful. It certainly requires headwork in his business." "He'll tell you himself; that is why he landed with both feet."

Well Drilled. "Do married men make better soldiers than single ones?" "Of course. They're more accustomed to discipline."

Dad's Dictum. "I love your daughter, but fear I am no match for her." "You sure ain't. But why should that keep you from getting her? No married man is a match for his wife."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Their Nature. "Oculists' bills are particularly irritating." "Why so?" "Because in their very nature they are calculated to develop eye-rate possibilities."

Baby Specialists.

THAT there are Physicians who specialize on Infant ailments you know. All Physicians understand Infant troubles: all Physicians treat them. It is his profession, his duty, to know human ills from the Stork to the Great Beyond.

But in serious cases he calls in the Specialist. Why? He knows as every Mother knows, or ought to know, that Baby is just a baby, needing special treatment, special remedies.

Can a Mother be less thoughtful? Can a Mother try to relieve Baby with a remedy that she would use for herself? Ask yourself; and answer honestly!

Always remember that Baby is just a baby. And remembering this you will remember that Fletcher's Castoria is made especially for Infants and Children.

The False and the True.

Advertising by the use of large space, the expenditure of huge sums of money have placed on the market, have put in your home, perhaps, many articles that today have been discarded, as you will readily admit.

Do you recall anything that has more modestly appealed to the public than has Fletcher's Castoria: modest in all its claims, pleading at all times—and truthfully—for our babies?

The big splurge, the misleading claims may win for a time, but the honest truth-telling advertiser is like the old story of the tortoise that beat the hare.

Mothers everywhere, and their daughters, now mothers, speak frankly, glowingly, enthusiastically in praise of Fletcher's Castoria. Speak of it lovingly as a friend that has brought comfort, cheer and smiles to their little-ones.

There are substitutes and imitations as there are for the diamond, for anything of value. One might almost say that that which is not copied has no value. So you have had the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and a copy of the genuine wrapper kept constantly before you that you may guard against the false and the untrue.

MOTHERS SHOULD READ THE BOOKLET THAT IS AROUND EVERY BOTTLE OF FLETCHER'S CASTORIA.

HIRAM EVIDENTLY A SNORER HIS CHANCE TO GET EVEN

Faithful Wife Thought She Recognized Porcine Lamentations as Made by Her Lord and Master.

Ex-Buck's Opportunity for Revenge on Former Top Sergeant Too Good to Miss.

An amazingly fat couple boarded a sleeping car just before the train pulled out of the Pennsylvania station in New York, and soon retired, the woman taking the lower berth and the man the upper of a section. It was necessary to enlist the aid of the porter and a couple of friendly passengers to enable the man to attain to his lofty couch, but it was accomplished and the car presently became quiet.

Some time during the night the train was held up on a siding, and, as it happened, the sleeping car was stopped right alongside a car loaded with uncomfortable and loudly protesting hogs, the noise of whose lamentations ascended to the stars. "Oh, Lord!" the occupant of the lower berth was heard to moan. "Just listen to that! Hiram has started to snore!" and I can't get up there to make him turn over!"

Taking Joy Out of Life. "The meanest man I know is a young fellow who boards with us." "What is the matter with him?" "He is trying out an invention to keep subscribers from listening when a party line is being used."

Some women are as set in their ways as an old hen.

If you must look at people's faults shut your eyes.

The ex-buck was back at his old pre-war trade, in which the tools consisted of a pocket flashlight and black silk handkerchief. Inside the darkened house all was silent, save for the heavy breathing of the man who lay asleep on the bed.

The burglar gathered up his spoils—watch, money and a few odds and ends of more or less value—and turned to make his departure. Then, obeying an impulse, he turned the light on the man in the bed and let it creep up until it reached the face. "My God!" he gasped. "My old top sergeant!"

For a moment he hesitated. Then, forming a sudden resolution, he tipped over to the bureau and—

Tree Surgery. Another new and growing work akin to forestry, is tree surgery. This was originated by an Ohio man, who now maintains a school to train his workers, all of whom find employment with the company at the satisfactory completion of the course. This work is interesting, scientific, well paid and gives a boy a wholesome out-of-door life.—Boys' Life.

Good Reason. "Did Billy call up his girl on the long distance phone." "No; he was too short."
